TUESDAY EVENING, JULY

LORD DUFFERIN. -Thousands of the peoale of this city and vicinity had an opporsterday of seeing our new Govenor Applyon leased with his easy and graceful manner. He arrived in the city precisely at twelve o'clock, and his visit augurs well for his future popularity. Governors are pretty much dready made him hosts of well-wishers. City Hall yesterday afternoon. As his Exency was passing down the centre ower to your honour," and to add cim nump on the shoulder. The Governor knew enough of his countrymen to apreciate the affair in its proper light, and mong its inhabitants.

and instead of considering it a "humilia- eagerness would have tien" looks upon it as an honour. So marred. "friend Carman," make your mind easy on

The second cause of hatred is so comic, and, by the way, so excruciatingly complito our local contemperary the

or patrenage and plunder.

of the Editor of the Ontario. The fact is the Ontario is such nestimable study for the mind intent was necessarily brief. following the intricacios of the human that we rather relien a glance at its for it affords the freshest subject e hear from us again let him stir us up a the reception of so distinguished a personage ttle, and we shall be happy to give him | and snite. The City Hall was tastily decorat-

1 that Dr. Tupper is to bothe Minister | cy's proposed visit, were unremitting in their Island Revenue.

Reform organ in Frontenac.

enience to attend the military parade proper manner; but in no instance has it ere, on the pressing invitation of his wor- been so demonstrative as on the 1st of the party continued their journey westship the Mayor. It is not our intention to July 1872. Varied and multifarious were four hours and forzy-five minutes, inclusive of ate that his unassuming manners have consequently the city was astir from an tender, a baggage and two Pullman palace this was most indubitably seen after flags floated proudly in the prevailing edithe city on the branch track, and halted at the presentation of the addresses at the breeze, as well as union jacks, stars and the above to site, amid the enlivening stripes, and emblems of different designs strains of "God save the Queen," rendered Best shot in No. 5 Company, Col. Seggeant the Hall, one enthusiastic Irishman, carried sels in the harbour. The stores were closed; 14th P. W. O. Rifles. The Dominion Garri- Best shot in No. 6 Company, Sergeant Mcaway by his feelings called out, "More crowds of anxious spectators wended their son Artillery, under command of Lt.-Col." way through the busy streets-constantly to the remark gave his Excellency a good scenes of animation—groups proceeding on some distant excursion or pic-nic, others again directing their course to same particular point of attraction, while others still gave the patlander a cordial smile and bow. premenaded from place to place, attired in staff, represented by the following officers: Such little things win friends among the holiday garb, absorbed in the pleasures Hen. Col. Gray; Celonel Fletcher, Military hearty and loyal, and afford a glance of which the anniversary afforded. The pre- Secretary, A. D. C., formerly attached to the real human nature among all the tinsel sence of the volunteer camp of military dis- Scotch Fusileer Guards; Colonel Macpherson, and pemp of state. We can but re-echo trict No. 3 at the dockyard, Point Frederick, and Colonel Patterson, Private Secretary. The the wish heard on all hands yesterday, that | the contemplated review of the same, and | insection over, the Governor General adjourn. the auspictous beginning made by Lord the reported visit of Lord Dufferin, our ed to the Mess of the Tete de Pont Barracks, Dufferin will centinue to guide his actions, newly appointed Governor-General, besides and there partock of luncheon. and we can assure him that he will leave being objects of the highest importance to Canada, when his time of office expires, the citizens of Kingston, were likewise ob the most popular Governor that has ever | jects of interest to strangers, and the influx presided ever its Council Board, or mingled of foreigners was somewhat remarkable The weather was really delightful-pleasanter could not be desired. The heavons were THE BELLEVILLE "ONTARIO." - The edi clear with the exception of an occasional ter of this paper, smarting under the rub- cloud which floated across the horizon durreturned to the charge, and devotes a co- same brilliancy as it had for days previously ed many of the vast multitude returned to the lumn and a half to our special benefit. It but its sweltering rays were in a measure city for refreshments; while a large properis certainly somewhat astonishing to us the averted by the cooling and refreshing air tion of the people, not desirous of running line of argument he adopts, and after we a brisk wind blew from the south-west ren any risk, which they conceived to be in the have done with him in this issue we shall dering the temperature more tolerable, and preposition to leave the ground composed bid him a long farewell, until he again pro- bringing a gentle and gratifying relief to themselves as patiently and comfortably vakes us by his most unwarranted attacks. | innumerable perspiring and wearied pedes- as circumstances would permit, awaited, with

