The End.

Ends in the great gray sea; Strives upward to the tree. The rainbow the sky adorning. Shines promise through the storm ; The glimmer of coming morning Through midnight gloom will form. By time all knots are river, Complex although they be,

And peace will at last be given,

Bear best unto the close.

We shall be "satisfied."

Dear, to both you and me. Then, though the path may be dreary, Look onward to the goal; Though heart and head be weary, Let faith inspire the soul. Seek the right, though wrong be tempting, Speak the truth at any cost, Vain is all weak exempting When once the gem is lost. Lot strong hand and keen eye be ready For plain and ambushed foes; Though earnest and fancy steady

The heavy clouds may be raining, But with evening comes the light; Thro' the dark are low winds complaining, Yet the sunrise gilds the height. And love has his hidden treasure For the patient and the pure ; And time gives the fullest measure To the workers who endure : And the word that no law has shaken Has the future pledge supplied; For we know that when we "awaken"
