B. DORAN & CO.

HENRY CUNNINGHAM. Cingston, 9th May, 1878.

FOR SALE.

WANTS.

R. F. B., Naws Office.

vant to board by the month, will oblige by and manifested their peace-loving pro- others should not be permitted. to J. M., at the Naws Office.

TANTED, TO RENT OR PURCHASE, trates' houses. GOOD DWELLING HOUSE, Apply to J. T., Box 449, Kingston P.O.

LIVERPOOL HOUSE.

NEW ARRIVALS.

DAVENTRY CLOTH DRESS GOODS, only 10c per yard. STRIPED WHITE PIQUES from

COLOURED CASHMERES at 35c.

BLACK CASHMERE from 50c. WASHING SILKS at 15c per yard.

53 pieces BLACK LUSTRES from 121c.

SPECIAL.

mand on Saturday Night, at 50c. HENRY LOWNDES,

PRINCESS STREET.

MASONIC EXCURSION.

WOLFE ISLAND. WESTMINSTER PARK & ALEXANDRIA On MONDAY, July 15th, 1878.

Gents, 50c; Ladies and Children, 25 cents. Meals on board at reasonable rates. R. C. IRVINE, W.M. W. G. WOODMAN.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.

July 10.

ALL STYLES, finished in India Ink, them to give him any support. Crayon, Pastel, Water Colours, &c. COPIES FROM OLD PHOTOS enlarged to Life Size and executed in any of the above VIEWS OF RESIDENCES, GROUNDS,

SHELDON & DAVIS. July 5.

FISHING TACKLE.

TACKLE on hand, to be sold cheap, at

SIGN OF THE GOLDEN BALL, Princess Street.

July 12. OTUTTERING .- Dr. White, of J United States Stammering Institu tion free. No pay required until cured.

public that he has purchased the LIVERY | the opinion of several lawyers was obtain-

Marble Works. Terms moderate, showed what valiant and peace-loving periority yesterday. clivities by attacking the Orange Hall and being remarkably singular, and that is mous terms with mob intimidation, then this; that while Mayor Beaudry's pro- law and order were triumphant; but, on clamation said : "Notice is hereby given | the other hand, if the will and the action of that, on the said twelfth day of July, No | the mob be the antithesis of law and order, Attractions for the Coming Week ASSEMBLAGE OR GATHERING OF PROPLE then the mob, with the aid of the civil A seven a.m. the special constables were power, gained the victory, and freedom swore in, as murderous a looking lot of ruffact mobs were permitted to gather in the time being crushed under the heel various parts of the city early in the day, an intolerant despotism, which mob ascen and no effort whatever was made to dis- | dancy ever is and ever will be. perse them until late in the afternoon when His Worship was graciously placed THE EASTERN QUESTION. to address the "gentlemen" who composed the one in St. James Street, requesting them to go home. Why did not Mayor Beaudry at the earliest practicable moment insist upon the mobs dispersing? Why did he not adopt that course before noon, when the mobs had assumed tretions? Doubtless he can answer best Don't fail to see our DRESS CAMBRICS at himself; but one thing is certain—he landed at Larneca, on the Island of Cyprus. treated his own proclamation as a dead would deserve at least a modicum credit; but he basely and in the most cowardly and abject manner treated his own proclamation as waste paper, permitting mobs to assemble on the streets and to do very much as they pleased. THOUSAND ISLAND PARK, They could not move without orders from the civil authorities, and as the Magistrates who called them out did not undertake to exercise any power in the matter CITEAMER MAUD will leave Wolfe of instructing the General in command, Garden Island, and leaving Folger & Hanley's they remained idle spectators of the that Minister Thornton had placed him Commission, denying cations. Wharf, Kingston, at 11 o'clock a.m., calling Mayor's do-nothing policy. They wit- under sacred obligations, also denying the at the South Side of Howe Island and Port | nessed the assembling of mobs, but could | report that Kellogg is of unsound mind. not move hand or foot in the matter of is added that the award was first fixed by clearing the streets, because His Worship | the other Commissioners at four and a half | L amusement. Of course His Worship go there to listen to the testimony of a par night fall. ignored the military. He had not resubmitted and split the difference." A protheir homes. quested the authorities to turn them out minent citizen who attended the sessions FIGHE undersigned possess every facility for the preservation of the peace, and the Commissioners says the great mistake in the special constables have been disband the first place was fixing upon Halifax as