We must meanwhile beg to inform our con- trians. Towards the middle of the aftercomperary that we have no "infernal hatred" | noon, however, the sky became darkened to him, we only touch him up a little now and | and thunder in the north threatened omin again, and it affords us pleasure to see that | ously a drenching rain, but when the ashe fully appreciates our efforts. He gives sembled masses on Barriefield common were two reasons for the hatred of the publisher in momentary expectation of a severe wet of this paper. First : He says, it is because | ing an inauspicious variation in the pro the publisher has long been known to him gramme -the heavy clouds moved east as Sir John's "Home Secretary." If this ward, and but a few drops of rain decauses any pleasures to the gentleman who scended, to the satisfaction of not a few, nearly doubled. conducts the Ontario he is welcome to it. who felt confident that had their anti-The publisher will always be glad to be capations been realized, the enjoyment to known as Sir John's "Home Secretary," which they looked forward with so much to whom he was severally introduced,

EXCURSIONS As we have already stated the many attractions of Kingston gave a distinguished and noteworthy prominence, and excursions were arranged from several places Whig, that we would not injure the raciness | therete all of which were largely patronized. | twenty-one guns was fired from Fort Henry. of the article by summarizing, but will give The steamers Picton and Rochester ran The different battalions, headed by their to the Pacific, have been united under one the paragraph in full. "Secondly," says from Picton hither. The former, in addition to about three hundred passengers, their usual place on the common, according to The publishers of the Ontario, at the bringing the Fire Brigade of that Town, and regimental number—the Cavalry and Kingston the latter nearly the same number of exour. Field Battery to the left, then the infantry that office to have copies of our regular tele- | sionists. The steamer Pierrepont, pursuant lespatches to transmit to the Kings- to advertisement plied between the City ton Whig, when that Journal, under its and Cape Vincent, carrying hundreds of We pay for all our despatches and Americans from the "border lines" to the do not steal them, as the News asserts from | Canada side, to witness the style of the last ay to day, and as we issue early in the named on this the principal of our mational ernoon, we could not have prevented the | celebrations. That it was befitting and eminion telegraph line from transmitting creditable to the people of this city we entertain not the slightest doubt. It was a he was saluted by the entire force, the bands ing under a heavy burden, was done with. day of seldom occurrence here—such a one playing "Rule Britannia" His Excellency, at fee or reward in any form, and was not as may not again be seen for a long time. accompanied by the staff, then inspected the to sympathise with her, either in national or just to the Montreal Telegraph Company, The steamer Pierrepont also conveyed the line of infantry and squadrons of cavalry and personal trials, and to bear their full share of mrs a daily paper, had not bought the Base Ball Club of Cape Vincent here a, battery, which was apparently productive of what may be required of them as loyal subjects noon, a friendly contest in this game, (ra unqualific I satisfaction. Retiring to a conve-When we drew attention to the rather pidly increasing in popularity) coming off nient part of the field, the troops were march. curious game the Ontario was playing in in the afternoon between them and a team ed past in quarter column, and on the whole eiated by the Volunteers and militia of Canagrought ferward and so the great philan | culated that between 800 and 1,000 werd aroust of the Ontario the friend of inci- temporarily added to the population of the that statement is unquestionably a slan- will ere long secure to you these feelings of than the success which attended his efforts on the matter of the telegrams, the Belleville selected from the Kingston Club. The editor waxed, very wrathy, and denied the steamer Maud brought an excursion from matter in most vehement manner. But he Belleville to this port with about three now finds that it is useless to deny the fact. hundred and fifty persons, so that from in the face of the strong arguments we the Bay of Quinte altegether it is calold limestone city, not to speak of the ar- der, and an unmitigated fabrication, eliciting affection which have been so universally exhibited for the present occasion. In addition to a large the Whig, claims credit from the Kingston rivals by railway and in vehicles from the contempt and censure on the origi-Grits for giving a helping hand. The Whig surrounding villages and adjacent counties. nator. The troops were marched past in open invariably reprints little spiteful paragraph In almost every direction nothing but mev. | column, and the cavalry and artillery subsewhich the Ontario publishes regarding us, ing figures, entertaining views, etc., greet-quently at a trot, each of which movements can only say that it will be their most anxious seekers of the city, glad to exchange its heatthis latest contribution of the "friend of the eye. The steamer Picton left Swifts commended themselves to the admiration of umanity" who delights the Grits of the wharf at half past one o'clock with an ex. the Governor General. Skirmishers were acle country with his disinterested bids cursion for the Thousand Islands, the trip thrown out, and a sham battle fought, the Kingston : down the river was very pleasant and as quadrille band was on board the party en opose to leave him alone. He is joyed the themselves very much. As the dit of only attacking when we are brought down the stay among the islands

