CONSTITUTIONAL

CATARRH REMEDY

CATARRH

Cannot be cured by Snuffs, Washes, or Local Applications. It is a weakness of the constitution, developing itself in the nasal organs first, afterwards extending to the throat and lungs, ending generally in Consumption, if not checked by proper remedies. Pains in the head, back, loins and weakness of kidneys are its attendant diseases. More people have Catarrh than any other disease. It is easily cured. Thousands of cases, some of forty years standing have been entirely cured the past three years by the Contitutional Catarrh Remedy. Certificates to back the above and a treatise on Catarrh sent free on application to T J B Harding, Chemist, Brockville, Ont. Send name on postal card and it will only cost a cent. Price —$1 per bottle or six bottles for $5. For sale by all Druggists and Medicine dealers.

T. J. B. Harding, Esq.,

Brockville, Feb. 9, 1872.—Sir: Having had Catarrh for a number of years, and having tried nearly all the remedies advertised that promised relief or cure, without the desired result, I came to the conclusion that it was useless in trying to cure the disease. I was advised last fall to give your "Constitutional Catarrah Remedy" a trial, and did so, with very little faith as to the result. But I am happy now to say, that after using three bottles, I am entirely cured, and do not feel as if I ever had Catarrh. I also cheerfully recommend it to all those that suffer from that disease, and am satisfied that if they will only try one bottle, it will need no other recommend, and will convince the most sceptical.

Yours Respectfully,
JOHN C. BANN,
St. Lawrence Hall.

For sale by all Druggists.

CITY AND VICINITY

THE RAILWAY.—The K. & P. RR. is now carrying freight from Charbot Lake to the city, and an occasional passenger. Business will become livelier the longer the road is in operation.

SUICIDE.—A farmer named William Avery, living at Plessis, near Alexandria Bay, hung himself on Monday to a hay rack, a halter being the instrument of death.

RAIN.—Though it has threatened to rain several times but little fell, and vegetation, if not suffering, is commencing to languish for want of moisture. A good, heavy rain would do an immensity of benefit to the crops. For it our sincere wishes are expressed.

A BONUS.—The Central Fair deputation will wait upon the City Council this evening and solicit a bonus to assist in defraying the expenses of the Exhibition of next fall. The deputation was instructed to attend a previous meeting, but there being no quorum the object was defeated.

ST. GEORGE'S.—Last night at the regular meeting several new members were admitted, and Messrs. Nuttall, Smythe, Pense, Graffley, Thornton, Hitchens and Scorah were appointed a committee to take charge of the annual Pic-nic, prepare plans for its carrying out, and to receive prize contributions, reporting at next monthly gathering.

SCHOOL CERTIFICATES.—In reply to a communication of enquiry sent by Dr. Aguew to Toronto, a reply has been received from Dr. Hodgins, Deputy Minister of Education, stating that power exists for the reissue of third-class certificates without examination of the candidates, and then only with the consent of the Inspector.

DEMISE.—The death of Mrs. Abrams, of Willotsholme, removes from the county not only a lady of uncommonly amiable disposition, widely known and as widely loved and respected but one of its oldest inhabitants, she having spent 60 years of her life in it. She will indeed be missed from her welcome place in the community.

FAREWELL.—The Rev. Mr. W. Stephenson, pastor of Wesleyan Church, Hamilton, delivered his farewell sermon to his congregation prior to his removal to another field of labor. The Rev. W. W. Carson, formerly of Kingston, is also about to leave that city and a farewell social was given to him on Monday evening by his congregation, who also presented him with an address and bible, and Mrs. Carson with an album.

THE BAND.—Last evening it essayed to play in the City Park. One selection had just been played, and the audience was rapidly swelling, when the sky clouded and a dash of rain scattered the crowd. Thus an evening's amusement was brought to a very abrupt close. This evening the band will play at the moonlight excursion on the steamer "Maud." To morrow it will discourse sweet melody on the Queen's Wharf.

