INVOICES' &O. &C

The following are extracts from the pam pherson in reply to the campaign attacks i Messrs Mackenzie and Cartwright and the "Reform" Press :

SLANDEREUS. "I accept the abuse and slender that have been heaped upon me by members of the Government as conclusive proof that my efforts to expose their deficiencies have not been in vain. Ministers would not have raged so furiously and disgracefully over the pamphlet, unless they had discovered that In every cardinal point in the District, as it was opening the eyes of the people to Ministerial insincerity, incapacity, and ini-

RE-ARRAIGNED.

Laccased the Government of political tergiversation and recreancy unparalleled in Canada. Is that a falsehood? I refer you in proof of its truth to the speeches of Messrs Mackenzie and Blake, delivered during many years of Opposition in and out of l'ar hament, denouncing coalitions and full of refessions and promises of purity, economy to the coalition with Mr Cauchen and others to whom they had been politically opposed I point also to the evidence of their extravagance and waste exhibited in the tables of expenditure, extracted from the Public Ac. Chairman counts, submitted in my former pamphiet and which for convenience of reference shall produce in this.

I charged them with having been active participators in the most brazen and e mupt scandals recorded in the annals of this country-the violations of the Independence of Invariably in Advance. Parliament Act disclosed last session. Is that a falsehood? No , it is proved by the records of the House of Commons. It is known to the whole people that the Ministry paid upwards of Twenty Thousand Dollars Mr Quinn, Chairman, to the Speaker of the House of Commons in I cleaned without being taken to pieces. THE DAILY NEWS the most demoralizing scandal that has been tau, Strachan, Walker and Watkins. brought to light in our public affairs, and ' when it is spoken of the honest friend of Mr Mackenzie and Mr Blake hang their Abounds with all the latest local and foreign | heads. Its truth is patient to the whole country. 7h. vacillation and blundering in Mr Mackenzie's own department prove it. The departmental business of the country is neglected and often suspended in consequence of the absence of Ministers from their posts at Oftawa, some of them for the purpose of itinerating the country not to enlighten the people but to

And I complained that instead of conducting affairs with the prudence which they had promised, they seemed to have regarded the public Treasury, and its feeders - the Taxpayers - as a mine of mexhaustible wealth and that they had indulged in unwise and prodigal exponditure which had involved the country in serious embarrassment. might truly say, the proof is ever, where. Let Mr Mackenzie also say what could have been more blameworthy in the Government than contracting for building the All Press Goods reduced. Georgian Bay Branch Railway in a country not even explored; on a line which had to All Plaid Winceys reduced, be abandoned after a large sum had been wasted upon it. It is generally believed that this line was placed under contract in other than the public interests.

STEEL RAILS. Mr Mackenzie must admit that the Stee Rail purchase was a colossal blunder, volving heavy loss to the country, and that it was as unnecessary as it is indefensible I have submitted a pro forma Profit and Loss account of the transaction.

What excuse can be offered for laying Two Hundred and Thirty five Thousand Dollars ($235,000) worth of Steel Rails upon the Truro and Picton Railway without the knowledge of Parliament, after it was determined to make a gift of the Railway to a private Company? It was giving away the public property. This would have been culpable in any Government, but was doubly so in that of Mesers, Mackenzie and Blake, gentlemen who had always professed the tine constitutional doctrine that no expenditure should be made by the Government without the authority of Parliament having been first obtained. This is another instance of the manuer in which they disregard their
