CAICKERING & SONS. STEINWAY & SONS. DUNHAM & SONS.

The MASON & HAMLIN, wiety from Fifty Dollars upwards. For ILLUSTRATED PRICE LISTS and other par-

Opifer per Orbem Dicor. TUESDAY EV'NG, JUNE 13, 1876. REMINDERS. MONDAY.

THE BAND in the Park, 7:30 p.m. MONTHLY Meeting of St. James' Temperance Association at 7:30 p.m. and 7 p.m. at Peter McDonald's. WEDNESDAY.

COURTY Court at 9:30 a.m.

COUNTY Council at 10 a.m.

TEMPERANCE Rally on Dunkin Bill.

might do it some damage. worthy of credence then we advise the mention also.

DUR LUMBER SUPPLY.

outward display.

from the London (Eng.) Timber Trades tance in the rear of Foot's Bakery, and the march of the destroyer save the en-What we want to deduce from this state- most children playtoy. men now, and for years past, has been of Seasoned timber, and open arrybuildings lemn and regretful scene, tho' grand as places, by the outward fall of a wall, ob- gave the firemen a better opportunity to the most reckless nature imaginable. favoured the fire, and in less than twenty its features were to the observation, to They appear to be leagued together for minutes from the time the alarm was the reflective mind it brought melanthe purpose of demanding from the count y made the flames rose in huge volumes choly, that so much real estate should be conflagration could not be estimated or of every stick of pine timber, and that, into the air, and the heat thrown out was swept away, leaving a vacuum which cantoo, at as early a date as possible. No so intense as to at once threaten the ad- not be filled so easily or so satisfactorily. The fire took in a wide range and con Princess street, and we can only express Canada National. thought or calculation whatever is given joining and more valuable buildings on Yet we were glad to notice that men did sumed everything not protected by a fire the sincerest hope that it will not be long to the full c. Every year the work of Princess Street. Exreet and devout as not give themselves up to melancholy, proof wall, and thank goodness these ere the gap, now so unsightly with its destruction goes on with undiminished were the wishes of the thousands of spec- but made the best use of time and con loss which could illy be borne by the series of buildings, as complete, sub- Only bare walls left. holding the necessary supply of snow to gained ground that ere a check could be they could. And here we must halt to And even in case of such an opposition would be deplorable. The flames rose "A" Battery for the efficient service they the only thing upon which the residents the past. the quantity actually cut is but little di- higher and higher; they extended, too, rendered. It cannot be too highly estiminished. It does not require much until they took in and enveloped the mated. Stimulated by the officers, who study to convince anyone that the time is whole outbuildings of the stores, &c., rolled up sleeves and really worked with perty behind Morrison's. These walls The turn out of some thirty five business eaten by flames in street or stolen. not far distant when this thoughtless within a radius of half a block-from a zeal that is seldom manifested, the slashing must cease There will soon be McRae's on the east as far as Kilpatrick's men were systematic and energetic in their peculiar favour by some, and now that lution in trading circles. While it is pos- sured for $1500 in London Assurance moved from the available shipping post. valuable property was being reduced they carried out the orders or plans of ac-Our pine forests are not exhaustless. to ashes and ruins. In time the tiou deserve praise, which we can but they will be esteemed the greater. of a few are already made, there are a table follows the track of lumbermen. fire was conveyed from rear to front, and gratitude. We must notice the presence Block occasioned the loss of the new unfortunate phase of the matter. A visit to the upper Omawa or Muskoka | the cracking of burning timber, the roar and encouraging aid of Col, Hewitt, Com- | blacksmith shop of Mr. Edward Wilmot, regions will convince the sceptic, if such of flames and the density of smoke ren- mandant of the Military College. Al- a new building finished only about three there be, that we have not overdrawn dered the seems grand but appalling. The though we had occasion recently to differ weeks ago. At ten minutes past two nitude, all sorts of wild and fanciful re- $2,000 in L. A. Corporation, and $6,000 the picture. One thing is certain, how- fire engine was stationed at the Albun with him on another matter, on which we o'clock the fire was reported by the Chief ports were put in circulation. They all in Beaver. ever, there