Mazeppa.

In the Church of St. Mary, Galata, Roumania, is to be seen the tomb of Maz-eppa, the famous hetman of the Cossacks, CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEAR'S class Company. umortalized by Byron. His adventures, sung by the bard, were in reality much ed to know them. Mazeppa was a youn Cossack of the Ukraine, who, having been ennobled by the Russians, declined to pay his taxes. For this the Local Governor, Count Talboski, ordered him to be then flogged, pistols were discharged ose to his ears, and after being thus excited he was turned loose. The road leading to Mazeppa's house was a bridle path leading through the woods, which were particularly fertile in thorn accustomed to follow this route | SPECIAL REDUCTIONS in all liberty, homeward, where his master arrived very much the worse for his journey. call for the gate-keeper, who recognized TEACHERS' BIBLES, his voice and opened the door, to close it came to his assistance and put him to bed. where he remained some months between life and death from the injuries he had received.