THE GOVERNOR GENERAL. It was not until late on Saturday that de naginable. It d'aws such narrow | tinite information was received of the intende between money's visit of the General, and consequent. | tors were read by Adjutant General Ross, ween honesty, and assisting a ly but little opportunity was afforded to make the Governor General making the presentaer, between its regard for its preparations therefor. The City Council on tion. The subjoined are the prizemen of the ne, and its love for the Grit party. Monday morning were hastily summened to 1st Brigade (Capt J. K. Macauley, 47th Batt. od to swring humanity as a homily from adopt an address to His Excellency-and ar- Musketry Instructor); the 2nd Brigade we Whenever the Ontario wants | rangements were hurriedly inaugurated for | will publish to-morrow entle reminders of a certain paper od, and in short no pains were lacking on the Best shot in No. 1 Company, Pt. T. Johntickle him even more than the Holden part of the civic dignitaries, under the enercorrespondence, or his late fit of generosity in supporting the infant struggle of the S. T. Drennan, Esq., to accord all henour and Best shot in No. 2 Company, Sergeant Conley.

S. T. Drennan, Esq., to accord all henour and Best shot in No. 3 Company, Private Wilrespect, and extend a kindly welcome, and Bost shot in No. 4 Company, Sergeant express their universal appreciation and appro-Canther Changes.—It is understood that bation of the appointment of so deserving a Best shot in No. 5 Company, Private W. the Henourable Alexander Morris is to be nobleman to the elevated and responsible Chief Justice of the Queen's Beach in Mani- position of the Chief Executive of this extenthat Mr John O'Connor is to be sive Dominion. The military authorities, too, awarn in as his successor in the Cabinet, and from the earliest intimation of His Excellenefforts to tender him a hearty ovation. It was thought and sincerely hoped that the Best shot in No. 1 Company, Private ! given by the citizens to the military this Best shot in No. 4 Company, Private B evening with his presence; but owing to other Prescott, Montreal, and the Capital, (Ut. tawa), Lord Dufferin was reluctantly obliged to decline. The announcement of his expected arrival here gained currency, and spread in a surprisingly short time throughout the city, so that by the time he reached the Tete du | Best shot in No. 1 Company, Private J. Yesterday, Dominion Day, the anniver- Pont Barracks, men, wemen, and children like other men; they are appreciated just sary of the Confederation of Canada, was thronged the vicinity of the entrance to the Best shot in No. 2 Company, Sergeant G. in preportion as they are known, and it af- appropriately observed, and celebrated in a square, who on the approach of the train signi. Best shot in No. 4 Company, Private A. fords some idea of Lord Dufferin's anxiety more enthusiastic and patriotic spirit than fied their exultation and joyous feelings by to see and be seen, that he has found it his on any similar occasion heretofore. The waving of hats, handkerchiefs etc. His Ex. Best shot in No. 5 Company, Sergeant G. duty, on the fifth day of his presence in observance of this memorable event has in collency left Ottaws at 7 o'clock, and arrived Best shot in No. 6 Company, Privt. St. C. the country, to have put himself to no small the past, been conducted in a hearty and at Prescett Junction shortly before 10 o'clock a.m. Here luncheon was spread, after which from the mast heads of a large fleet of yes. with masterly excution by the Band of the French and Captain Cotton, were drawn up in line facing west, and the Cavalry under the command of Major Boulton facing the east, and after the customary salute, the men, models of neatness and cleanliness were inspected by His Excellency and

> THE REVIEW. Review was to take place, hundreds, yea dress thousands repaired over Cataraqui Bridge, and assumed the most. prominent positions at Barriefield Common with a view to gain a good sight of the movement of a militia force of such strength as that now in camp; the no ordinary display of anxiety, the mustering of the treops.

