SPECIAL TELEGRAMS

(Per Montreal Telegraph Line.)

From Ottawa.

Ottawa, May 1. - It is generally considered that the attempt of the Opposition last night to criticise and find fault with the financial statement was a most egregious failure, the like of which has seldom been seen. There being no changes whatever in the tariff, all the Opposition leaders could do was to try and show that the Government did not deserve the slightest amount of credit for the present prosperous condition of the country.

Mr Donald A. Smith is here. Sir Francis Hinck's explainations about the Washington Treaty have caused considerable change in the feeling of those who were disposed to oppose the endorsation of the fishery