A few words regarding the Orangemen. As citizens of Montreal, as loyal subjects of Her Majesty, they proposed to exercise the privilege of marching in procession to hear a sermon in a church, just as others are in the habit of parading the streets whenever and as often as they please, Kirkpatrick's Fancy Store, forcibly interfere to prevent their carrying destroyed. out their intention. A meeting of Magis. trates was called. With the result the THE TWELFTH IN THE UNITE reader is familiar. Fearing that the civil power would be helpless in the matter of the preserving the peace if the Orangemen on | persisted in walking, several of the Magis-Seaton street, about one month. Consulta- trates determined to request the service of the military in accordance with the provisions of the Militia Act, which re-OST, A BROWN RETRIEVER DOG; quest was complied with. This course person returning him to me will be suitably rewarded.

Any person returning him to me will be suitably rewarded.

This course the name of "Trip." Any the Mayor opposed, insisting that the suitably rewarded and laboured breathing, the demulcent prospection of Robinson's Phosphorized Rossing in threats against the door of the hall, and awaited the action of Robinson's Phosphorized Rossing in threats against the door of the hall, and awaited the action of Robinson's Phosphorized Rossing in threats against the door of the hall, and awaited the action of the door of the hall, and awaited the action of the door of the hall, and awaited the action of the door of the hall, and awaited the action of the door of the hall, and awaited the action of the door of the hall, and awaited the action of the door of the hall, and awaited the action of the door of the hall, and awaited the action of the door of the hall, and awaited the action of the door of the hall, and awaited the action of the door of the hall, and awaited the action of the door of the hall, and awaited the action of the door of the hall, and awaited the action of the door of the hall, and awaited the action of the door of the hall, and awaited the action of the hall are the door of the hall awaited the action of the hall are the door of the door of the hall are the door of the hall are the door of the door of the hall are HENRY R. SMITH.

Receision, July 11th, 1878.

HENRY R. SMITH.

The post of Rossman's Phosphorized Envision of the Mayor, This occurred about three o'clock. The mob succeeded in getting the color o'clock. The mob succeeded in getting the cases while and bedone of the received about three o'clock. The mob succeeded in getting the cases while and bedone of the received about three o'clock. The mob succeeded in getting the received about three o'clock. of crowds on the streets on the twelfth, which, as already stated, he practically cough quickly yields, the breathing is ease. ignored. The day before the celebration while nature, thus a months ago those asked for it did not act THE 12TH IN MONTREAL. ed the anxious Mayor the desired opportunity of issuing his fiat that the procession A DAY OF HUMILIATION should not take place. When an attempt was made to organise the procession, the THE MAYOR IGNORES HIS marshals were arrested. The Orangeoods Store. Possession immediately, | evening papers of the events in Montreal | cise in the most unrestricted manner. A. HENDERSON, yesterday. We are bold to say, on the They telegraphed the Hon. Alexander The Military Preserves an Orangemen to the West, acquainting the he and those with him were all unarmed. lington streets make things hot by dist there was neither serious rioting nor blood- tection, but he replied that he could do The New Three Storey Brick Store and | shed (one unfortunate accident excepted), | nothing ; and thus the speciacle was wita riotous spirit was demonstrated, and if | nessed of a few hundred British subjects | M the opportunity had only been afforded, | being barricaded in a hall, unable to walk the mobs assembled in thousands on the in procession to attend divine service streets were prepared to leave a terrible simply because a mob said that they must record behind them. Cases of individual | not walk ! That is the whole case in a outrages of the most brutal character are | nutshell. And this is called a free coun- | Brutal Outrages by the Mob and the reported, which prove the nature of the try, a land of equal rights! To the dis-DEON will be sold cheap for cash. En- feelings which predominated. It would grace of Canada be it said that in the seem that the majority of the special con- streets of New York law and order were MAN ACCIDENTALLY SHOT stables sworn in to assist in preserving | vindicated under similar circumstances a TOR SALE OR TO RENT-A FINE | the peace (! !) were some of the worst | few years ago, while in the metropolis of CUT-STONE RESIDENCE on Syden. class of roughs resident in the city, who the Dominion mob law asserted its au-