is a limit even to our forests | Hotel corner, and drew her supply of expressed our opinion plainly and pretty | Engineer to be under control, and by this of pine; and this fact will soon be realized water from the hydrant there. The firein a way far from agreeable to many who men directed their attention to the sav- omit to pay tribute is it was subdued. Oh no ! It was held in how or where we could not manage to $500 in Western. now have all their capital invested in the ing of the main buildings by playing with due. The Col. was most active when acmanufacture and shipping of lumber. the wind, which blew lightly from the tivity was most required; he had a noble followed were directed to the subjugation with three men fell from a ladder, F. S. Rees, residence. All last save The demand will never cease; the supply | south-west. Later they made a move | part to act, and he acted it nobly. And must. What, then, will be the market | which is alleged to have been a disadvan- of the citizens; what shall we say of them? | oring such an area as it did the fire, porter that he had seen the three coffices value of 300 acres of pine forest in this tageous one. It is held by some that the Would that we could inscribe the name country within the next decade? It may stream should have been kept to the rear, each gallant where it would shine to imnot be the figure quoted above, but it and by playing with the wind succeed in mortality! Would that we could, in the certainly will be much in advance of accomplishing what seemed unavailing in haste necessitated in committing to paper The brigade lacked nothing in this rewhat is now offered. We believe that in | the battle waged against the cloment in one of the most significant still laments. spect. twenty years at the most there will be little | the front. It is argued that if the heat | ble events that has occurred in the exportation of pine lumber from Canada, had been kept down behind the spread history of the city, pause and dwell with The rapid transition of the fire from the ished state will soon be the result. Whatever can be done reasonably to hus-favor of the abolition of Local Parlia thoroughfare. What size it would have measures were adopted so far as human was apparent. But the fuse had hard tisted sons of toil to gather up their THE BREAK OUT. The alarm was struck at 9:05 o'clock. situation was now more alarming than gentle as it was, fanned the flame and rounds of the press, copied originally The fire originated in a shed some distinction of the press, copied originally The fire originated in a shed some distinction of the press, copied originally The fire originated in a shed some distinction of the press, copied originally the fire originated in a shed some distinction of the press, copied originally the fire originated in a shed some distinction of the press, copied originally the fire originated in a shed some distinction of the press, copied originally the fire originated in a shed some distinction of the press, copied originally the fire originated in a shed some distinction or the press, copied originally the fire original origina Journal, which impresses us as being we are told that a couple of pail fulls of tire consummation of the whole block, worthy of careful study by the lumber- water would have effectually quenched that is, so far as its frontage on Prinmen of Canada. It is this :- "A tract | the little flame. But it was not con- cess Street was concerned, the houses of timber of 300 acres, in the Highlands | venient, and the little blaze soon gained | being so closely built that it seemed imof Scotland, recently sold for £16,000 - strength and headway, and in but a few possible to be able to prevent the ignition about $30,000." It is also stated in con- minutes had become so powerful that of one from the heat of the other. Stand. nection therewith that this tract had the agencies in the possession of the fire ing at a distance the long rows of burning previously undergone repeated thinnings, brigade were as trifling to stay the pro buildings presented a view the grandeur enable the customary teaming to be done. placed upon the fire the consequences pay due credit to the officers and men of little pine left, and that will be far re- stone yard on the west side. Meanwhile movements and the manner in which What the woodman's axe leaves standing | rear of Foot's and the American Hotel faintly express at best, and for which the is usually destroyed by fire, which inevi- caught, and with flash-like rapidity the public will be under a lasting debt tent means for influencing operators. situation more embarrassing and dis-

NOBLE HELP.

