MR DALTON M'CARTHY. One of the rising politicians of the country is Mr Dalton McCarthy, who succeeded in defeating Mr Cook in North Simcoe on Tuesday last. Mr McCarthy was first returned to Parliament in December, 1876, as the successor of the LARGE STOCK RECEIVED AND FOR late Hon, John H. Cameron in the representation of Cardwell. His opponent is one of the most prominent "elevators of the standard of public morality"-Grit fashion-in the country. It was by Mr Magazine Parcel. Cook that Mr McCarthy was defeated in 1872 and 1874. When elected for Cardwell Mr McCarthy announced his intention of again contesting North Simcoo. As the representative of Cardwell he had a sure position as long as he wished to continue to occupy a seat in the House of Commons, but he was determined to break a lance once more with Mr Cook, and therefore declined re-nomination by the Conservatives of the last named conatituency. Several of the Government organs went so far as to question Mr McCarthy's sincerity when he made the statement that he would run again in Simcoo; but he steadily adhered to his purpose and had the satisfaction of routing the "Reform" standard-elevator. who, according to his own confession. spent $28,000 in bribery during two previous election campaigns.