WOLFE ISLAND.—The following were elected officers of Hiram Lodge, Wolfe Island, A.F.A.M., for the ensuing year, subject to the approval of the M.W. the Grand Master:

Bro. W. H. Godwin, W.M.
" James Horn, S.W.
" John Davis, J.W.
" Richard Irvine, Chaplain.
" Donald Cattanach, Treasurer.
" Thomas A. Hatfield, Secretary.
" John McCaul, Tyler.

RIGHTED.—Some people affect surprise that the Council did not wait upon Dom Pedro, and shew him and his wife and suite what courtesy they could during his short stay here. They might have done so (and the omission would have been the more noticeable if they did not) had the Council received positive information as to the time and place of his arrival. In Toronto his visit was as unexpected as here. This disposes of the grievance.

WEDDINGS.—The Cape Vincent route is popular among the matrimonial and matrimonially inclined. This spring several went that way for their honeymoons. Two took that direction to-day. It is interesting to watch the departure of a wedding party. It creates more than a feeling of curiosity and interest, too, as we overheard two young ladies remark it made them feel like getting married themselves, and they were bound to get married. That's right. So say we all—all that's not married now.

COUNCIL.—This evening the City Council will meet pursuant to adjournment. The railway and dry dock questions are those which will occupy, it is most likely, most time, but other matters may be taken up, the meeting being considered a continuation of that of Monday evening. En passant it may be remarked that when members once take seats at the Board it is contrary to the spirit of the rules that they should leave without permission, which few now seem inclined to ask.

OLIVER OF THE MILL.—Messrs. Dawson Bros., the enterprising book publishers of Montreal have sent us an advance copy of "Oliver of the Mill," a tale by Miss Charlesworth, author of "Ministering Children." The attention of the trade is confidently invited to this new story, as promising to have a very large sale. Of "Ministering Children" one hundred and forty-nine thousand copies were sold in England alone. Oliver of the Mill is a book of the same class. It is a religious story and will be largely required for presentation to young people as well as for ordinary perusal. It is very nicely printed and bound. It should command a ready and extensive sale.

WIND WAFTS.

—Gloriously warm to-day. Perhaps you laugh at our not liking it.

—The Hon. R. J. Cartwright has returned to Ottawa.

—John B. Benson, of Belleville, has become proprietor of the Brighton Ensign.

—The Street Railway is much appreciated in Belleville. It is a source of great convenience and very little annoyance.

—The next temperance celebration will take place in Napanee on Tuesday, June 5th, 1877.

—John Elliott, Kingston, figures largely in the St. Gabriel Cattle Market, Montreal.

—Mulloney says that the people who don't believe in purgatory may go further and speed fare worse.

—The wool market here has not yet opened. The article, however, is quoted at from 25 to 28cts.

—The Maud took a nice party over to Cape Vincent this afternoon. The day was lovely.

—The yacht Countess of Dufferin (painted black) is the attraction of the day. She has a pretty look.

—Mr. John N. Gladden, formerly of Kingston, was last week elected Secretary of the Republic Iron Company, Cleveland.

—The Canadian military has been reduced from two hundred to sixty men, forty of whom are riflemen and the balance artillery.

—The idea of the staid and poetic leditor of the Ormstown New Dominion heading a leading article with the joke on "reality of Riel."

—This daily morning canter of the "bhoy's" of Princess street on horseback is a far better thing to take for spirits than the morning decanter.

—The Ottawa Free Press school master was abroad in the old Geography School day. He places Vincent de Paul Penitentiary in Kingston.

—The corner stone of the new M.E. Church, Mallorytown, will be laid by Bishop Carman on Thursday, the 15th inst.

—The Oshawa children ornament the schools with potted flower plants, and the Oshawa papers commends the "notion." So do we. Flowers are cheery things.

—The annual Fair of the West Hastings Agricultural Society will be held on Thursday and Friday, the 14th and 15th of September next.

—A match gave of cricket between elevens representing the Counties of Hastings and Prince Edward will be played at Picton on Dominion Day.

