The departure of M. Catacazy, the Rusman Minister, from the United States, marks the last act in the rupture between the United States and Russia, and signalizes the end of the absurdly extravagant and and inconsistent professions of good feeling which have been exchanged between the Millan. years past. The origin of the Catacazy difficulty is well known. The Minister was instructed to use influence to prevent if posaible the settlement of the Alabama claims so that Russia might continue to benefit pelitically by the estrangement between Great Britain and the United States.