At two o'clock the crowd of spectators was immense - a crowd rarely, if ever equalled within our recollection. It is estimated that apart, from the volunteers, there were fully five thousand people, (if not more) on the ground. And we believe that were the visit of the Governor General known last week for a certainty, this number would have been

The Governor General lunched at the Dockyard about I o'clock with the militia officers, doing so remarked that they were an exceedingly fine body of men-a credit to their Queen and country. His Excellency likewise visited the camp, and examin ing into every feature minutely, appeared to be well pleased with the way in which it was corps thus : 14th P.W.O. Rifles, 15th Argyle Light Infantry, 16th, 40th, 45th, 46th, 47th,

Colonel Robertson Ross, Adjutant General, Lieut. - Colonel Jarvis, A. A. G., and Command. and of the camp, Lieut. Colonel French, R.A., exhibited excellent pacing and steadiness. It | da, who in the future, as in the past, will be has been maliciously reported that some of the corps did not display proficiency in this The citizens of Kingston sincerely hope that advances and velleys of the infantry, the destructive fusilade of the artillery, and the dashing charge of the cavalry, which by the way are constantly receiving deserved sulogiums, manifesting the beneficial training they have undergone while encamped here Following this came the distribution of prizes to the best shots in the target practices at the butts. The volunteers were formed into square ; the names of the successful competi-

14TH BATTALION P. W.O. RIPLES.

Humo ..... Best shot in No. 6 Company, Private Fo-

15TH BATTALION (Belleville).

Best shot in the regiment, Sergt. Hart, No.

the invitation to honour the Grand Ball to be | Best shot in No. 2 Company, Sergeant matters of urgency requiring his attention at | Best shot in No. 5 Company, Private Shaw 27 Best shot in No. 6 Company, Private Chen-

> 16TH BATTALION (Prince Edward). Best shot in the battalion, Private J. Par-

47TH BATTALION (Frontenac).

ward, which they completed in exactly Best shot in the regiment, Col. Sergeant enter upon any details of his Lordships per the attractions on the tapis. They were of a stoppages. At precisely a quarter to twelve Best shot in No. 1 Company, Sergeant onal appearance, but we can confidently nature suited to the tastes of all classes, and the "special," consisting of the locomotive and Best shot in No. 2 Company, Sergeant J. early hour. From numbers of staffs cars, containing the vice-regal company enter. Best shot in No. 3 Company, Private W. Johnson Best shet in No. 4 Company, Cel. Sergeant

> John Baillie Best shot in No. 7 Company, Private, P.

48TH BATTALION (Lennox and Addington). Best shot in the regiment, Sergt. Loyst, No. 1 Co Best shot in No. 1 Company, Sergeant

Jackson Best shot in No. 3 Company, Private P. A. Best shot in No. 4 Company, Col. Sergeant Best shot in No. 5 Company, Private L.

Best shot in No. 2 Company, Sergeant S.

Best shot in No. 6 Company, Private E.

sumptious in a civilian to address you upon a Militia service.

considered that I have had some training in the duties of the profession as Under-secretary | The Governor was somewhat curious to pay | western Grit journal from an involuntary bing that we gave him a few days ago, has ing the morning; the sun beamed with the till 2 o'clock p.m. Chagrined and disappoint ion upon the magnificent spectacle this day inspection had been postponed three hours of War, I may be allowed to express an opinand regiments, but I was not prepared to see | Col. Corbett had the honour of showing such a splendid body of men, well trained, and not fail to convey to Her Majesty's Governfound impression which I have received from this day's spectacle, so creditable to all the arms of the service represented.

Three hearty cheers were proposed and given for the Governor General; the troops were dismissed and returned to the camp, and Lord Dufferin and suite visited and inspected Fort Henry, where he remained for about half

As 30 o'clock they entered the city, and alighting at the City Buildings, were conduct ed by the Mayor and corporation and the Board to the Hall, and there presented the appended address :

(FROM THE CITY COUNCIL. To His Excellency Earl Dufferin and Clande boye, K.P. & K.C.B., Governor General of Canada, &c., &c., &c.

May it please your Excellency : The Council of the corporation of the city of | score : Kingston, on behalf of the citizens give Your Excellency a hearty welcome, on this your first visit to this city.

