Press Association Excursion.

(From the Detroit Evening News) The Canadian Press Association had intended visiting Detroit in force, but the alarming news from Montreal forced the great majority to hasten home, so that only comparatively few arrived yesterday. They were received at the station by representatives of the Evening News and Free Press and escorted to the Michigan Exchange, where they registered as follows: Ex-President James Innes and wife, Mercury, Guelph; President James Shannon, News, Kingston; Secretary and Treasurer W. R. Climie and wife, Statesman, Bowmanville; E. Jackson, wife and daughter, Era, Newmarket; R. H. Holmes, Times, Wingham; P. H. Bryce, Journal, Guelph; J. H. Graham and wife, Gazette, Parkhill; George Bengough, Grip, Toronto. After breakfast they were invited to a drive, and in six of Case's nobbiest coaches, headed by the late Jim Fisk's drag drawn by four greys, they proceeded to take in the town. The house of correction was made the object of a special visit. On the conclusion of the drive the party were the guests of the Free Press folks at lunch, and, after viewing that establishment, a visit was made the Evening News. The city hall was the next object of attention, and then dinner at the Exchange their bivouse on Beaver Hall Hill on the 12th is also completed, and will be found well was in order. The evening, up to 9 p.m., of July. In thanking their Detroit entertainers all expressed themselves highly delighted with the manner in which they had been treated. (Correspondence of the News.) Milwaukee, Wis., Saturday night.
