This decision was come to on Wednesday evening last, and accordingly the day passed very quietly here. The excitement regarding news from Montreal was intense, and the bulletin boards were eagerly scanned. The brethren met at their Lodge rooms, as they are recommended to do, on the 12th of July, and transacted formal business. One or two left the city this morn ing for Picton, while a considerable number went over to Wolfe Island to attend a picnic got up by the Island Lodge at Horne's Grove.
