BASE BALL CONVENTION. - We notice by the Mercury that a meeting was lately held in Guelph, at which the Maple Leafs organized permanently, and nrade arrangement for holding a convention at Toronto early in April, at which the question of championship will be settled. The Maple Leaf team now is considered one of the strongest ever formed; and the Mercury expresses the opinion that this will be the livelist base ball season ever known in the country. What the country wants is an association by which particular clubs will not be permitted to boss things as they would like or feel inclined-by which Guelph's grain trade. will not, as in past years, insist that all games for the championship must be played on their grounds, subject to such their order in Toronto next month. rules and regulations as they may dictate, thus making it almost impossible for a Canadian Club to compete favorably for any honors, however trifling.