fall, the non-commercial class who invest neering work he performed in the blow- the north and south sides of the street, (taking into account the aid of a pail britheir money in such institutions will suf- ing up. Major Cotton, who laid the and before any decided check could be fer heavy losses, and there will be lamen- trains, Captain Holmes and Lieutenants said to have been made upon its march, ped in" as if they meant as well as wished tations generally. If this is a prophecy Wilson and Peters deserve the highest Dr. Brown's on the one side was reached to do well) was secured. The steamer and Nathaniel Wilmot's blacksmith shop | had a hard time of it, in being equal to on the other, working westward. The the occasion in the west end. The breeze, and not inclined to worship at the Na Police Station. As soon almost as the temporarily halted, the substantial stone head and decisive in action as they ville when soliciting help, "King tion's shrine, though we may admire its alarm was struck the Whis reporter masonry and tin roof being for a while have shown themselves to be. There ston afire;" conflagration had not assumed very alarm- The probabilities were not assuring that of the destroyer could be interrupted, the affin When a last reached the fire, and even then, the unyielding to the fire fiend's intrusion. ing proportions, the prospect was dis- here a stop could be made. Indeed Nothing but cunning tactics and steady relief appeared at hand, heartfelt were We have observed an item going the couraging and forebode serious results. groups of enthusiasts, whether citizens or play could bring about the much desired the rejoicings and deep the sense nately. The issue was a success, for acgreat as to elicit remarks of profound son which realized a large additional sum. gress of the destructive element as the of which the eye could not appreciate and the sight of which can never be effaced would see nought save grim walls and several men, but none, we are glad

How recklessly absurd, therefore, is the would not been so great, inasmuch admiring reverence upon the role played rear premises midway between Brock and furniture, worth $2,000, lost; policy now pursued, and how void of as the water cast up against a build- by each of those who toiled so incessantly Princess streets, to house some rods dis- men were up in Dolan's house when the ardicious forethought the business re- ing when the wind was blowing and risked so much by way of personal tance left little time to consider the man- gable fell in upon them. The three escord of most of our prominent dealers. fresh from an opposite direction was per- discomfort and inconvenience, in order ner of removing goods and chattels. caped serious injury, but Hurst had his at $9,000; insured for $3,000 in London The present state of depression, if it on
Iv cortails the operations of lumbermen. However, the members of the Private his orbital loss. ly cortails the operations of lumbermen, However, the members of the Erigade his philantrophic and heroic conduct! who professed their aid, and where Charles Chown, an active young citiwill prove of more direct benefit to the acted in what they considered the best Not within our recollection has there or a removal was a necessity value zen, son of Edwin Chown, was jammed insured for 8800 in Niagara Mutual. country than we would be willing to ad- manner—the Chief thinks they did manly curred an occasion which called for so ables were removed with all the between two cabs in one of the panies, W. B. Gordon, drugs. Loss $1,200, insured in Provincial. mit at first sight. Mutual agreements and so do we, and what has been done by wide a display of manliness. It was haste, and at the same time all the exhave been made, limiting the season's them throughout the whole night one of while the city was threatened with such emption from injury it were possible ling from a ladder. work of different firms to a stated name memorable significance to the public, terrible loss - when the fire was at its cli- under the cureamstances. While in most | R. Montgomery, dyer. - Had to flit; ber of logs, but whether such agreements whether interested or disinterested in the max - that the Mayor, actuated by the cases the removal of goods was properly Fage. are carried out in good faith we are un- burning and loss-has been performed bust motives, telegraphed to Belleville conducted, the plundering and pilfering able to say. Possibly they are, but it is with a heroic perseverance and Courage and Napanee for their engines. Belle- which followed has been the most offenavident that something more preservative that should be productive of something wille had so far responded that one of sive, bold and rascally that we have any the laying out of one Michael Allen by the Scottish Imperial. experations for the future, or an impover more tangible than thanks and compli- train and the fire was atyled a tures who were preying on the goods, and Napanee had a fire engine ready to send

PLUNDERING.

