CATARRH.

The Constitutional Remedy.

The Constitutional Catarrh Remedy is the first article placed before the public that proposed to cure Catarrh by building up the Constitution. It struck at the root of the whole difficulty, and thousands upon thousands of letters have been received by the proprietors, setting forth the marvelous cures, and what is remarkable, curing not only the Catarrh, but all other ailments at the same time. This is what it always does. The following statements are only samples of what we are constantly receiving, from well known people to whom you can write, and not bogus ones. Catarrh and its attendant evils, cold in head, hacking cough, incipient consumption, headache, pain in the back and loins, dizziness, languidness, loss of appetite and general weakness, all leave together when the Constitutional Catarrh Remedy is taken as recommended.

Home Testimony in favor of Littlefield's Catarrh Remedy:

T. J. B. HARDING, Esq. Brockville, 12th Feb, 1876.

My Dear Sir,—I can carefully endorse, from my own experience, the favorable account of the Constitutional Catarrh Remedy. It has afforded me relief from Catarrh and Cold every time I used it, and then when I could not take proper care of my self in bad weather

Yours respectfully, C. W. VOLNEY.,

T. J. B. Harding, Esq.:

Brockville, Feb. 9, 1872.—Sir: Having had Catarrh for a number of years, and having tried nearly all the remedies advertised that promised relief or cure, without the desired result. I came to the conclusion that it was useless in trying to cure the disease. I was advised last fall to give the "Constitutional Catarrh Remedy" a trial, and did so, with very little faith as to the result. But I am happy now to say, that after using three bottles, I am entirely cured and do not feel as if I ever had Catarrh. I also cheerfully recommend it to all those that suffer from that disease, and am satisfied that if they will only try one bottle, it will need no other recommend, and will convince the most sceptical.

Yours Respectfully, JOHN C. BANN. St. Lawrence Hall.

For sale by all Druggists. Price $.00 per bottle.

GAS BURNER!

The following is a Copy of our Gas Bill for two and a half months:

MONTREAL NOVELTY COMPANY—

To Kingston Gas Light Co.:

1500 Cubic feet Gas consumed............	$6.00
Less discount 12 1-2 per ct............	75
	$5.25

Interested parties know that we have had a brilliant light every evening and usually quite late and that the above is a very small bill comparitively being less than four feet of Gas per hour to each Burner in use.

THE ELLIS GAS BURNER

WILL SAVE ONE FOURTH OF YOUR GAS BILL AND IMPROVE YOUR LIGHT.

We are often asked how we get so much brighter light than others? It is because we do not check the Gas at the Meter or Tap which reduces the quality and quantity of the Light in proportion to the reduction of Gas used.

THE ELLIS GAS BURNER is self-regulating without lessening the light.

FRIDAY EV'NG, JULY 21, 1876.

NOT TO ME.

I gazed on the sight with tearless eyes.
I saw them give her away;
I heard each word of the service read
In the little church that day.

I saw him taking her beautiful hand,
The hand that was nearly mine.
Oh, beside darling, I used to thrill
At the touch of that hand of thine.

I heard the word of the sacred rite,
That left her no longer free;
I saw the glance of the golden ring,
That bound her, but not to me.

And he I hated was standing where
I hoped to be by her side;
And I saw there with an aching pain,
My rival and——his bride.

The solemn tones of the organ fell,
A dirge-like sound in my ears,
That seemed to mourn in my heart the death
Of the hopes of many years

Thus faded away my day dream's bright
Of happiness not to be,
When my love in the little church that day
Was married, but not to me.

NEW HUNTSMAN'S AND FISHERMAN'S PARADISE.

A friend apprised me of the fact that Sharbot Lake and its surroundings was to be a great place of resort for votaries of the rod and gun as well as pleasure seekers and invalids who admired wild primitive scenery. Taking the hint, I switched of my usual summer tour down the river St. Lawrence at Cape Vincent, and taking steamer Maud arrived at Kingston a good hour before the train left for Sharbot Lake on the Kingston & Pembroke railway. I was surprised to be ushered into an elegent sofa car, cushioned with red and green plush, with every appointment of a first-class drawing room car, which promptly at the appointed time sped away for my destination. At a distance of about thirty-five miles from Kingston, after passing through thriving villages and a fine farming country, the iron horse penetrated the dense wilderness of the western portion of the county of Frontenac. The beautiful lakes we passed on the route, and which we plainly saw from our car window, were Long Lake, Elbow Lake, Eagle Lake and St. George's Lake, All were beautiful sheets of water, and are reported to be swarming with fish. At 8 a.m. we reached the beautiful brunette among them all, Sharbot Lake, which is situated forty-six miles from Kingston in a north westerly direction, and is the present terminus of the Railway. It is a gem in the wilderness and the queen of all the lakes. It is eight miles long by about two and a half miles wide, and has nearly one hundred islands interspersed over its bosom, which rival if they do not surpass in beauty the Thousand Islands of the St. Lawrence. The lake is environed by a range of forest covered hills and mountains, and some of the islands are 80 feet in height. One has a perpendicular rocky side like a wall, and from the crevices trees are growing that in size and length are a wonder to behold. The water is soft, limpid and pure, and is strongly impregnated with iron. I doubt not it has medical properties for bathing purposes more potent to invalids than any mineral spring in the north.

