THURSDAY EVENG, JAN. 27, 1876.

IT IS NOT ALWAYS TRUE.

It is not always those who mourn,
Who feel the grateful sorrow,
For they who grieve the most are oft
The brightest on the morrow,
The heart may know too deep a grief
To seek relief in weeping—
An agony that leads the soul
To grim despair's dark keeping.

It is not always those who laugh,
Who really are the gayest,
Nor yet those who with ready tongues,
Most witty words oft sayest,
For though the lips may wreath with smiles,
And jesting words be spoken,
'Tis done, perhaps to screen the heart
That grief has well nigh broken.

It is no sign that they who will
At every casual meeting,
With proffered hand and pleasant smiles,
Say honied words at words at greeting,
Are your true friends, but often those
Who will assume such candor,
That they may smile on you when near,
And when you're gone may slander.

ONTARIO GAZETTE.

The last Official Gazette of this Province contains the following matters of interest:—

William J. Fitzgerald, of the City of London, Barrister, and Hamilton Tripp, of the Village of Forest, to be Notaries Public in and for the Province of Ontario.

His Honor Judge Burrowes, Judge of the County Court of the County of Frontenac; Alexander S. Kirkpatrick, Clerk of the Peace; William Henry Fuller, Clerk of the County Court; and Michael Flanagan, Clerk of the City of Kingston, to be Commissioners per dedimus potestatem for the County of Frontenac.

Notice is given of application for the incorporation of the Ontario Inlaid Wood Company of Belleville, Ont.

HAD BEEN TO SUPPER.—He caught a chair, after a short race, and sat down. "Where have you been?" that the first question before they say they are going home to their father, but he had an answer that would have stunted any women living:

"B'n Presbyterian supper."

"W-h-h-t! Who did you go with?"

"Wizzie boys."

"Boys! What boys?"

"Alla boys. Presbytery Morrerators in all."

Here Mrs. W.—bowed the frill of her night cap and wept, and he explained between convulsive jerks at his boot:

"Sno use crying. Good company. Bet Morrerator 'e couldn't say Ten Commandments. Losh my money. Took 'nother drink. Wheut my head. Six-a-dog. Ladies all helmahead."

"Oh, Charles! Another woman held your head!" Sobs.

"Now. Maria, don't be a fool. Who said nuzzer ooman helahead!"

"Why, you said so yourself." More sobs.

Never. I'm a furnel liar. Tell you the truth this time. Sa'lmpe Bob," and doubtless he would if he hadn't gone dead to sleep while he was talking—[Columbia (S. C.) Register.

—The following was a part of a young attorney's peroration on argument of demurrer in a court recently:—"May it please your Honor, this is a stupendous question. Its decision by you, this day will live in judicial history long after you and I shall have passed from this scene of earthly glory and sublunary vanity; when the tower of Pisa shall be forgotten when Waterloo and Borodino shall grow dim in the distant cycles of receding centuries; when the names of Eugene, Marlborough, and Napoleon are no longer remembered; when the Pyramids of the Pharaohs shall have crumbled into dust; when the Hippopotamus shall cease to inhabit its native Nile; even then your ruling upon this demurrer will still survive in the volumes of legal lore, as fresh, green and imperishable as an antique big Thompson grasshopper, or a Colorado potato bug."

AN UNGRATEFUL BANKER.—Years ago a noted highwayman was arrested in the South of Ireland and curiosity drew numbers to the jail to see the man loaded with irons who had long been a terror to the country. Among others was a banker, whose notes at that time were not held in the highest estimation, who assured the prisoner that he was very glad to see him there at last. The highwayman, looking up replied: "Ah, sir, I did not expect that from you—indeed, I did not; for you know well that when all the country refused your notes, I took them."

For all pains in the stomach and bowels, colic, diarrhœa, dysentery, cholera, or cholera morbus, as well as all pains and suppressions to which ladies are subject from taking cold at a critical period, take Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed, or Water-Pepper. It is a most positive specific in all such ailments. Used externally as an embrocation, it is a most valuable application for all sprains and bruises, frost-bits, chilblains, felons, rheumatic affections, scalds, burns, cuts, neuralgia, pain in back, soreness or stiffness of joints, stings and bites of poisonous insects and reptiles, caked breast, or 'agne in breast,' and enlarged glands,—in short, is an unexcelled liniment for man and beast. It is sold by all respectable dealers in medicines.

Hemorrhoids (or Piles) are permanently cured by Mathieu's Pile Ointment, or money refunded. Price $1 per Pot, or 6 Pots for $5. Sold wholesale and retail by the Wingate Chemical Company, Montreal, and retail by all druggists, or will be forwarded to any address on receipt of price by Dr. E. Mathieu, 198 Notre Dame Street, Montreal.

A CARD.—To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c, I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the REV. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, Bible House, New York City.

Forty years' experience have tested the virtues of Dr Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and it is now generally acknowledged to be the best remedy extant for pulmonary and lung diseases; embracing the whole range from a slight cold to a settled consumption. Were it not for its merits, it would long since have died and made no sign.

General Debility.—Mr. James I. Fellows, Chemist, St. Johns, N. B. DEAR SIR,—Having used your Compound Syrup for some time, in my practice, I have no hesitation in recommending it to my patients who are suffering from General Debility, or any disease of the Lungs, knowing that even in cases utterly hopeless it affords relief. I am, sir, yours truly. H. G. ADDY, M. D.

St. John, N. B., January, 1868.

Burnett's Cocoaine.—A perfect dressing for the hair—The Cocoaine holds a liquid form, a large proportion of deodorized Cocoa-nut Oil, prepared expressly for this purpose. No other compound possesses the peculiar properties which so exactly suit the various conditions of the human hair. A single application renders the hair (no matter how stiff and dry,) soft and glossy for several days. It is conceded by all who have used it, to be the best and cheapest hair dressing in the world.

Very Natural.—When a person has proved an article and found it good, and answering the purpose for which it is intended, he will not readily abandon it for one doubtful reputation or conceiting which he knows nothing. We are led to make these remarks owing to the course always pursued by those who have used that celebrated and valuable horse medicine known as "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy." All are so well pleased with it that they will not use any other; many have waited several weeks weeks until the agent could obtain a new supply. There is nothing equal to it as a medicine, for any complaint affecting wind of horses. Remember the name and see that the signature of Hurd & Co.'s on each package.
