

RE-OPENED.

NEXT DOOR TO McKELVEY & BIRCH'S. BROCK STREET.

JAS. REDDEN China T House. June 12, 1876.

The Daily British Whig. FRIDAY EVENING, JULY 7, 1876.

MEMBERS OF St. George's P. N. Committee at 8.30 p.m. FRIDAY.

SALE of Morris's Lots on Princess and Queen streets. Splendid opportunity.

A proposition is mooted to have the ocean mails dropped at Halifax and sent on to Montreal by the Antigonish.

Some parties who left Western Ontario a few years ago, because they could not get protection, are now in difficulties in the United States and sorry they went there.

Independent German newspapers are unanimous in the opinion that the most fruitful prospects for war are some of the most fruitful ever advanced.

The New York Herald is supremely indifferent as to the result of the Presidential election. Both Hayes and Tilden are, in the Herald's estimation, eminently qualified for the supreme position.

American tourists complain of the ill judged economy practiced by one of our Canadian steamboat companies in supplying the tables of their steamers.

There is a code of ethics practiced among regular physicians which is certainly unwise and undefined. In the first place they are not to advertise except by a card of modest pretensions and a sign at the door of their offices.

It may be that the sharp playing of the United States customs authorities in levying a tax upon the tin cans in which lobsters were packed by Canadian fishermen, has something to do with the recent shipment to England.

We have before referred to the advancement in military science made by the Indians of the Western United States, and evidenced in their recent engagements with American soldiers.

Our Rights with Other Nations. Information received here leads to the belief that the disputed rights of French Fishermen on the coast of Newfoundland have been amicably settled between the governments of Great Britain and France.

English papers were lately frightened into sending and elevating in Canada. They had heard of some destitution prevailing in Canada and other far west settlements, and diligently applied the unfavorable condition of affairs to the whole country.

NEW PROPRIETOR.—By an advertisement in another column it will be observed that Mr. T. Rigney has retired from the grocery business to be followed by Mr. F. Rigney who has become proprietor of the lively lately owned by Mr. F. Rigney.

Police.—Charles Beasly drunk and abusive language, $5 or 60 days. Charles had the police check to call a couple of friends into a King street restaurant, and then refused to pay for the "ish."

Port Colborne, June 6. Deceased.—Seth S. Neeson, Whistler, Collinsville; E. W. Rathbone, Kincaid, Kingston, what; prop. Anna, Sable River, Quebec, what; prop. Anna, Sable River, Quebec, what; prop. Anna, Sable River, Quebec, what.

Port Colborne, June 6. Deceased.—Seth S. Neeson, Whistler, Collinsville; E. W. Rathbone, Kincaid, Kingston, what; prop. Anna, Sable River, Quebec, what; prop. Anna, Sable River, Quebec, what.

DISRAELI'S POLICY.

There is something mysterious about the Disraeli policy in the English people's Foreign affairs, since his assumption of the reins of Government, have been conducted "spiritually" but dangerously.

Buffalo, July 5.—A fire at Black Rock this evening destroyed L. E. Bryson's stable, William Blain's wagon factory, and Geo. Hutton's harness shop. Loss $31,000. The horses were insured.

Chicago, July 5.—An accident occurred last night on the Wisconsin branch of the North-Western Railway, near Detroit. The train was derailed, and two men were killed and two members of the first regiment of Chicago soldiers injured.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

CHILDREN AND CASUALTIES.

Whitehall, N. Y., July 5.—The wings of the Exchange brick block at Fort Edward, New York, were totally destroyed by fire this morning.

Chicago, July 5.—An accident occurred last night on the Wisconsin branch of the North-Western Railway, near Detroit. The train was derailed, and two men were killed and two members of the first regiment of Chicago soldiers injured.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

TELEGRAPHIC.

NO SURRENDER! Athens in a State of Siege. OPERATIONS ON THE DANUBE.

Position of the Other Nations. 2,000 TURKS SLAUGHTERED. London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

CUTTON TRADE.

Manchester, July 6.—The Cotton Trade Association has just received a report from the Manchester Cotton Trade Association, which is a meeting of the employers in North and North-western Lancashire will shortly be held to consider the proposals affecting both the wages and hours of labor.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

DANGEROUS PLANNING.

Last evening in order to attract a crowd to the bonfire, a party of men went to the city hall, a liberty bell under any other excuse but that of strong and perhaps for the time being irresponsible political excitement, would have called forth summary arrest by the police.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

London, July 7.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times, reviewing the military situation, says that if the reports of the Austrian army are correct, it is possible that the success is properly taken advantage of, it might place the Eastern half of Serbia in the hands of the Turks.

Cheap Goods. Cheap Goods. McNAUGHTON & CO'S CHEAP SALE STILL CONTINUES.

McNAUGHTON & CO'S CHEAP SALE STILL CONTINUES. SEE REDUCED PRICE LIST I. OUR COATS... P JACKETS... Everybody knows this Clothing is made by ourselves and not (as is usually the case) bought in Montreal.

CHEAP DRESS GOODS. R. & J. Gardiner. THE CONTENTS OF 3 CASES DRESS GOODS. 100 pieces or about 5000 Yards which they are offering at the EXTRAORDINARY LOW PRICE of 12 1/2 cts per Yard.

SPLENDID SUIT. For $1.75, worth $3.00. LUK J. DRY, PRINCESS STREET. FLORAL SHOW AND CONCERT. THE ELECTORAL DIVISION SOCIETY WILL HAVE A Floral Show and Promenade Concert ON FRIDAY! IN CITY AND ONTARIO HALLS.

ORANGE EXCURSION. THE ORANGEMEN of Kingston propose to hold a Grand Excursion TO GANANOQUE, on WEDNESDAY, 13th July, after the departure of the Kingston and Montreal STEAMER MEETING OF ORANGEMEN, O.Y.B.

NOTICE. DONALD MACLEAN, M.D. Professor of Surgery in the University of Michigan, will be in Kingston for a few weeks, and may be consulted on professional matters. OFFICE—At Mr. Hubert's, Medical Hall, 7th July, 1876.

SUBSCRIBE FOR THE Most Popular Work Published, NATIONAL Portrait Gallery, LONDON. Cassell, Pether and Galpin. Vol. 2, will include Twenty Portraits in Colours.

C. H. Lavell & Co. Spectacles! Spectacles! Have just received direct from France, a complete assortment of the Finest Convex and Concave Glasses, suitable for all ages and degrees of sight.

REES BROS' Celebrated Cascade Soda Fountain flowing at their New Store, Cor. King and Clarence Streets. ICE CREAM. Our friends and the public will find us ready and willing to serve them as well as in the past.

DONOGHUE'S CHEAP SALE OF GROCERIES. COME DOWN AT ONCE and come down with a heavy load of goods, and come down with a heavy load of goods, and come down with a heavy load of goods.