next door or at the Wemple House. fellows they were by their disgraceful We care not by what name men are partizanship and by their outrageous at- | called, as long as they are loyal citizens, tacks upon single persons. If a riot had we claim, that however indiscreet outtaken place, these law-abiding custodians | door parades of any kind may be consider- taining two or three at a time, under escort WANTED, for a few weeks, A FUR. of the peace would, we have no healta- ed, it is of the utmost importance that of the regular police.

NISHED HOUSE, near the water tion in saying, been leaders in the fight. freedom of action be maintained. If the terms, &c., It is not improbable that among their arguments adduced by those who opposed ranks were some of the individuals who the Orangemen's parade were applied to aftercheering for Mayor Beaudry and peace | other processions, it could be easily proved ble family on Wolfe Island who would on the Champ de Mars on Wednesday | that they are all in the same box, and take a gentleman and lady, child and ser- night proceeded down St. James' street | that if one should be interfered with the night despatches say : No doubt it will be claimed that the re-

There is one thing that strikes us as took place. If law and order are synony-

THE CONGRESS.

Taking Possession of Cyprus.

London, July 12 .- The Cypriotes received the news of the intended occupation of their island by the English with outhusiastic joy, mendous and most dangerous propor and have telegraphed their thanks to Eng.

London July 12 .- The Government apletter, allowing mob law to rule on the tary establishments in the Island of Cyprus. PRINCESS LOUISE KID GLOVES streets of Montreal. It is not improbable The papers announce the appointment of Dark, Black and Evening Shades, great de. | that, viewing the serious aspect of affairs, | postmaster and other officials for the Island. and the humane "apecials" would prove financial company for introducing railways was declined, and the Orange leaders returnunable to disperse the mobs. Be that as on the Island. Arrangements have also been ed to the hall, where, having gone through it may, the mobs were not interfered Alexandria, which will give direct communication of the moment they with, and the all important civic procla, cation with England. Among other schemes mation was trampled in the dust by the is that of the Euphrates Valley Railway. being strongly supported by a great majority magistrates found it necessary to implore gentleman who penned it! If Mr Beaudry direct communication with the Government had even attempted to be consistent he on the subject. It appears that if the Auglo-Turkish Convention is successful it is possible that the country will be asked to give a guarantee for the proposed railway. London, July 13 .- At yesterday's sitting of the Congress Bismarck moved that a supplementary conference be held next autumn, either at Constantinople or Berlin, but Salisbury declared his inability to accede to any proposal interfering with the immediate submission of the papers to the English Parliament. The motion was thrown out.

The Fishery Commission.

defence of Kellogg, the American member of of the Mayor might lead to further complithat Minister Thornton had placed him the first place was fixing upon Halifax as may occasion much controversy if nothing back. for the production of PORTRAITS IN | consequently he could not think of asking | the place of holding the sittings. The feeling in Halifax was that our Government had got in the Geneva award several millions more than it was entitled to, and that this surplus should be restored in the way of con pensation for alleged fishery damages.

THE SOUTH AFRICAN WAR.

