THE MAYORALTY. - Although the announcement was made very late, there was a large attendance of the friends and supporters of Mr McIntyre at his office last evening, which was the first meeting that has been held since the opening of the campaign. After the transaction of some preliminary business, Mr McIntyre addressed the meeting at some length and in the course of his remarks referred to the different tactics being resorted to by his opponents for the purpose of effecting his defeat. Slanderous tongues had not been idle, but he felt cont dent that his friends would treat the misrepresentations put in circulation as they deserved. Several other gentlemen spoke on theocossion. The meeting was enthusiastic. At his conclusion cheers were given for the Queen and Mr Meintyre, Another meeting announcement to secure a large attendance. | this p.m.

LABOUR DIFFICULTY .-- Within the last few days the new foreman in connection with Messrs. Offord & Co,'s shoe factory has issued a schedule of prices which is considerably lower than that under which the men have been working. The piece men demurred to the reduced scale, and we under Judge's Chambers, Court House, the prices. offered are sufficiently high to enable them to support their families. They accordingly left their work this week, and are now idle. We are informed that a On THURSDAY, JANUARY 10th, deputation waited on Mr Offord in connection with the matter and represented the state of affairs, but he was unable to assist them in any way. The men held a meeting last evening, at which it was resolved not to work any longer for the prices offered, as it. was impossible to live at the prices offered for their labour. The reduction, we are given to understand, amounts to nearly fifty vouring to create prejudice against Mr Mc Mer cent, and only affects the piece men in that a number of Frenchmen are to be brought from Montreal to work in the factory, which for this week has been in Mull running order, although it was almost closed some time ago. The affair has been conducted very quietly, and no attempt has been made to coerce any one into holding views antagonistic to themselves.