Walted | crowded, and every line of information | nature and mission been fully known; | the houses | respecting the fire eagerly received and | they would have been ejected. In almost the twinkling of an eye came down by the midnight train to see through the crowd as if intended for dethe Albion Hotel and the Crystal Block the thing for themselves. The kindness post is a quiet place, whereas robbery, that way out of pure cussedu became ignited and the white madden of the Belleville people will be borne in the most systematic and cool, was the ing flame licked its way from one point mind, and though the engine was object. A gang of thieves were convey to another until hope well nigh died out, not actually called into requisition ing them to sequestered haunts, there to and those who fought so bravely in the in- the intention is considered equal to the enjoy the sweets of others earnings withterests of the citizens and the city, deed, and the opportunity may occur- out the efforts which it may have cost after she had been carried out. Last night Kingston underwent a bap being able, to combat the power we will not hope for it, as fires are rather them to obtain, and regardless of the and PRINCE ORGANS tism of fire. The heart of one of its live- against which they were contending. The to be shruned than desired - when the pain the loss may have caused the legit. A & S. Normermen have always liest business centres was taken and with scene was awful to contemplate. Again same sympathy and interest may be exmarge assortment of the assort quarter of a million of dollars. The last two mentioned places were reduced the Kingston firemen. Our digression less rescality was evinced. Men and the explosion so as to de flames caught in one of those wooden tin- to ruins. The Crystal Block was lightly will be excused. It cannot well be boys made no hesitation in stealing out. extremes of the building. der boxes which it appears the style to built, and when the fire gained an en- avoided. When the Crystal Block had right, by committing an act of improplace in rear of every building, be it ever trance it made short work of its destruct sunk, and the fire burned hotly against priety, by which the theft was in the scenes of great work and anxiety. Clothso solid, in town, and which form in the tion; but the Albion Hotel was a some- the gable end of Heath & Gunn's build- eyes of some mitigated, or in others Or to our Branch Houses in Ottawa, London centre of every block the inflammable what sold, substantial building, one which ing, it was considered necessary and ad- cleverly concealed. The stores were element to set the four sides on fire in t would not generally be presum- visable to adopt explosive means of not all that were taken; the private half an hour. The Merryweather was ed would fall an easy prey abruptly ending the march of the fire on boxes and family secrets were violently not, prompt in arriving, and the to fire. Therein it disappointed us. By Princess street. The powder was placed ransacked, and where anything tempth gaining a start, were this time the streets were fairly crowded in the building occupied by Mr. Wells, has been found it has been stolen. fed beautifully by the finest of burning with people, who drifted hither and saddler; Mr. Routley, cigar manufactevery direction the plunderers were material, including coal oil and high thither in the greatest confusion and ex- turer; and Mrs. Walker, who lived over noticed dodging with the spoils; and wines. Soon the hottest and fiercest fire citement, which increased as one fine Routley's. Everything being prenounced thus it is that many people, after rescuever known here raged with a fury which building after another succumbed to its in readiness the fuse was lighted and ing their valuables from the fire, realize made an insignificant spectacle of the best | inevitable doom. The crash of falling | the explosion was made complete. The that they but did so for the benefit of efforts of three engines and a fire brigade brickwork, the suffocating smoke, the result was satisfactory, and the end of others. The results of the plunworking as hard as their small numbers furnace-like roar of the flames as they the building was blown out with a loud dering in some respects was during the $2000. and limited facilities would allow. The flickered in and out of many openings report. But ah! a circumstance oc- night cognizant in the number of tipsy flames leaped from building to building, and raged with devastating ferocity, the could not have stopped the fire when it British and $6,000 in Royal Canadian. and within 45 minutes both sides of the shout of men, the shriek of women, the streets were a blaze and were arched by a thud of axes, the fiz of water-all formed of powder and the blowing down of they came in contact. The unusual dislivid flame. It worked east, south, west on event the like of which we hope we till fire guard walls put a stop to its shall never be called upon to record in Mrs. Walker, unconscious of the intent robbing, and not a dozen or two dozen ed in the spread than it was. The Merry ravages. Such crowds, such scenes and Kingston a second time. Not a moment of the military, who manoeuvred below. houses have been provided with the luxu- kept up a constant pressure and used the

