Sir, - Among my peregrinations through the country I have just visited the village of Stirling, and find a new splendid hotel creet called the "Albion Hotel," conducted in first class style by John Ackers. I also find my old friend, Benjamin Steadman, conducting still his business. He is one of the old hands here, and exceedingly popular throughout the country, and from the fact that he has buill several brick shops and dwellings, and keeps a first-class stock of goods, must be doing

Esq., editor of the Victoria, B. C., Standard, and one of the representatives of that Province in the Federal Parliament. Our visitor reports affairs in the Province flourishing, and remarked upon the difference in the climate, he having picked flowers in the garden before leaving home, a month ago. The employees of the Grand Trunk Railroad under the superintendence of Mr William Mechine, station agent at Brockville, to the number of about fifty, enter-

Hall a few evenings since, for the purpose of giving expression to their feelings of respect for him, and to present him with a lendid gold watch chain with Masoni emblems attached, on the occasion of his intended removal from Brockville to assume the management of the Midland Railroad. On the evening of Good Friday, a number of the members of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, St. Thomas, met their minister; the Rev. J. H. Starr and his good lady quite by surprise, by taking possession the house and beginning to arrange for tea. After justice had been done to the estable Mr Starr was presented with a beautifu dressing gown, and a purse of fifty dollars was given to Mrs Starr. An address was read, to which Mr Starr replied in an excellent speech, after which conversation and singing were kept up until about 9 o'clock p.m. when the party dispersed.

We clip the following from the Carleton Place Herald :- We are sorry to have to Mr. George Sutton, who was married only a few months ago. He died at Ottawa e the 31st instant, at the early age of 24 years. Mr Sutton's shop in Carlete Place was on fire some weeks ago, and it is supposed that he overheated himself in fighting the fire. This with the excitement and the smoke seems to have settled upon his lungs. He went to Ottawa a few days after, on business, and never returned. He is said to have died of congestson of the lungs.
