PHOSPHATE .- Mr Gilbert Wood has re urchased Lots Nos. 8 and 11 in the township of Loughboro, and after working industriously for some six months has been mabled to dig out a sufficient amount of phosphate to make it pay him for his labour. The phosphate yields about 82 per cent of the pure stuff. The roads being good from the mine, the material can be drawn from it without any trouble. Mr Wood has erected actor, and goes about his business in a style which will without doubt make it pay. We wish him every success. -- Cor.