They rejoice that Your Excellency enters Shortly after 2 o'cleck a royal salute of upon the duties of your office at so auspicious Dr. Jarvis (Captain) 101110001 an era in the history of this country. Its J. A. Wright various Provinces, reaching from the Atlantic | &. Parkin measure of prosperity and happiness overywhere prevail; our system of Government satisfactory to the people, and we see nothing to envy in the political institutions of any other country whatsoever

In appointing Your Excellency Governor. General of the Dominion of Canada, our Gracious Sovereign has given us another proof of her wise discrimination, in selecting one as Her Representative, who will, we doubt not, use his best efforts to consolidate, develope and wisely govern this important portion Her Empire, so that the happy union which

Our good Queen will always find her Canadian subjects willing and ready, should occa-

Your Excellency's visit to the military camp, assembled here, will be highly apprefound ready to respond promptly to the call respect to the extent expected, notably the the residence of Your Excellency and Lady 14th P. W.O. Rifles. Anyone who closely oh. Dufferin in this country may be agreeable to mammoth pic-nic. If anything were needed served the actions of our city battalien yes- you. They trust you will not consider your. to prove the popularity of the reverend gentleself amongst strangers, as they feel assured bited in the Province of Ireland you have so representation from the rural vicinity the fer-cy's visit on this occasion will be short. They | each trip densely crowded with the pleasure On behalf of the corporation and citizens

S. T. DRHNNAN, Mayor. FLANIGAN, City Clerk. 1st July, 1882.

(FROM THE BOARD OF TRADE.) To His Excellency Earl Dufferin, K.P.

K.C.B., Governor General of Canada, etc. May it please Your Excellency :--The Board of Trade of the City of Kingston beg respectfully to welcome your Excellent to this the great transhipping port of Ontario They respectfully offer to Your Excell the warmest assurance of their lovalty and attachment to the government and person of Her Most Gracious Majesty. From the distinguished antecedents of Your Excellency, the people of Canada have every. "Soft eyes looked leve to eyes that spoke thing to hope from Your Administration the Government of this great country; and it is humbly to be hoped that your official resience in Canada may be characterized peace and happiness, as well the advancement of the mercantile interests of the Dominion. A. LIVINGSTON, President the respective bodies aforesaid, at once.

1st July, 1872. To these addresses His Excellency returned

18 party remounted their horses, and proceeded of their Wolfe Island friends. out King steet on a cursory visit and inspec. of the Kingston Penitentiary and Rockwood The farewell concert of Professor T. H gallant colonel is looking well and received 29 Asylum, thus obtaining a splendid view of the Smith, held in the evening in the City Hall, the congratulations of numerous friends on the picturesque private residences en route. Return | was well attended, and as in the case of all | the parade grounds yesterday. as | ing from these places of interest in the even. | previous entertainments given under his maning the Governor General and attaches were agement it was very successful, and was, we 38 | the concert of Professor T. H. Smith by the | leading talent of the city was secured, and it | building fund of St. Paul's Church will

30 morning at 6 o'clock were escorted by a siastic encores. We wish Professor Smith on hand in abundance, to refresh the visitors, band, a guard of honour, the Mayer, Lieut. - prosperity in his new sphere of labour. Colonel French, R. A., etc. to the St. Law-25 rence wharf, and sailed on the Reyal Mail steamer Corsican for Prescott, a salute of, Points. seventeen guns being fired from Fort Henry. drill having expired, the camp will break up, The Governor General will be joined at Pres. and the men so employed, thoroughly brenzed 50 cott by Lady Dufferin, and an inspection made and somewhat wearied of tenting out, will re derstood that His Excellency is not disposed of the camp stationed at that place. The turn rejeicing to their homes. It seems that to make Ottawa his only residence, but that citizens will also present His Excellency with now, when the volunteers have become accus- he is inclined to reside part of the year at 22 addresses; thence they go to Montreal tomed to the exercises in which they have Quebec and Montreal. He will go West in a next where an enthusiastic reception is await. been severely trained recently, they should be few days, and so also will Sir John Macdon-

