Other Patent Remedies of the Sisters of Providence.

TATE Sisters of Providence believe it their. And to Druggists. Grocers and other Mercharts in particular, that they have decided, in the intere is of the poor, to continue the sale of their various patent medicines, notwithstanding the obstacles that have been raised against them, because they have in view only to procure for themselves some means of relieving the suffering members of Jesus Christ, and because they consider, besides, that they are perfectly in the

It is, therefore, with supreme regret that they see themselves hindered in the steps which it is necessary that they should take to gain their object, by persons who, not having to oc-cupy the meelves with the case of the poor and sick, and who, moresver, have only in view their own interests and those of their families, employ threats of prosecution before the Courts of Jastice, and who even have recourse to these and other extreme measures so as to prevent them drawing profits from their industries by preventing them to sell their patent remedies.

As these threats tend to injure infirm persons whom Divine Providence has confided to their care, is dissuading those who have the charity to encourage them from buying these remedies, as they were accustomed to do before they were ir gittened by such threats, the aforesaid Sisters flue themselves obliged to declare pub bely that they are determined to endeavour, & th all their streng h, to multiply, by the sale these remedies which they manufacture, their modest resources for the relief of the Full of confidence in the justice of their cause sure all benevolent persons, who are accustom ed to escourage them by purchasing the said remedies, that no one car disturb them. They prefer to declare to them that they hold them: March 10, 1876.

COMPOUND SYRUP

As Prepared by the Sisters of Providence, Montreal and Burlington, Vt.

T IS THRITY YEARS and upwards since we commenced preparing this Syrup under the present name and during this time we have given away to the poor and sold many thou-sand of bottles. It has been only at the earnest solicitation of our friends, of all classes and denominations, that we have considered it our duty to put it up in a shape suitable to be sold on the market, by this means reaching all who may need it. The formula of the remedy is well known to medical gentlemen of Montreal, and approved of by them as one of the best remedual agents known to the medical faculty for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Pains in the Chest. Disease of the Lungs, and all Pul monary affections.