The Result.

without let or hindrance. They gave dard and Mail, summing up the results of Frederick Hamilton, Marshals, Alexander interfered, and in another High Constable House, from the great balcony of which adpositive assurances that they would not the war with the natives in South Africa, Gibson, Wm. Caven, John Cromwell and Bissonette came to the rescue of peaceable dresses were delivered in French and Eng. play party tunes, but insisted upon their says :- Only a few small parties of the John Liburn. Bail was at once offered for men who had committed no offence what. lish, amid an enthusiasm amounting to alright to wear their regalia. The anfore they will be disposed of. A number of fore they will be disposed of. A number of and Place d'Armes, several roughs, two of all he desired was peace, and protesting that their release, but the Police Magistrate snggested to the ballstill a more definite conclusion and Place d'Armes, several roughs, two of all he desired was peace, and protesting nouncement of their intention raised a chiefs have been taken prisoners. The others delaying the balltill a more definite conclusion and Place d'Armes, several roughs, two of all he desired was peace, and protesting storm. Strong and inflammatory words only man of influence at liberty is Kerli. by 3 or 4 o'clock the city would be in such ed to have set upon a young man and pumwere written and spoken, and it soon be- The loss of life among the insurgents is much a state as would warrant the bailing of the melled him unmercifully, for saying that the stables were all that was required to preserve violence mobs of disorderly persons would the previous outbreak. It may be said that

KINGDOM.

Disturbance in Scotland.

London, July 13. - The Orange demonstry tions throughout the Kingdom were except at Wishaw, Scotland, where the tary were called out. About 50 persons were

IN THE HARD DRY COUGH OF CHRONIC

OWN PROCLAMATION.

THEIR HALL.

"Armed Neutrality."

MACKENZIE TELEGRAPHE TO--HE SAID HE COULDN'T INTERFERE.

Special Constables.

Armed Demonstration by Quebec Roughs.

LEAVING THE HALL, Montreal, July 12-7 p.m. - The Orangemen have now all left the Hall in cabs con-

TROOPS SENT TO QUARTERS. Gen. Selby Smyth has ordered the troops to their respective quarters, and the streets are new assuming a quieter aspect.

(Night Despatches) After some introductory remarks our

Many of the stores were closed all day, some of them with their windows blocked to protect them from the onslaught of the mob, smashing the windows of certain Magis- sults of yesterday were a triumph for law which was expected to be ready for any. and order, inasmuch as no actual trouble thing. Everyone was prepared for the worst, and "God help us" was written upon every countenance, except those of the irresponsible beings turned out to plunder, to destroy and to slay. So serious was the position that more than one prominent commercial man declared it had passed "Beyond , the bounds of Orangeism," and had assumed

ELSEWHERE IN THE CITY," as a matter of of action and personal liberty were for fians as it was possible for a penitentiary to contain, and these, bearing brand new badges and monstrous wooden batons, were fittingly etyled by some as "Beaudry's Brigade." It looked to many as if the object of these men | the cheers of some of the regular police. One on being sworn was not to maintain peace, of the men was struck on the head by one but to club all who dared to appear as of the constables of the day, but they reach. Orangemen as well as any who were courage ed the entrance safely, and the man who ous enough to sympathize with. Perhaps, had been struck turned and triumphantly even in some cases, to gratify some long raised his hat. cherished private grudge. By the time the constables arrived at their respective posts crowds were thick on the streets, round the Orange Hall especially so, the congregation containing Catholics as well as Protestants, the one vying the other almost like wild beasts, anxious to get at each other, but prevented by bars. Soon after nine o'clock the Mayor sent a church, but were arrested the moment they to the west, asking for assistance and ex. an escort of several policemen, entered the pressing their intention of remaining where | Orange Hall, and again requested them not they were until they obtained relief. Mean- to walk. time a number of Orangemen, residents as the annual sermon on "Liberty-Social, and Catholicism. He recommended firmness | the hall. on the part of the Orangemen in the main-Boston, July 13.—The Herald publishes a tion. He expressed the fear that the action tenance of their rights, but advised modera-