The Ottawa Citizen is getting in dead such rapid destruction has never teen nor a second was squandered in senseless The warning of "Back! back! e conest on the conomy plea, and begins sen here. The burned district expressions of sorrow or inactivity. brought her face to the window, ly used, and the epicure fatten at some- streams. But she wants a helper, to tackle "heavy" subjects. It argues in forms to-day quite a blank in the busy Every instant was duly considered, and and then her imminent danger one else's expense. THE SWEEP. ments and a complete reorganization of reached had there not been a calm it ingenuity could go, to save property, the been lighted, and flight was then the. In the hurry and bustle attending hasty Council will be well sustained in getting our i dislative system. What our con- makes one shudder to think upon. presence of which went far to beautify order of the multitude in the street. A removals, persons sustained repeated temporary says about local prejudices | The losses are given below as carefully | the city, while its location in the best moment intervened, and the explosion loss by the unfortunate selection of location in the best moment intervened, and the explosion loss by the unfortunate selection of location in the best moment intervened, and the explosion loss by the unfortunate selection of location in the best moment intervened, and the explosion location in the best moment intervened, and the explosion location in the best moment intervened. and contracted statesmanship is sustained as they can be procured to-day. by recurring events in our political his- Kingston has only once before suffered purposes, the importance of which cannot few brave fellows clambered into the other, and little dreamt of the danger of tory. Such a sweeping stroke of economy such a scourge, that is, in 1840, when the be gainsayed, rendered its preservation a house and found Mrs. Walker, much af spreading, and before they were aware of would undoubtedly be highly satisfactory ground from the G. T. freight depot to matter of universal hope. The Mayor frighted, and the recipient of a great it the fruits of their previous labor was would undoubtedly be highly satisfactory ground from the G. I. freight depot to matter of universal nope. The shock, but nothing more. For a time She-case with Mr. Bawden and Martin. sible? The Act of Confederation would place where the fire raged first last night their example cheered those laboring for riff Ferguson's building attracted a majo- The latter had a $550 piano remove have to undergo an overhauling which was the scene of a great conflagration in public and private good, and manifested rity of attention. In the stability and from Foot's building to the Albion Hotel a spirit equal to the occasion, not only fire proof quality of the eastern gable where it was subsequently burned to a by wise counsel and advice, timely hints seemingly depended the safety of that cinder. It was a real pity to see some the costliest materials carefully taken As if we had not suffered enough alrea- The firemen and citizens all did nobly, and suggestions, but by hard and toil- row of stores between it and Bagot Street from one place to another, and then only dy-in reality and anticipation—the Na- but on the public behalf we make the some physical exertion they performed As one division after another first tottered to become a wreck, a remnant of what it THE YOUNG MERCHANTS — REtion readily endorses the opinion of a best acknowledgement of the services of excellent and very commendable service. and then toppled over, anxiety balanced once had been, minus its beauty and correspondent to the effect that the worst Battery "A." and the officers of the garThe engine at the Albion Hotel hydrant was mant not only was the heart of the city building. of our commercial crisis has not yet been rison. The men worked in perfect order was finally forced to remove further up a mere grotto in the scale of opinion whe those who el: attached to their hones, of that young community of merchants felt; that the real depression and its in- and discipline, doing wonders in the way the street, but they did not move or atfluence are just now approaching. This of physical labor and verily tempt to move until personal safety and to resist the heat and force of material only to be driven at last in confusion, if Kingston upward with a spirit which $2,000, and insured for $1,920. conclusion is reached after comparing the proving themselves "Spartan walls, and the safety of the steamer necessitated the safety of t present with previous experience of this and every man a brick." They burned act. They remained firm at their post likely to weaken it or cause an unfortunature. We have not had any large their flesh and destroyed their uniforms until the scorching heat insisted upon a nate contretemps by its probable descent winds. The loss by fire, in fact, we are have a long effect on the city. It was a rageously stolen. failures either of monetary institutions or in the humane service. Col. Hewitt change of site. The move was reluctantlarge commercial houses having their worked most most admirably, we are hap- ly made; the machinery being kept in the machinery being kept in chief indebtedness outside the country." py to say, despite late difficulty, and operation until both man and machine than some believed, sustained the crucial formerly pretty quiet. However the Mrs. Walker, residence, Furniture than some believed, sustained the crucial formerly pretty quiet. However the Mrs. Walker, residence, Furniture When the "worst" does come our banks showed the great value of his residence would have suffered had they tarried any will begin to totter and some of them here and assistance by systematic engi- longer, Rapidly the flames crept along them to be the certain less of every house Birch's building, Brock street, and the finest cut stone-such stores as are within reasonable range or latitude, and other in Rouck's building. Wellington not likely to be erected in Kingston in gade, composed of young men who "dipwithout waiting to be ousted like the re- street. Messrs. Waggoner & MacMilian, sidents of Princess Street they set to who were doing so well with the Albion packing and moving, and at midnight the | Hotel, and had nearly paid for it in two packaged goods while every available modern style at once on the old site. horse was engaged to cart the trappings | The residing tenants were Miss Amey, to some distant point. The action was Mrs. Daniels, J. Cacter, Thos. Scorah, be. Better bury every dollar on the old The scene of the conflagration was marked ever. Eastward the fire had entered Shehomestead where the smash up will not some time before that, and the more we riff Ferguson's building and raged furireach the treasure than risk the chances think of it themore singular is the delay in ously, while on the other side it had near speciacle that hore out the impression of these parties moved out grows a problem that produced terror and dismay. It was a they were all either stolen or burner speciacle that hore out the impression of the impression of the chances and they were all either stolen or burner specially that hore out the impression of the chances are the chances and they were all either stolen or burner specially that hore out the impression of the chances are the chances and they were all either stolen or burner specially that hore out the impression of the chances are of being all. We are sceptical, however, conveying the intelligence to the Fire and led Heath & Gunn's drug store, and there was no breach by which the run knowing prophet who could