ed; and his unaffected gentlemanly manners aspect lately, will be greatly missed in King- magnificent harbour contemplates spending a 50 and affability were the subject of much comment ston. Me conversed fluently and gracefully with all who came in contact with him-and these | ceedings which, in the present orderly and 29 prominent traits of character went far to fav. quiet state of the camp, is merely routineourably impress the expectant public with his nothing of unusual interest. mien and disposition. The shortness of his stay was a matter of much regret; but it is on Barriefield Common, and were inspected earnestly trusted that circumstances may per- by the Governor General, Lord Dufferin, the he has a large supply constantly on hand. We 45 mit of a second visit at no distant day. It is Adjutant General of Militia, and staff, mencertain that his principal object on this oc- tion of which is made elsewhere. casion was to personally see the modus operand; of camp life, to ascertain the status of this in. | again marched to church; the Episcopalians dispensable portion of Canada's defensive at 7 o'clock; the Roman Catholics at 8 a.m. 37 power, and we can readily conceive the gratifi. | the Presbyterians at 8:30 o'clock : and the cation it afforded him; he might travel many Methodists at 9:30 o'clock, the bands accom miles before he could behold a collection of panying the several parties across the bridge, 32 healthier, tidier and better disciplined body of being instructed to discontinue the music at After the distribution of prizes had taken | volunteers, taking into account the brief season | the entrance to the city. Unaware of the time at which the Military place, Lord Dufferin made the following ad- they have been under military instruction. It redounds to the credit of these men, and they Battery, acted as Field Officer yesterday, and Col. Ross, Col. Jarvis and Officers of the should consider it a question of indisputable Major Leigh, 57th Battalion, to-day; medical Brigades, It might appear somewhat pre- pride so long as they are connected with the efficer to-day, Dr. Burdett, 15th Battalion.

THE STONE SHIP.

a visit to the stone ship, the fame of it b reached his cars, and he was desirous of making Country of the proficiency of your brigades | himself more particularly acquainted with it. Excellency over the ship and explaining its I shall | history to which he listened with courteons at

BASE BALL MATCH. In the afternoon at 2 o'clock a base ball match was played on the Cricket Ground be tween nine of the St. Lawrence Club (Kingston) and nine from the Ontario Club (Cape Vincent). The game was interesting, and notwithstanding the many other attractions. the city, was witnessed by a large number of spectators, among whom many Americans were noticeable. The St. Lawrence Club through practice, had become tolerably pro. ticient, and presented a formidable team to enter the contest; but in challenging Cape Vincent they were not aware, that it included Watertown, and indeed it was not a little surprising to learn that the majority of their rivals were "crack" players of the latter town The defeat they sustained, however, was very trifling, as will be observed by the appended

> ST. LAWRENCE. 123456789 001111000 10010000 00111000 00011000 00010000

> > 000000000

000000010

000110000 ONTARIO CLUB.

203751015 24 Innings. Smith (Capt.) 1 1 0 0 0 1 0 0 1 10000000 000101001 010000001 L. Borland 110,0,00000 Baldwin 01000011 P. Townseard Harbottle 010000011 471102227 26

Scorer for Ontario Club, Mr W. G. Oliver scorer for St. 'Lawrence Club, Mr Boyden

Umpire, Mr D. Cooper, Cape Vincent.

PIC-NIC AT HITCHCOCK S GROVE. This well known and beautiful grove was resterday the scene of a very large, gay and festive gathering of the youth and beauty of both sexes on the occasion of Father Murray's The corporation regret that Your Excellen- ry boat which crossed almost hourly was at desire to make it as agreeable as possible to ed pont up gases for the pure cooling and re. freshing breezes of the Island. Here all was innocent mirth and varied recreation; here citizen and rustic were agreeably intermingled

> "In sweet confusion sought the shade, "These dear levely bowers of innecence an "Seats of the youth where every sport could here the love sick swain poured into the wil- violence to the prisoner. The evidence was ling ear of his ruddy cheeked, cherry-lipped sweetheart "the unpremeditated lays" of sent up for trial. Mr McIntyre, his connsel, love and visions of future and eternal bliss will apply for his liberation on bail. expanded themselves with all the vividness of reality before their excited imaginations. "And as music arose with its voluptuous

"And all went merry as a marriage bell." The amusements were abundant and various - athletic, saltatory and unsaltatory. Mont gomery was there with his "inimitable"

"Many a pastime frolicked in the shade. The young contending while the old surveyed." 40 written address; but that on his return to the place being taken by those cooling and exhile Camp, Col. Hamilton Gray, &c., &c., is capital, they would receive his earnest atten. rating beverages 'that cheer but not ine tion, and a suitable reply will be forwarded to briste."