During the afternoon the Mayor having man (because of his white trousers) and be this very city. But Protestants, with the THE NEW BOOK STORE. guaranteed the safe conduct to all Orange assaulted by the crowd, rushed after him, liberality Scripture has taught them, pass men who wished to go home from the hall, when he madly rushed into the danger he these things unheeded, and quietly smile Little occurrences of the day have been al. tive Cullen and other policemen, however | Council of Trent, how the Corpus Christi had "specials" on hand for that purpose, raised it one million. It is reported that the accidental shooting of one Mennier by although in his wisdom he did not think Delfosse, being asked how it was that he agreed to make the United States pay Constable Lansey. Fortunately there has it advisable to ask them to interfere to $5,500,000, the Belgian answered that it was been nothing serious, but some anticipate prevent the mobs having their innocent a great international question. "I did not difficulty in some sections as the shades of

Some of the Volunteers have been sent to

Complaint is made of the rowdy manner which a number of the Quebec blackguards left the city this evening, firing revolvers in all directions from the boat careless of consequences. General Smyth awaits further orders from

(Condensed from the Reening Papers.)

ARRIVAL OF ROWDIES FROM QUEEEC. A crowd of several hundred persons assembled at the Richelieu Company's wharf this morning to await the arrival of the 'Quebeo' steamer. The police, many of them arme with rifles, were in attendance to presorder. As the steamer touched the wharf the crowd on shore loudly cheered those board. Several hundred roughs disemb ed from the steamer after being searched the detectives, but no arms were found them. They were met by a crowd on shore The roughs split in three parties and pars different courses. One party proceeded ale St. Paul street, talking loudly and hooti persing the crowd on St. James street. in their hall and refused to leave until the fatal, though he is very weak from loss of L BANK BILL. The finder will plea crowds in the streets were dispersed. They blood, which flowed profusely. The young return it to the NEWS Office. were also waiting for answer to a telegram | man Tabsey remained by him, and appeared sent the Premier at Ottawa, asking that they | to suffer acute grief at the result of his careshould receive protection. The Premier re. lesness. Sergeant Kehoe, of the Central plied to the telegram sent him by County Station, arrived, and after dispersing the Master Grant to the effect that he could not | crowd, took the revolver in charge. An in-

It is stated that the Orangemen have had under consideration a proposition to get up a demonstration on the 16th, the anniversary of Hackett's death, and to invite their brethren from Kingston, Ottawa, Toronto, and all other quarters to join them in a pro gession to church. No decision was come to at the latest hour before going to press.

obeyed the orders of the Sergeants and leaving the ranks, rushed after them ami-

of the surging crowd, Several arrests have them "for God sake" -as one excitedly shout ing been effected, the remainder of the ed-to remember they were constables em-Orangemen returned to their room, whence ployed to keep order, and to remember what they dispatched messages to the Premier and | they were. The Mayor subsequently, with well as strangers, to the number of about turned up to hide his necktie, having his by any of these things, encroach on the right bidding. 150, went to Stanley Street Presbyterian | hat in a paper bag, managed to reach the Church, where the Rev. C. Doudiet preached front of the crowd on St. James street, when, being noticed, he made a rush for the Civil, and Religious," which was opposed in cleared space, and, though at first prevented, much the same manuer both by Ritualism was permitted by the police to proceed to

A man named Fournier, not an Orangeman, but under the influence of liquor, came | tasteful to certain parties, it should therefrom the direction of the hall and approached fore be suppressed. It would not be hard the mob at Place d'Armes. A policemau, to show many things of the same kind which was too stupid to see awaited him. Detec- when they read in the decress of the

they were attacked by the special constables of our being Protestants or even Orange. with batons, and would have been roughly men. We demand not tolerance-tolerance handled only the sergeants and others inter- means that there is something to be borne fered and saved them. It is stated that one with or forgiven. We demand our birthof the special constables was drunk, and right: Liberty. Liberty has cost humanity assaulted several persons whom he imagined | too many tears and too much blood to be in several cases, and ordered the constable

