She was found to be pregnant and was kept till August 31, when she was delivered of a male child. On the 19th of September she came to Kingston where she was guilty of the crime which has brought her before the public, namely, the desertion of her shild, which she left on the verandah of a residence on the corner of Queen and Sydenbam streets. This morning she was tried at her own request before the Police Magistrate and was sent to gaol for one year. As a warning to any who might be desirous of disposing of their incombrances in a similar manner to the unfortunate Dinah, it may be stated that it is in the power of the magistrate to punish such conduct by imprisonment for three years in the Penitentiary.