—Brockville dumps the dry goods men's packing cases into ditches and uses them for drainage purposes. Cheap and handy!

—The annual conference of the Bay of Quinte District of the Methodist Episcopal Church commences at Brockville today. Bishop Carman will preside.

—Dom Pedro wouldn't walk up town when the boat arrived at Brockville yesterday. The Recorder hints that the streets were so bad the Emperor was afraid of breaking his neck.

—Messrs. Marshall and Connors are attending the Grand Orange Lodge in Cobourg. Messrs. Gordon and Callaghan have returned from the same place where the Black Chapter met.

—Lucious strawberries are tempting. They are showing themselves in limited quantities. Excursionists to Cape Vincent to-night may get a glimpse, if not a taste of them.

—Rev. Father Brennan was presented with an address by the congregation of St. George's Cathedral, Picton, prior to his departure for Europe, for the benefit of his health.

—Lt.-Col. Worsley inspected the armory of No. 1 Company, Belleville, yesterday. The Intelligencer is bound to elevate him whether the Government recognize their whining or not and dubs him the Deputy Adjutant General of this district.

—When other places are voting money for holiday celebration the lively citizens here are wondering what in thunder our Council men are doing in not throwing out a handful of money for Dominion Day nonsense. They will wonder the more when they are called to consider where in thunder the money is coming from.

—The latest novelty in theft was exhibited in St. Catharines on Saturday night, when an organ was stolen from the Congregational Church. If this sort of thing continues it will soon be unsafe to leave a railway out of doors at night, and the city lamp posts will require to be carefully padlocked to prevent them from being carried off. It is all the fault of Grit rule. No one ever stole a church organ when Sir John was Premier.

"And what is so rare as a day in June!
Then, if ever, come perfect days;
Then Heaven tries the earth if it be in tune,
And softly over it her warm ear lays;
Whether we look, or whether we listen,
We hear the murmur, or see it glisten;
Every clod feels a stir of might,
An instinct within it that reaches and towers,
And, groping blindly above it for light,
Climbs to a soul in grass and flowers."

YARKER.

ECCLESIASTICAL.—Rev. Mr. Roberts officiated in Holy Trinity Church in the afternoon. The Rev. Mr. Mocan preached in the W.M. Church in the evening. Sunday School will be reopened next Sabbath under the superintendence of Dr. Cannon.

GOSSIP.—There has been a lively time in the village lately with runaways—both man and beast. The store keepers would like to find the whereabouts of the man, but the attractions of the Centennial proved too strong for him. About $10 will cover the expenses of the last horses, and the loss of one evening's milk and 60c. per head for poundage will cover the rest. Fortunately nobody was seriously injured physically.

BUSINESS.—The woollen mill is again in full running order. The wool is coming in briskly.—D.

STOCK FOR THE CENTENNIAL.—The Live Stock Department at the Centennial promises to be a great interest. It is supposed about 1,000 prizes will be awarded, but what amount or what way is not yet generally known. A steamship is fitted specially to bring stock from Europe. The Stock exhibition will take place on October 10th to the 18th. Applications for exhibiting may be made until the 10th of June.

THE MEETINGS AT THE MUSIC HALL.

"Faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God."—Rom. 10-17.

