Washing, mopping, baking, churning; Next day ironing must be done, Little rest till set of san.

Then the knitting and the sewing (With the button holes to make); Oh, the patching and the darning, How they make our fingers ache,

But of all the varied duties That we busy housewives find, I do think that washing dishes Is the most provoking kind. Why, the times they must be handled O'er and o'er, day after day, Almost makes one wish the china Were in bits for children's play,

Now, don't tell me I am wicked-I know that as well as you; But somehow when I am weary, Dishes makes me feel so blue. And the only cure I've found yet Is a paper or a book, When my family are settled, Each in his own cozy nook.

I know well that very many Have obtained the needed grace, With a patient, cheerful spirit All life's petty ills to face. Ob, that I were of that number ! Then, "with heart for any fate,"
