ONTARIO LEGISLATURE. Third Session-Third Parliament.

WEDNESDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

Toronto, Jan. 30, --- After prayer and Hon. Mr Pardee introduced a bill to ceserve the forests from fire. He explained that it was intended to declare certain lumber districts fire districts, and to take measures of precaution in regard to these districts. The bill was read a s.m. and 4:30 p.m.

Hon. Mr Crooks introduced a bill to p.m. Mails from the west due for delivery extend the Religious Institutions Act to 7:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. the Church of England in Canada. The United States mails, via CapeVincent, close adjourned till to morrow.

Mr Hodgins moved that in all contracts extending over a period of years, and creating a public charge actual or prospective, entered into by the Executive Government for any public works or service. there shall be inserted the conditions following, or to the like effect: 1st That the contract shall not be binding until it has been upon the table of the House for one month without disapproval unless previous to the lapse of that period it has been approved of by a resolution of the fouse. 2nd. That the sums to be paid for such public work or service under such contract shall be payable out of moneys to be provided by the Legislature of Ontario from time to time 3rd. That no member of the Legislative Assembly . Ontario shall be admitted to any share or part in such contract or to any benefit to arise therefrom, &c. - Withdrawn. Mr Dawson moved for a Select Com-

Mr Clarke supposed the claim of Algoma the representation, and dwelt on the valuable resources of that district. Mr Patterson opposed an increase in the number of representatives, contending that many old counties were now to fully represented. After remarks by Messrs Hunter, Lyon, Creighton and Cameron, Mr Paxton mov. ed an amendment, which instructed the Committee also to consider the question of increased representation for Muskoka and Parry Sound.

The motion and amendment were lost on division. The House then went into Committee of Supply, and passed several votes, including Legislation, $131,350, and Administration of Justice $294,900. Hons Mr. Macdougall attacked the Chancery system of the Province, and snow. advocated the centralization of Courts on the English system.

Hon. Mr Mowat replied that previous abuses had been reformed and the advantages of the English system retained.

Mr. McMahon - complained of the expense involved in Chancery litigation. Mr Hodgins said that under the present judicial system the Judge of a Court had power to try and deal finally with