The aldermen and members of the Board of the Kingstonians to their homes, and all ap- days prior to his contemplated visit to the old 37 Trade were introduced to His Excellency, and | peared well satisfied with their day's amuse | country.

then, amid loud and prolonged cheering, the | ment and gratefully mindful of the hospitality

PROFESSOR SMITH'S CONCERT.

The Kingston Camp.

On Thursday next, the sixteen days' annual | evening. dispersed; and the absence of large a body of ald. We have heard that His Excellency. The Governor was plainly yet neatly dress. | men, who have given the city quite a lively struck by the beauty of Kingston, and its

There is nothing unusual in the daily pro- | yachting and fishing.

The Division paraded yesterday at 2 o'clock

On Sunday the different religious bodies

Lieut. -Colonel Kirkpatrick, Kingston Field One little incident worthy of note was the narrow escape of a certain correspondent of swim or perchance something more serious. His strictures on the appearance of the 14th P. W. O. Rifles and other battalions, when on parade at the Adjutant General's inspection. were positively unmerited; and these misre. presentations so aroused the ire of the men thus alluded to, that on the visit of the correspondent the following evening he was of liged hastily quit the presence of a bevy of young ladies and animate his movements-to a speed unfrequently attained-and even then he would have doubtless received rough hand, ling had it not been for the timely interference of the guards. That correspondent has described the camp since.

Another cavalry horse died yesterday. The government makes good the loss.

Police Court-Tuesday.

(BEFORE MR STRANGE, P. M. John Cook, Lewis Kinnis and Jane Taylor. each in the sum of $2 or 15 days limbe.

John Clancy, who has recently become an inveterate drunkard and unmitigated scoundrel, a constant dread of his father and the bane of the police, was fined $2 or 20 days. Mary Phillips, new candidate for magisterial honors, went up for 30 days in default of paying a fine of $2, for vagrancy. James Butler, for larcency, stealing a pair | game. pants-was dismissed, the complainant

John Harris not appearing to prosecute. STABBING CASE. John Lynn, a young man of rather respectable appearance, was placed in the dock on a charge of stabbing with intent. It appears he had been on a visit to the camp on Sunday afternoon, and got in an altercation with one Kirk a private in the 49th Battalion. The quarrel was temporarily quieted however, by the prisoner inviting his opponent to accept of a drink which they partock of at the canteen of the 45th Battalion; but no sooner had they when angry language was again resorted to, and appointments, viz:in a few moments the excited twain got them. Governor of the Province of Nova Scotia, selves for a pugilistic encounter. Joseph to be his deputy for signing Marriage Ogden and William Hodge, privates attached | Licenses in the said Province. to the 45th Battalien testified that blows were dealt—the prisoner striking first. While thus | ner of the Province of New Brunswick, to engaged in "skirmishing" private Ogden seen | be his deputy for signing Marriage Licenses the prisoner pick up an open jack knife, and in the said Province. at once rushed towards him to wrench it from Governor of the Province of Manitoba, to cinity of the fracas lost no time in repairing to in the said Province. the scene of the conflict, and several it is said started in pursuit of Lynn. Kirk is stated to nor of the Province of British Columbia, have received a flesh wound, and the prisoner becoming cornered stabbed Ogden in the left and shirt, and entering near the jugular vein, licenses in the Province of Ontario. though the injuries sustained were not of a ing which some lustily demanded, ran tewards the lake and plunged into the water, amid repeated volleys of stones. The prisoner w small boat into which he had clamered for the Geyerner-General of Canada. safety, and surrendered himself to the guard who took him into custody. Sergeant Nu- tobe Military Secretary. gent and P. C. Stacey subsequently arrested Lynn, but whilst on his way to the city the Lieutenant Frederick C. B. Coulson, 60th officers had considerable difficulty in prevent. Rifles, to be Aide-de-Camp. ing the Volunteers from committing personal conclusive for the presecution, and Lynn was

. The Honourable Alexander Campbell P. M G. left town this afternoon for Ottawa, tend a meeting of the Cabinet. We understand that he may be expected back in a few