FALLING RUINS. In their anxiety to get as near the de complishing which the Firedrigade are to feetive (and mischevious parts as pos be deeply complimented. The work of des- | sible) the firemen and others had nartruction between the two points at which row escapes. One of the most narrow the engines were in operation was so was the fail of the last division of Fergue crash, and piled the sidewalk with row. Down the street, crossing the in- but and smoking debris. Bricks and from the memory. And yet it was a so- piles of smouldering debris, which in some concentrated and he falling of the walls in

> A DENSE WASTE. The area covered by the fire to-day sured; loss $1,200. presents what is said to be a dense waste. It is a sad sight in the centre of out; loss $30.

BUSINESS.

Meantime it next was the loser to a consi- few, we regret to learn, who may find the derable extent. The loss of the Crystal accident an adversity which they may not

WILD REPORTS. As usual in the event of a fire of mag- | ed by insurances of $3,000 of the fire; that were no easy task. Cov. and been killed outright, and our infor- clothing. Insurance of $800 in L. mant candidly informed the Wura re- Corporation. while subject to the firemen's will in one go up street to where the bodies lay sense; papped up and out here and there This may be put down as a fearful who so that the greatest vigilance was needed. per without a tittle of foundation. we take it for granted, is another streta

ACCIDENTS.

A SCUFFLE.

What the report of a man being muron hand should not be deferred. It may firm hold upon the American Hotel, and the first despatch. In both Belleville circumstances. Some of the thefts were killed, the public would have regretted threatening flames from his house become necessary to legislate more strin- the brick structure occupied by Horsey & and Najance the excitement had seldom very bold. Under the guise of friendship the loss of life, but would have felt asgently in this direction, as the most po Uo, the outlook was such as to make the an equal, The telegraph offices were they freely entered where, had their true tistied with the lesson dealt to one fire for 2000.

ing and valuables were packed, Carters and cabman did their very best yard. L as $9,000; insured for $1,000 breach than healed it. It was very extortionate charges was not mooted. Occasionally a panie would be caused by the cinders setting fire to roofs in Queen st. C.M. Church.

THE CORPORATION LOSS. The city loses in plank walks, reduced

There is to day a fond call for a second lighter engine to get up sharp to fires, and steam up under ten minutes, which are required by our big machine. such an engine, and let them see that they

OPEN MONTREAL STREET!

Had this street been carried across the block, as it should have been, a dozen Millan. public's opportunity and it should not be | in Beaver and $4,000 in Stadacona.

THE BLAZE.

scene from the city and Portsmouth by blaze with a small portion of furniture. the immense conflagration -- such crowds and a part of stock so badly damaged as never having before been seen in the to be almost valueless. streets at a fire, men and women together-but the country around was illuminated. On Wolfe Island one gentleman told us to-day he sat outside and read by the light five miles off! Few in the city siept. In the lower parts the all night by the sights and talks over the, startling occurrence.

THE LOSSES.

Taking the fire district, starting

DR. BROWN'S BUILDING. it was the fire stopped, and the building, Fire and $2,000 in L. A. Corporation. though bearing the blackened evidences of the fiery conflict, is only partially of $300; insured for $100 in Ætna. damaged. His drug stock was unin-

J. Harkess, crockery, would not move but books. Insured for $500 in G. MOORR'S BUILDING.

Handsome double stone building.

