Don Carles Loses His Collar of NOVELTIES OF THE SEASON

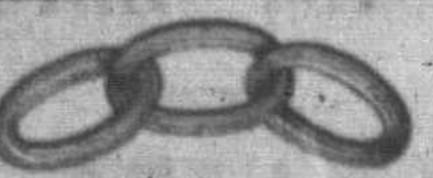

( From the Pall Mall Gazette Dec. 22.) Venice, from whence Don Carlos came Milan; while, on the other hand, it the collar was empty. The police were at the identical collar that belonged to Philip the Good, Duke of Burgundy, who founded the order in 1430 to celebrate his third marriage with the Infanta Isabella unnaturally very much prized his collar. and is much annoyed at its disappearance. as is also the proprietor of the hotel at which he had taken up his quarters, who ment may be injured unless the collar is should as a rule leave their valubles the bar of the hotels they patronize under charge of the landlord, for many of them are known to possess articles of a costly nature, and are consequently often the objects of special interest to thieves.

Malifax and Digby.

(By telegraph to the Mail) Halifax, N. S., Jan. 10 .- The meeting was packed like a sardine box. About thirty friends of each candidate, sixty in the business community. Mr Jones | Street The chief questions of the day and some | Shoes, local ones were discussed. Mr Richey was received with wild cheering, and Mr fones with moderate applause. No attempt was made by the Opposition to pack the meeting, and I wish to be with in the mark when I say the maeting was three-fourths in favour of Mr Richey. Mr Jones made a blackguardly attack on Dr Come and See the Crown Jewel Herald, who according to the rules of the meeting could not reply. Mr Richey's

* ESSRS. WEBER & CO, in announcing their success at the World's Fair, would call IVI the attention of the Canadian public to the fact that after the most searching examination by Gentlemen emiment for their Musical talent, their Pianos have been awarded the above Prizes. These Instruments were not made for the Exhibition, but taken from Stock, being a fair representation of their Pianos. This should be a proof to Canadians that Canada can produce as good Pianos as the best Imported Intruments. PRICE LIST on application.
