SUBSCRIPTION CLUBS. There is scarcely a village in Central Canada where Subscription Clubs may not be formed for this Journal by a trifling exertion on the part of its friends. The inducement of cheapness is great, and the Publisher promises that nothing shall be left undone to keep up the high standard of excellence which has earned for the Chronicle and News the popularity which it enjoys with all classes, as a family newspaper, even with those who do not coincide with it in politics. Upon this general ground alone, then, the Publisher of the Chronicle and News feels that he can ask his friends, irrespective of party, to promote its circulation by the formation of Subscription Clubs.
