which were read a first time. THE COUNTY DEBT. Moved by Mr Anglin, seconded by Mr Quinn, that the following be a Committee to take charge of the act to legalize the by-laws for the issuing of debentures for the consulidation of the county debt, with all powers necessary to carry the same to a successful result, and to delegate such powers to one

Joyner, and the Warden. Mr Calvin objected to this resolution as it would entail a large amount of expense. S far as the debentures were concerned they could not be renewed without legislation. The county was not to gain anything by it. Mr Joyner said it was no new idea to consolidate the debt. It has been done claewhere, as in the city of Kingston. They got a special act passed, and called in the out addition of half a mill on the dollar to the taxes. It would only be five cents a year on every hundred dollars assessed, and would be $30 on $2,000 for 30 years. The outstanding debentures amounted now to ove $260,000, and of this sum $90,000 fell due in

Mr Ruttan asked what was the debt of the county? The Clerk - $263,000 up to the 31st December last. He explained how the inde btedness of the county stood, and, the reason for moving for its consolidation. Moved by Mr Tapping, seconded by Mr Williams, that the names of Messra Calvin son ought to be on. Mr J. R. Dawson thought Mr Calvin's name ought to be on the Committee as Member for the county. It might be necessary to confer certain powers on the members of the Committee, and Mr Calvin as Member could assist in pushing through an Act. He then entered into a statement of the financial affairs of the county, showing that the consolidation of the debt would be a great saving to the county. He mentioned that the county had been running behind for several P years, and had to borrow money from the banks at 9 per cent, interest. This would be all remedied by the consolidation of the