The fire will be a serious interruption J s. M. Cook, residence. Loss $600; Sheds saved.

their efficacy has been so thoroughly es will at once resume in such places as they G. Vanarnam, residence, a total loss on furniture, $800. No insurance. WM. MARTIN'S STORE BLOCK. Four stories high, value $9,000; > sured for $3,000 in L. A. Corporation and $3,000 in the Queen. All burned Chown & Walker, hardware. About AMERICAN HOTEL BLOCK. Thus, like the preceding block, and by himself. The block was a solid 2870,000. His-insurances are $28,000, say $3,000; no insurance. all of which is beyond dispute. His loss Joseph Somerville, grocery. Lost all, house on Queen street, which for three M. Dolan, saddlery and residence store, who slept above it, lost his cloth- was almost driven ont by insurance in the National for $500. | ance. N.E. Runishs, grocery and residence. The Canada Agricultural and Provincial D That large 2 story Building.

band the comparatively small supply yet fittingly rewarded. Once the fire took a sent cancelling the request conveyed in him low with his baton. Had he been suffered also by being driven by the him low with his baton. Had he been suffered also by being driven by the

H. Foot, baker. Heavy loss. Insured for $1,500 in Royal and additional in an-

R. M. Horsey, hardware and stoves. The severest loss proportionately of all, the sweeping away of years of hard earned profits. The stock was saved in part, to each in the Western, Queen and Royal acrimonions, and a considerable amount

THE FERGUSON BLOCK. street, and even beyond, and then there which formerly was a military barracks, evitable. would be a hurrying and packing. This hand was at last paying well, is level with panic was carried as far west as the Queen | the street. It was owned by Sheriff Fer- | Bishop Bourget has been officially anguson and valued at $14,000. Insured nounced and sanctioned by his Holliness for $6,000 in the North British, and the Pope, and Bishop Fabre will now take $4.000 in the Royal Canadian. F. & T. Rigney, grocery; lost $7,000 owing to his age being 77 years old. of stock; insured for $4,000 in North

P. Harty, dry goods. Loss covered by steam fire engine. A dozen engines insurances. Insured for $7,000 in North mers will find him at Parkhill's James Redden, grocery. Part of stock

BUILDINGS BELOW. The fire stopped at Ferguson's, but stocks further down were moved and much loss caused. McRae and Co., had $2,300 of stock, mostly moved and some lost; insured for $1,500 in Guardian. E. Meadows, grocery, also, moved RANDUM BOOK and a Deposit Draft of the Bank goods, covered in Canada Fire by $900 in- of British North America, Kingston, in favour

Joseph Donnelly, grecery. | Windows | please leave it at the BRITISH WHIG OFFICE. broken; stock lost and damaged badly. Insured for $1,500 in Royal Canadian. W. J. Dick did not move nor A. Mc. AUCTION SALE years since, the fire might not have The north side now we trace the fire travelled so far west; now let it be opened | up the north side, G. W. Abranis, who is at once, despite Ald Allens opposition. | not uninsured, lost by emoval of pianos There are no buildings to be moved, and land organs. S. Oberndoffer is uninsured, if the street be promptly laid out, Mont- | moved also at loss. Dr. MacCammon, real street between Princess and Brock, druggist, suffers greatly in the same way will soon be a business place. This is the | but is covered by $3,000 in Aetna, $500 Hy. Skinner, wholesale druggist, had $10,000 stock moved and injured 25 per cent; covered by $5,000 in Ætna, and

This was blown up to stay flames; loss |

These two buildings were large and of these days. They are a total loss, save the walls of Gunn's, which are yet preservable. As a precaution. Morrison's streets and sidewalks were piled with years' profits, are going to rebuild in fine front wall was blown down to-day, Mr. Morrison's loss is: house, $10,000; stock and furniture, $7,000 -- a good deal of stock saved by the rear. Insurances 83,000 on stock and $5,000 on building in Liverpool, London and Globe.

> Heath & Gunn's insurances of $12,000 in Royal and other companies, including $1,200 in Western, nearly cover their Not only was everybody drawn to the loss. The family were driven out by the Owned building herself; only a few things saved from the residence and these were burned outside. Loss partly covered by insurance in Royal.