At three o'clock an Orangeman was attacked on Craig street and badly beaten. century, although it might please some of United States Dispensatory, The police came to the rescue promptly and the reactionists even here to have new Basgot the man out of the clutches of the mob. tilles, and lettres de cachet wherewith to dis. Christine Brownloe. An affray took place about the same time at pose of the troublesome champions of our having been comparatively cleared, the Orangemen were about to leave. On some of the men coming out of the door they were The names of the six Orangemen who were pounced on and arrested by the special con- an immense crowd of about 5,000 Frenchmen London, July 13.—The Cape Town Stan- arrested this morning are Thomas Ingram and stables. In one case Colonel Whitehead and Irishmen assembled in front of the Court

> Orangemen had as much right to walk as the peace. any other body of men belonging to secret was driven back to the hall, with his face broke up in a disorderly fashion. covered with blood. On seeing the desperate turn affairs had taken, the Orangemen closed congregated in the street, so that they may be allowed to go peaceably home. Third—that a volunteer of the first-named corps, not that a volunteer of the first-named corps, not sion between nine and ten o'clock last in the street, so that they may that a volunteer of the first-named corps, not sion between nine and ten o'clock last in the street, so that they may that a volunteer of the first-named corps, not sion between nine and ten o'clock last in the street, so that they may that a volunteer of the first-named corps, not sion between nine and ten o'clock last in the street, so that they may that a volunteer of the first-named corps, not sion between nine and ten o'clock last in the street. Mayor's assertion that he would aggressor's officers, who handed him over to

seem to be divided in opinion as to what ed up to to the Orange Hall, but met with street suffers for the crime of one. But be THE MOR RULING OUTSIDE. seem to be divided in opinion as to what the same difficulty in obtaining access to the from these are never suffered so re the resolutions not having been sent to the room as did the contingent alluded to in our from these as they have for the past mo brethren with the position of affairs, and A most awful accident occured this after- ing the neighbors during day and depris answers were returned, one from Kingston, noon shortly after three o'clock in Jacques them of sleeping during night. saying that many men were ready to come | Cartier square, Several men were assembled | nuisances as these should immedia by the first train if they were required. We in the bar-room of the Nelson Hotel, kept by derstand that messages of a similar tenor N. Doray, and among them were a few of the street an except of the street of t were received from Toronto and Ottawa. It special constables. They were not there long delight the sufferers and at the same is are in favour of holding out, in the hope that | which was produced by one of them, One of the noise. It is therefore to be he Crangemen from a distance will come in, the constables named James Tansey was ex- kindness will never be forgotten. to still be held. About I o'clock a carriage of the cartridges, not knowing that the weawas driven through the crowd to the door of | pon was self-acting. It went off with a fearthe hall, and a box of cheese and two boxes | ful report, and the young man to whom he of biscuits were handed out from it. A cry f was showing it fell to the floor, the ball haywas at once raised, "Open the boxes!" and | ing penitrated his forehead. The noise of several self constituted authorities sprang | the explosion was heard by the crowds on eagerly forward to do it, one of them giving | the Champ de Mars, and soon a large crowd a cracker box cover a kick with his foot. | pressed about the door. The victim is Mr. | Esq., of this city. They were, however, quietly and firmly Joseph Meunier, the proprietor of the St. waived back by High Constable Bissonette, | Louis Hotel, No. 15 Jacques Cartier Square. who proceeded to open the boxes, which | He lay for some minutes on the floor near were found to be all right. Very bad taste | the door, and the ghastly pallor of his counwas exhibited by some of the Young Britons, tenanceled some of those around to report that Col. M. H. Twitchell, U. S. Consul, ago who shouted taunting words from the win- he was dead. His head was raised and months. dows of the hall. As we go to press the placed on a cushion, and water was applied, The funeral will take place from Mayor, assisted by some of the city Magis | when signs of life became apparent. The father's residence, William street, to more trates, and the special constables are dis. revolver was a very large one, said to carry at 4 p.m. a ball several hundred yards. The wound At three o'clock the Orangemen were still was high in the forehead, and may not prove T OST-A $10 EASTERN TOWNSH > vestigation will be made. THE SERMON.

