> THE JEWISH PENTECOST. - According to the Jewish calendar, yesterday was the sixth day of the month of Sivan, when the Jewish Feast of Pentecost, one of the three great festivals of the synagogue, occurs. It was instituted as an occasion of thanksgiving for the harvest, which, among the ancient Jews, began immediately after the l'assover, and commemoration of the giving of the law, which was delivered from Sinai on the fiftieth day after the exodus from Egypt. (late years it has somewhat lost in importance, but it is still very generally observed by the Jews, both Orthodox and Reform. The ob servance consists of services of praise in the synagogues and temples, which among the Orthodox are kept up for two days, and of similar services at home.

Queen's College Endowment Fund

(Montreal Gazette.) Our Kingston exchanges have reported, from time to time, the progress which has been made towards the fulfilment of the lately anounced scheme for the endowment of Queen's University and College. At the Convocation in April, Dr. Grant frankly stated that in his view, after five months experience and observation as Principal of the University, one hundred and fity thousand dollars is needed for the proper equipment and efficient working of the institution. The enlargement of the College buildings, he said, has become a necessity, in view of the increased and still increasing number of students, and of the insufficient provision at present available for the library museum and laboratory. The teaching staff, he also stated, required to be strengthened in the Theological, Arts, and Science Faculties. The Frin-Council and the Board of Trustees. Both BAY OF QUINTE TO PICTON these bodies warmly endorsed the proposal, with him in his effort to secure the sum.
