Wastington, D.C. Dec. 14, 1878. When I wrote to you a week ago, Congress had just completed the first week of its session, and extraordinary progress had been made in regular legislation. The Senate, to be sure, gave one day to or OFFICE: CLARENCE STREET, politics, which belonged to business, and shows a disposition still further to depart from the commendable example of the House, but that is of comparatively small consequence as the work on appropriation bills the principal legitimate business of the session-must be done by the House. What called the Senate from labour to entertainment was the sprech of Mr Blaine upon his resolution authorizing inquiry as to alleged intermidation of voters at the late election. His speech was an arraignment, strongly drawn, of the white people of the South. I tions it cannot be excelled; and as a blood He, was replied to by Senators. Next week, when Senator Thurman and the other Democrats have had time to prepare themselves, the discussion will be renewed.

So far the appropriation bills passed have provided for almost exactly the amounts estimated by the Secretaries, and these amounts . vary only slightly from those appropriated for the coming year. The Senate has not, as H. R. Stevens, Esq. it usually does, added materially to the sums voted by the House. Presidential elections, the bill appropriating | ed to health, and discontinued its use. Senate on the first named bill.

There was an amusing incident yesterday | health. at one of the investigations of the session, based upon charges made in a newspaper article. The editor was asked for his authority for the charges, and replied that he got them in a letter addressed to him by a 'person of the name of Johnson," . There are seventeen pages of Johnsons in our city directory, and the Committee may or may not summon them all. The Cension Appropriation Bill, reported in the House yesterday, calls for a little less than $30,000,000, being about the same as last year. Those having means of information do not think the sum required wil materially decrease for many years. No money is more freely voted, however. () pension laws are the most liberal in t world, giving to disabled soldiers from $2 to $72 per month. Though reporting several other nominations lately, Mr Conaling a Committee on Commerce has taken no action on those for Clover, the New Year Custom House.
