ST. JAMES' CHURCH.

Annual Missionary Meeting.

The annual missionary meeting of St. James' Church, in aid of the Mission Fund of the Diocese, was held at the Parochial School House yesterday evening. The Rev. F. W. Kirkpatrick presided. The Venerable Archdeacon Parnell, the Rev. Henry Wilson, the Rev. G. W. White, and the Rev. J. H. Nimmo were present. The Rev. Mr Wilson opened the proceedings with the service appointed by the House of Bishops for the Day of Intercession, after which the hymn "O

The Rev. Mr Kirkpatrick then briefly introduced the Rev. Mr Nimmo, one of the members of the Deputation, who, he said, would fully inform them of the necessities of the Diocese.

The Rev. Mr Nimmo referred in eloquent terms to the beaven-born gift of hope, which he urged upon them to encourage and increase by extending to their brethren in the back townships and weak parishes the ministrations of the Gospel, which was the object of their meeting to-night. The privileges and blessings which they had enjoyed for many years they ought to gladly assist in spreading to others who had not been so fortunate. The manufacturing department will be upstairs over the store, so that every facility will be obtained for the making up of gentlemen's clothing, and orders left there will be carried out with despatch. The great aim of the Dominion Clothing Store is to combine cheapness with excellence, and this has been so far fully carried out.