At twenty minutes past twelve o'clock, Bev. Mr Doudiet arrived at the Stanley street Presbyterian Church, in company with ver the annual sermon as intended. In the St. Lawrence Base Ball Clu course of his remarks he said : - Liberty of conscience is the very first. No man, and no About 9:35 a.m., two Orangemen, one number of men have or can in equity have with a blue band on his hat, and the other any anthority over conscience. If our neighwith his regalia under his coat, made their bour thinks us mistaken in our religious be held at 8 o'clock on MONDAY EVEN way through the crowd at the corner of St. opinions, or for that matter, in any of our ING, the 15th inst., at the Angle-America James street and St. Lambert's Hill. They opinions, he has the right, if he chooses, to Hotel. All members and friends of the Clu were going along the south side of the street enlighten us, and by dispassionate argument will please attend. to convince us of our error, but to say, with by some of the special constables, who dis St. Bernard, that "heretics should be compelled to conform even by fire or sword," to use any kind of persecution or insult to crush conscientious opinions, is a crime against the God-given liberties of humanity. This crime has been committed, more or less, by the partizans of every human religion, whenever they have found themselves the majority. It is, therefore, the clear duty of every man Several Orangemen, whilst endeavouring to accord to others the tolerance he claims to pass the assembled crowds towards their for himself. It is too late in the history of half, were attacked and narrowly escaped the world to say of all who do not think THE subscriber has received instruction

> Equal rights with our fellow-subjects is still | Steamboats. The business is long establish. another consequence of the liberty we lay | ed and has been favourably known and supclaim to as British subjects and Christians. | ported for the last 27 years. We are free to form associations in accordance with the laws of the land, free to adopt dis- Terms of Sale-Ten per cent of the purtinguishing emblems, colours or banners, hold | chase money to be paid at the time of sale to stated meetings, keep up anniversaries, or | the Vendor's Solicitors, the balance in one walk the streets in procession, if we do not month thereafter. There will be a reserve of our fellow-subjects. If we do these things however, and oppose others doing them be- sale may be had on application to Messicurs cause they differ from us in religion or other- Smythe & Dickson, Vendor's Solicitors, or wise, we only show that we are unworthy of at the time of sale. liberty we enjoy. It does not seem to us enough to say that, be- SMYTHE & DICKSON, cause a public demonstration like ours is dislightly given up: it is too late, we repeat, too | Meyer's on St. John's Gospel, late in the history of the world to think of Sable Brushes,

Protestant civil and religious rights. REJOICING AT THE RESULT. After the Orangemen had been driven home going backward, and of making of this fair

Ald. Wilson and others followed briefly. Mr Mullarky remarked that they were Colonel Whitehead went up into the lovers of law and order and despised Orange-Orange Hall, and guaranteed protection if ism. If the Orangemen of the West came to they would quietly return home. He said | Montreal to-morrow the Irishmen of this they would receive all the protection neces- city would go up to Toronto next week and sary. Under this premise some entered car- sweep all the Orangemen into the Bay. (Imriages and drove homewards, many carriages | mense cheering.) No man, Protestant or having a special constable each. A Young Catholic, was worthy of his religion if he Briton named Robert Gilbert, attempted to would insult and attack his fellow-men. He lancy and Staple Uty Goods pass down St. Lambert Hill, but was badly | wound up in an inflammatory speech, by askassaulted by a mob, a volley of stones being | ing for three cheers for France, to which fired at him. He was severely injured and there was a faint response. No cheers were ATGREATLY REDUCED PRICES received a severe cut on the forehead. He | asked or given for England, and the meeting

THE LATEST. Orangemen to be Prosecuted

Montreal, July 13 .- There is absolutely This morning the military from the outsid are being sent to their homes The Orangemen arrested yesterday will

Correspondence NOISY NEIGHBOURS

TO THE EDITOR OF THE DAILY NEW! Sir, -- Queen Street has always had name of a noisy street. The facts being or two neighbours keep the ball rolling the time, and the consequence is the w ONE OR THE SUFFERER

MARRIED.