I am persuaded that prayer for the unconverted should be accompanied with teaching to them, so that their ears may hear the Gospel of the grace of God. God has joined these together, and man is not to put them asunder; for, while it is true that "God gives the increase," it is when "Paul plants and Apollas waters," and as "faith cometh by hearing," we have no right to ask God to grant faith without hearing. In any meeting where there is preaching to the unconverted, God's people should pray for a blessing on the word heard; but the word should be heard to authorize the prayer. Paul's heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel (his kinsmen in the flesh) was, that they might be saved—Rom. 10-1. He has the desire, and he comes to God with it. We notice two things in Paul's desire and prayer: First, he teaches them, (which the Scriptures abundantly show) and next he prays for them himself, without deputing the Church or any other persons or person to pray for them. He writes that the Gospel is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth.—Rom. 1-16; and that "faith cometh by hearing," as God's appointed way. But prayer for the unconverted without the hearing of the Word is asking Him to change the course of His dealing with men, and is, I think, prayer for that which we cannot expect Him to grant; for "it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe" (Cor. 1., 21). I have no faith in prayer for an unconverted man while there is not desire enough in our hearts to impel us to go to him and teach him that by the hearing of the Word he may believe. With what face could I pray for my children if I never instructed them in the things of God? It would be but a mockery; and it is the same as the circle widens to relations and neighbors. The Gospel converted in one day 3,000, and in another 5,000 Jews (Acts II., 41 and 44.) The Gospel converted the Samaritans (Acts VIII., 4, 5,) and the Gentiles (Acts X., 34, 44). Thus we see that it is "the power of God unto salvation." If we ask God for the conversion of sinners without teaching them, it is like asking God to make a plant grow where you have neither sown nor planted. The system, if correct, would have saved the Apostles a world of trouble, for instead of teaching all nations, they had only to pray in conjunction for their conversion. If you love any who know not God teach them first, then pray for them in the consciousness that you are yourself brought nigh to God by the by the blood, or death, of Christ, and, as a member of His body, no one nearer than yourself, but do not ask the prayers of those who never preached the Gospel to them, who know nothing about them, and cannot always remember the long list of the names of the persons for which they are sometimes called on to pray. But, notwithstanding the mistake, I think the meetings good, and I pray God to make them a blessing through the Gospel of His grace, which "teaches us to live soberly, righteously and godly in this present evil world" (Titus 2, 12.) H.G.

—"Sooner or later," says a French writer, 'everything is found out.' Just so. The family man who attends the City Council, for instance, is generally found out later—about three hours later than he should be.

SPICE.

—A beneficial strike—striking a job.

—A truism: An expensive wife makes a pensive husband.

—Oswego has a club of young ladies called the Hair Pins.

—The good Samaritan stopped at the sound of woe; so does a good horse.

—Marriage is described by a French cynic as a tiresome book with a very fine preface.

—Some women won't be happy in Heaven unless they can scrub it out once a year.

—An exchange suggests that Dom Pedro ought to have all his whiskers dyed. If he does of course he'll have his imperial purple.

—It is not etiquette for a young lady to peruse an ice-cream sign aloud while walking with a gentleman.

—If a woman could talk out of two sides of her mouth at the same time, there would be a good deal said on both sides.

—The man who is going to make his wife a flower bed sometime next week—or next, is one of the specialities of our country.

—It is said that more than sixty girls have been married out one store in New York since the 1st of January last. That's a marrying place.

—A young lady on being asked what business her lover was in, and not liking to say he bottled soda, answered, "He's a practising fizzician."

—Dom Pedro is learning our language very rapidly. The other morning, as he laid down the New York Herald, he remarked that he had a few dollars to bet that somebody would knock the "stuffing" out of Turkey before many moons had waxed and waned.

—An Irishman noticing a woman pass along, espied two strips depending from under the lady's cloak. Not knowing that there were styled sashes, and in the right place, he exclaimed: "Faith ma'am, yer galluses are untied.

—This is the time of year when the boarding-house ledger dreamily paddles through a plate of chicken soup in vain search for the chicken, and then returns it to the girl with "no thank you, I prefer a plate of ice water."

—"Don't you think this is a trancendently lovely night, Gus? How beautifully luna shed her transiucent rays o'er sleeping nature," she murmured as they walked up Main street last night. "Yes," he replied, and there's a peg in my boot that is hauling the immortal life right out of my foot." She made no further attempts at poetic conversation.

EPPS'S COCOA.—GRATEFUL and COMFORTING.—"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette. Made simply with Boiling Water or Milk.—Sold only in packets labelled—"James Epps & Co., Homœopathic Chemists, 48, Threadneedle Street, and 170, Piccadilly, Works, Euston Road and Camden Town, London."
