THE BRITISH FLEET IN TURKISH WATERS.

It was stated yesterday that the vessels of the Mediterranean Fleet in the vicinity of Constantinople had been ordered to another position forty miles South of the city to please the Russians. This, however, was an erroneous construction. In the House of Lords yesterday afternoon Lord Derby stated that the vessels had been ordered to Mondavina Bay on account of the superior anchorage to be obtained there, and that the change had nothing whatever to do with any nego-

year is expected to be unusually imposing. We regret exceedingly that Rossa has been invited to address an audience in Canada. We are among those who believe that such characters as he, men who are plotting, by means the most infernal, to destroy life and property, connected with their so-called programme for "liberating" Ireland should not be allowed to disturb the peace of this loyal Province. Let Rossa through the columns of the Irish World stir up the enemies of the Empire to conspire against the Queen of Great Britain if he will; but he should not be permitted to preach sedition and encourage treason on the soil of Canada, Rossa is a foreigner-a subject of the United States, and as such we protest against his introduction here, representing as he does a body of men who are enemies of the British Empire, and who at this moment have on hand a project for its dismemberment.
