Scranton, Pa., May 15.—There is no truth whatever in the reports of an explosion of gas and killing of men in Belleveue shaft, no accident has occurred at any of the mines in this region to-day.

New York, May 16. - The Tribune Wash- Calf skins, ington special says :- A New York member has prepared a bill which he intends to offer in the house in case the treaty fails, providing a way of recovering the Alabama future prospects of the Grand Trunk : claims. The bill directs payment by the United States Government in gold of all legitimate claims for direct lesses to American Merchants and ship owners growing out of the depredations of the Alabama and other Anglo-rebel cruisers, and provides that the government shall indemnify itself for such payment by collecting a tonnage-tax of three dollars a ton on all British shipping entering American ports until fully reimbursed. The member says that his bill would not only accomplish the speedy payment of the Alabama claims, but would have the more important effect to drive British ships from American trade and restore to our commerce something of its former prosperity and prestige.

A Washington special to the World says the draft of the supplemental article to the Washington Treaty was again discussed at great length by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to-day

The particular plan of surrender proposed to the United States by the Gladstone Minis- ponding period of last year, we are not so santry did not seem to strike a single member guine as to expect that 1872 will have an inof the committee favourably, but the so large that in its second half it amounted to whole discussion turned on the question as £141,601, while in the whole year 1871 it (the to whether the treaty could be saved any of upwards of £4,000 per week on all the year other way. THE GRAND TRUNK. Herapath's Journal has the following on th

We have not seen so rapid an improvement in the fortunes of the Grand Trunk as in those of the Great Western of Canada, but its traffic has, like the Great Western of Canada, increased greatly. We shall, however, in a few year's time, witness in the Grand Trunk a mighty change for the better. The very weight of that which now so heavily depresses t will add to its buoyancy-to wit its heavy renewal charges for laying down steel rails, Also a SMALL PIANO, suitable for a young &c. The greater this charge now the lighter will be the maintenance charge in future, a future big with vast traffic increase. There is no great competing line to be formed against the Grand Trunk, on the other hand there are several most important feeders in store for it. There is the long Intercolonial Railway, which will complete its route to Halifax. There the International Bridge to yield it additional There are numerous traffic at its other end. small offshoots which are being made in Canada at various points. And, need we say, there is the general improvement which is so strikingly taking place in Canada in everything which constitutes the material wealth of a country, an improvement which its great trunk line of necessity participates. From all these sources the Grand Trunk though its revenue has already this year (1872) considerably increase over the corres-

THE BISHOP OF LITCHFIELD'S VISIT TO CA-NADA AND THE UNITED STATES .- An interesting memento of the good fellowship and affection which exists between the Protestant Evangelical Church of the United States and land. The article in question is a massive an beautifully-worked silver alms basin, which wise altered the direct issue involved, but is to be presented to the Archbishop of Can-Senate. Another meeting will be held to at the recent visit of the bishop, accompanied morrow to continue the discussion, and it is by some of the clergy of his discesse. The New Spring Goods
