MONDAY EVENING, MARCH 4.

Gold in New York 1013.

BAD GAS. - The gas in St. Paul's Church was very poor, and last Sunday there was none at all.

LEO XIII. - Portraits of Pope Leo XIII. printed on fine card, suitable for framing, for sale at the DATLY NEWs office.

RECOVERED. - The Rev. Mr McCuaig, who has been ill for a few days, was sufficiently recovered to be able to preach yesterday.

returned to this city. He did not preach taking his place.

College will give the next public entertainment at Convocation Hall on Friday evening. Principal Grant will be one of the readers.

New Crossing .- A new wooden crossing on Queen street at Bagot street is greatly needed. We hope the efficient Aldermen for Cataraqui Ward will look after it soon.

DIOCESAN MISSIONS. - The Ven. Arch deacon Parnell was, announced to address a missionary meeting in connection with St. Thomas' Church at Metropolitan Hall, Belleville, yesterday.

THE MAILS. - The United States mails will close at eleven o'clock every morning in the meantime. The British mail via New York, will close at that hour to morrow. Parties interested will please take notice.

Unloading .- The schooner White Oak is being unloaded to-day of 260 tons of coal next. at Swift's Dock the ice having been cut for the purpose of allowing her to rise up. She will probably load ice for western perts.

WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE UNION. Pius LX. -The semi-monthly prayer meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union will be held on Tuesday, the 5th inst., at 3 p.m., in the Young Men's Christian Association Parlour.

IN Town. - Mr C. R. Hosmer, Superintendent of the Eastern Division of the Church of Scotland." This body is composed to-day. -Mr G. A. Kirkpatrick, M.P., arriv to enter into the recent Union, and they not be repealed sooner or later !" "I ed home from Ottawa on Saturday and left again to-day.

RUNAWAY. This morning a brewery horse took a notion while standing at the door of an Ontario street tavern to start on "its own hook." It ran up Wellington St., and down King street, but when at Clarence street it was headed off, and policeman Grey stopped it by seizing hold of the lines. No damage was done.

THE CROSSING. - The ice on this side of the island is still sufficiently strong to carry horses, but great care has to be taken in crossing. There is no ice at all in the American Channel, and parties have to cross by means of boats. The heavy rain of Saturday night and yesterday had a bad effect on the ice, which seems to be quite