At the foot of the lake are seven families of Indians. The writer took occasion to call on the most celebrated, Mr Francis Sharbot, after whose father the lake was named. Francis gave me the Indian name of the family as 'Oscebone,' and then in fair English told me that his father, John Sharbot, a minor chief in the Chippewa tribe, seceded with some follows about sixty years ago and came to Sharbot Lake and took possession of it. Four families now composed the settlement. Deer were abundant; they never wanted meat. They would paddle around the lake in their canoes and see herds of deer cooling themselves in the water and would pick out the largest and fattest one to kill and let the rest go unmolested.

Salmon, pickerel, bass, perch and small fry literally could be caught in the hands or with bare hooks with no baits on them.

Francis Sharbot has five children and is quite an intelligent and good-natured Indian. He had never seen cars or a locomotive; neither had his wife or children until the K. & P. RR. was built to the lake. It is a wonder to them all.

The writer, while prospecting the lake, threw "the fly," and landed a fine string of black bass in a very short time. The fishing is fine, and it will certainly become a resort of no small magnitude. I believe on a good day I can catch 100 bass and pickerel in this lake in ten hours.

If, however, there was not a fish in this lake it will well repay any person to visit it simply for the gorgeous beauty of the lake and its islands. The eye does not tire in looking at them all day long. Boats will be put on the lake for fishing and for hunting when the season commences. There are plenty of deer now in the forests, and in October there is fine duck shooting in all the above named lakes. Permit me now to indulge in effervescence:

Sharbot, Sharbot, my bride!
Brunette among the streams,
Thy lover, in his dreams,
Will often float upon thy dusky tide.

WORMS IN CHILDREN.—Worms in children, if neglected, lead to fatal results. If a child does not sleep well, is restless and uneasy, keeps picking its nose, or does not seem well, though it may not be positively sick, it has worms, an nothing will relieve it, so speedily, and effectually, as Wingate's Worm Lozenges.

CATARRH

Cannot be cured by Snuffs, Washes, or Local Applications. Thousands have been cured, some of 40 years standing, by using the CONSTITUTIONAL CATARRH REMEDY. Certificates and treatise on Catarrh mailed to any address on application to T. J. B. HARDING, Brockville, Ont. Sold by all Druggists. Price—$1.00 per bottle.

A CARD.—To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D., Bible House, New York City

☞ Coughs and colds, when left to themselves, frequently bring on pulmonary complaints which lead to that distressing disease—consumption; but if attended to in time, 'Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers' are a certain remedy. They stop the irritating cough, and soothe and strengthen the bronchial tubes, allaying all irritations and inflamation. They are particularly adapted for the use of singers and public speakers. Sold by all druggists and country dealers. Price 25c per box.

A Good Horse.—There is much pleasure and profit in the service of a good horse, and but very little of either in a bad one; no person from choice, will retain a bad horse; many however are in possession of such who need no be. We think there are few horses so bad but that their condition can be improved and rendered more valuable and useful for their owners, to effect which, there is nothing equal to "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy," it has effected astonishing results in thousands of cases. Remember name and see that the signature of Hurd & Co. is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Toronto, Ont., proprietors. Sold by all medicine dealers.

WHAT THEY SAY OF IT! A FEW FACTS FOR THE PEOPLE.—There are but few preparations of medicines which have withstood the impartial judgment of the people for any great length of time. One of these Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. Read the following and be convinced:—Thos. Robinson, Farnham Centre, P.Q. writes, "I have been afflicted with rheumatism for the last ten years, and have tried many remedies without any relief, until I tried Dr. Thomas Eclectric Oil, and since then have had no attack of it. I would recommend it to all." —J. H. Earl, Hotel Keeper, Wes. Shefford, P.Q., writes, "I have been troubled with liver complaint for several years, and have tried different medicines with little or no benefit, until I tried Dr. Thomas Eclectric Oil, which gave me immediate relief, and I would say that I have used it since with the best effect. No one should be without it. I have tried on my horses in cases of cuts, wounds, etc., and think it is equally as good for horse as for man."—A. Maybee, merchant, Warkworth, writes, "I have sold some hundreds of bottles of Eclectric Oil and are pronounced by the public, 'one of the best medicines they have never used; it has done wonders in healing and relieving sore throats, etc., and is worthy of the greatest confidence."—Joseph Rusau, Township Po..., writes, "I was persuaded to try Thomas' Eclectric Oil for a lame knee which troubled me for three or four years, and I never found anything like it for curing lameness. It is a great public benefit."—A. M. Hamilton, Warkworth, writes, "For weeks I was troubled with a swelled ankle, which annoyed me very much. Mr. Maybee of this place induced me to try Eclectric Oil, and before one bottle was used I was cured. It is a most remarkable medicine." ☞ Sold by all medicine dealers. Price ... cents.
