THE DANITES. -Of this play, the Toronto Globe says :- "The play is founded on one of the most thrilling episodes which ever occured in the many vicissitudes of border life in the Great West-the horrible murder of four hundred men, women and children by the Mormon Destroying Angels, under the leadership of the notorious J. D. Lee, and by the order of that secret sect of the Mormen Church known as the Danites. The play vividly portrays the increasing hatred with which the Mormon Danites pursued the Gentiles, from the killing of Joseph Smith at Hall. His Excellency made a suitable reply.