In this city, on the 3rd inst., by the li F. McCuaig, Mr M. D. Strachan to No M., daughter of the late Henry Fergus

DIED.

In Kingston, July 13th, Harvey E., sor

OTRAYED, on the premises of the subsc ber, on Monday, the 8th, on Lot 10, 1 Concession, Township of Pittsburgh, WHITE and BLACK COW. The owner o have the same by applying to

GEO. MOORE,

Pitteburgh.

BUSINESS MEETING of the S E. GREAVES.

Secretary St. Lawrence B. B. C.

AUCTION SALE Valuable Freehold Hotel Property

with their lives. At Place d'Armes Hill an as we think, or believe what we I to sell on the premises, in the City of Orangeman was noticed by a crowd of roughs, believe, 'They are outside the pale of Kingston, on THURSDAY, the 1st day of who rushed down the hill attempting to enter | salvation." Calvin could not burn Servetus | August, A.D. 1878, at 12 o'clock noon, th Slevin's saloon. He was shoved back, but to-day, nor Dominic slaughter heretics following property named : Parts of Lot managed to enter. A yelling, blood-thirsty | - Episcopalians do not now persecute Non- Number Six and Seven, in the said City of crowd rushed to the door, but was resisted conformists, nor Puritans burn witches. Kingston, situate on the Corner of Ontari message to the Orangemen asking for an by the proprietor and others, who managed Every one who countenances religious per- and Brock Streets, in the said city, embrace to close the doors. The mob at the head of secution, indirectly works to bring us back | ing an extent of eighty two feet four inches Place d'Armes Hill became very excited at to the times of ignorance and savage more or less, on Brock Street, and forty little distance from the hall. His Worship times, especially when the Orange marshals fanaticism from which God has, in this free eight feet four inches, more or less, on Onta were arrested, rousing cheers were given. Empire, set us free. Liberty of speech and rio Street, being the premises formerly known recommended strongly that they should al. The police at this point had hard work to of the press is another of our precious rights. as the "Griffin House," and now occupied low several of their officers to be acrested, to keep the mob back, which at times showed If the dootrines preached in our churches, or by Owen Kennedy. The buildings on said furnish a test case for the Courts, where the a great inclination to make a rush on the if the political opinions expressed on the premises comprise a three-story Brick Hotel he found out that the regular police force already under construction the scheme of a legality of the Association and their present the premises comprise a three-story Brick Hotel, appealed to and implored the crowd to res.

The offer appealed to and implored the crowd to res. appealed to and implored the crowd to res jects, abuse and violence will never reform outbuildings and appurtenances. There is train themselves. The special constables us, if indeed we need reforming. Again a comfortable yard. The premises are adwere greatly excited at times, and, as vari- here, let argument be met by argument, facts vantageously situated, being near the terous incidents happened, were with difficulty by contrary facts, and from the friendly dis- minus of the Kingston and Pembroke Railcussion elicit the truth, if possible-but will | way and the landings of the Cape Vincent, it mend matters to wreck buildings, ill-use Wolfe Island and Gananoque Steamboat speakers, or otherwise appeal to mob violence? | Lines, and the Ontario and Richelieu Line of Title indisputable.

Further particulars and the conditions of Kingston, 13th July, 1878.

WM. MURRAY,

RECEIVED TO-DAY.

NEW NOVELS, NEW BOOKS. NEW STATIONERY. TATINER'S GRAMMAR OF THE NEW

Prices of all goods to suit the times. S. WOODS. CHEAP SALE

GOODS.

July 13th, 1878.

We will for the next thirty days, commend ing on MONDAY, July 15th, offer our entire stock of Each Department is supplied with full and we will make it to the interest of every buyer of Dry Goods to favour us with a call.

An inspection invited. Sales strictly cash. One price only.

R. & J. GARDINER; PRINCESS STREET. Kingston, July 13, 1878.