PICTON CHURCH BELL AGAIN.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE DAILY NEWS. Sir-I was rather amused in reading the letter of "Old Baldwin" in your paper of the 10th instant, as well as the one from the "Freton Church Bell." The quotations from another letter from Old Baldwin in yours of the 29th is rather contradictory of his letter of the 10th. I think by this time the world will know that Picton has a bell-net only one bell, but ten bells. Just think of it! Ten belie for a little town like Picton! The last importation being two bells for the Presbyterian Church and one for the Picton High School. But referring to Old Baldwin's let and hear it, etc. He would like your readers to know he had something to do with who let others do all the work and pay for it, and then exclaim, how "we" did it. As ITALIAN WAREHOUSE. MONTREAL TEA HOUSE. getting "this bell." He is like those people to not being asked for a subscription, I think the reason is this: There is a true saying-"it is hard to get blood out of a turnip," so it is with getting subscriptions from some people. They 'sponge' all they can, and give nothing; and to such people solicitors

Yours, THOSE PICTON BELLS. - An esteemed correspondent writes from Picton to day :- "I think the two bells you refer to as having been lately added to the Presbyterian Church must have been belies of the feminine gender, as I have heard the sound of none other. Perhaps these may be the kind you mean. Explain the different sounds." As our cor-

A MAN TRAP.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE DAILY NEWS. Sir, - It is about time the attention of the Aldermen of Cataraqui Ward was called to the disgraceful state of that man-trap on Rideau street. After dark it is dangerous, and unless persons are careful they may fall down and be seriously injured. A short time ago a little boy was going home that way after six o'clock when he fell in, and had it not been for one of the neighbours Mutual Fire Insurance Company, who saw him he would have been drowned. Another night an old pensioner was going | HEAD OFFICE : PICTON, ONTARIO, home that way, and he was pretty well primed. He was heavily laden with provisions and had a bottle of --- in his pocket.
