A concert was given in McGannon's Hall on Tuesday evening, Jan. 8th. Professor Kanfman's Sextette Club arrived by the afternoon express from Brockville, and were met at the station by the Rev. K. L. Jones with four sleighs, in which they were driven to the hospitable mansion of W. T. Benson, Esq., on Point Cardinal. The party were much struck with the beauty of the scenery as they drove up the avenue of stow laden. PREPARED FOODS ed firs, and saw the waters of the Galop Rapid rushing past the point. Mr and Mrs Benson gave them a warm welcome, and, after tea, had sleighs ready to take them to L' strengthening food, which contains as the hall. By half-past seven o'clock the much autriment as meat. The chair man then announced that the poll would be closed until the intermission between the 1st and 2nd parts of the programme. The musical part of the entertainment was of a varied character. Prof. Kaufman furnished only music of the high class, for which his Tub is famous. The choruses, quartettes, trios and duets were exquisite, and elicited hearty applause from a most appreciative audience. When all was so good it is difficult to particularise, but we might mention, '4) Thou Infinite Jehovah," "The March of the Men of Harlech," and "The Professor at Home, as having given most pleasure.