CRYSTAL BLOCK. Three storey; owned by Wm. Martin. worth $6,000; insured for $4,000 Assurance Corporation. Ruttan and Ballie, boots and shees. Had $7,000 stock: some saved. Insured for $2,000 in Royal, $2,000 in Royal Canadian and $500 in North British. Martin and Strachan, hardware. $16,000 of stock, saved part; a great deal | L. ply to Francis Little, Barrie street stolen - for instance 8 revolvers out of case of 12. Insured for $2,000 in Canada

Bell's Photograph fiallery. Less total Edward Thompson, Printer; loss $900; insured for $800 in National; all burned

EDWARD WILMOT'S, This new blacksmith's shop on Montreal Street was only finished and occupied last week; completely gutted; loss $1,000; insured for $800 in National.

ALBION HOTEL, in the fire behind McRae's; they were than those which have become things of away; nothing moved; loss total for and furniture; loss pretty heavy. In-$5,000; insured for $2,000 in Canada sured for $2000 on furniture and $4000 on building. The boarders lost ciothing.

THIBODO'S BUILDING. Owned by Augustus Thibodo. Fine in- three story brick and stone place; worth $8,000; insured for $3,000 in North British and $4,000 in Royal Canadian; a JAS. REDIDEN

Hy. Wilton, saddlery and residence; loss $1000. No insurance; nothing saved. J. Strainge, grocery, loss of all goods. Insured for $1000 in London Assurance

J. E. Noiris, saddler, only just moved STOVES, STOVES. in; loses all stock; covered nearly by $500 in London Assurance Corporation. Wm. David, general store and residence. Loss $1,200. All gone; no in-

P: Haffner, butcher; slight loss. J. Westlake, tailor shop and residence. sured for $600 in the National.

and the new, handsome store, oce and worth $10,000. Insured for $4,400 places of rentals represent- | Walker Hotel, furniture a total

Wm. Dunn, stoves; had to remove; here of the Pire Brigade, bis Brothe Mr. W. T. C. Bethel, manager of the W. Rideout, who had just settled in town Builey, barber's shop. Loss (total) met | bes in stock, instred in Loudon Assur-

Loss almost to'al, say $3,500. Insured Companies do not meet with a direct loss. | tario and make a safe aggregate Beaver

VERY LATEST.

sembly yesterday on the Macdonnell casburned in Heath and Gun's appears rather to have widened the of ill-feeling was exhibited, if the majority should decide not to accept Mr. This six story fine brick building, Macdonnell's statement a split is inhis place. His Lordship's resignation is

R. M. HORSEY'S Custoold Stand, Princess Street.

MARRIED.

McWilliams, at Railton, Mr. Martin N. Cava-

In Longleboro, on June 5th, by the Rev. C.

naugh, of Mallorytown, to Miss Mary A. daughter of Luke O'Reilly, Esq., of Loughbaro IN THE CITY, on the 13th inst., A MEMO-of Joel B. Guess, for $150. The finder will Valuable Real Estate.

That long and well established Property belonging to Mr. Jas. Molland, and known as the GROVE HOUSE, on King Street, West, with all its paraphernalia pertaining to a first class TUESDAY NEXT, June 20th, at 12 o'clock Noon, As Mr. Molfand is leaving the city for California, the property must be sold.

CHAS McMILLAN,

June 13, 1876.

FOR HOT WEATHER

New Black Silk Fans,

New Brown Silk Fans. New White Silk Fans, New Black and

> Goid Fans, Palm Leaf, Willow

and Japanese Fans FROM 5c to $5 Each.

GRIGOR'S

Fancy Store. PRINCESS STREET.

June 13, 1876. To Let. A STONE DWELLING and STABLING

A for two horses. Apply to FRANCIS LITTLE, A ROUGH CAST HOUSE and Rooms, Ap-

RE-OPENING IN FEW DAYS.

Having procured the Store NEXT DOOR TO MCKELVEY &

BROCK STREET,

Where I hope to be able to supply my old cus-GIVE ME A CALL.

China T House.

SELLING AT COST TO ALL PARTIES BURNT OUT LAST

HARDWARE HOUSE,

ST KING STREET.

Glass and Putty, very cheap, at

Www. Corbett & Co's Hardware House, 87 King Street, ce; N.B.—A small lot of MILK CANS TO BE

CARD.

R. M. HORSEY.

BAWDEN & MACHAR.

FOUND-A Sewing Machine and one small

thentic notes of insurance, we cannot June 13, 1876,