His Excellency was met below the station | General of Canada. oy Mr W. B. Simpson, collector of customs, Mr. Blake has accepted a nomination as Mr R. W. Barker, Post Office Inspector, and candidate for the representation of South Mr Shannon of the Daily News, who were Bruce, in the house of Commons. presented to His Excellency by Col. Robert. Great consternation has been caused at Exhis thanks in appropriate terms. He stated Everything passed off very quietly, thanks son Ross, A. G., accompanying Lord Dufferin, mouth by the elopement of a very young lady that since his arrival here he had been so oc. doubtless to the fact that no intoxicating were Col. F. Fletcher, Military Secretary, family with a half-pay military officer, who cupied as not to be able to draft a formal and liquors were allowed on the grounds, their Col. Macpherson, Lieut. Coulson, Aid-de- has left a wife and family.

> The Rev. Dr. Bedford Jones, of St. Albans, The ferry boat made three trips to recenvey Ottawa, is at Hatwood rusticating for a few Rector of St. John's Church, Mr A. M.

PERSONAL .- Col. Paton of the Bank of British North America is in town for a couple of weeks holidays on a visit to his friends, the

STPAWBERRY FESTIVAL .- We presume it is Turnished with elegant quarters in the British | believe, pr ductive of satisfaction to those who | searcely necessary to remind our readers that American Hotel, and were serenaded prior to had the pleasure of being in attendance. The the great strawberry festival in aid of the efficient band of the 46th Battalion, (Port is needless for us to state that the variou take place at the City Hall to-morrow Hope). The Governor General later in the contributors readered their schoolses with ad. (Wednesday) and from what we hear promises 29 evening dined with the Hon. A. Campbell. | mirable taste, and were in every instance ap- to be a great success. Delicious strawberries They remained here all night and this platfied; some of the pieces eliciting enthu- and cream, ice cream, and soda water will be and handsome needlework and other varieties. An excellent mode of raising strawberries is to go to the festival at the City Hall to morrow

> An Ottawa correspondent says :- It is unpart of his time here and enjoying himself

> STRAWBERRIES .- Mr H. Gore, of London, advertises that all parties wishing to get strawberries for preserving, from ten to eleven cents per quart, should call on him at once, as would be glad to hear Mr Town, Mr Dumble. Mr Smith, "or any other man" in Kingston advertise strawberries at ten cents a quart. We would certainly "call on him."

CHILD FOUND. - On Saturday afternoon some parties in crossing the common on the northeast end of the city, discovered what appeared to be a newly made grave, and on examination the remains of a child, far advanced in decomposition, were found enclosed in a raisin box, a few inches beneath the sur. face The police authorities were notified of the fact, and steps were taken to have the body removed to the dead house. The coroner was informed of the circumstances; but on investigation there seemed to exist no suspicions of foul play, and the child was ordered to be properly buried.

ANOTHER CASE OF STABBING .- Last evening between seven and eight o'clock quite an excitement was created in the vicinity of Griffin's Hotel, Ontario street, by the statement that another man had been wounded by some sharp instrument. From enquiries we learned that certain Americans and Canadian sailors became involved in a wrangle; words led to blows, and in the melce one of the former was cut in the thigh by the use of a jack-knife. No arrests were made; the combatants were pacified without the interference of the police.

ARRESTED .- One John McGrody (a volunteer) was arrested at the camp on Saturday by Detective McAuley and the Chief of Police of Napance, on a charge of arson and killing a cow, committed in the County of Addington some months ago. At the time he committed (alias True Blue,) for drunkenness, were fined | the offence he cleared out; but the authorities getting wind of his whereabouts, arrested him He was attached to the 47th

CRICKET. - The officers of the 40th and 46th Battalions played a match on Saturday afternoon against a team selected from the remainder of the brigade, which resulted in a draw

We have received a letter concerning the Globe reporter and the volunteers which is unavoidably crowded out to-day.

REMINDERS. Grand ball this evening in the City Hall. Early closing of Grocery and Dry Goods stores commencing this evening.

Strawberry festival in the City Hall to-mor-

APPOINTMENTS. His Excellency the Governor General swallowed the beverage in apparent friendship, has been pleased to make the following

Henerable A. Wilmot, Lieutenant Gover-

his grasp. The occupants of tents in the vi- be his Deputy for signing Marriage Licenses Honorable J. W. Trutch, Lieutenant Gov-

to be his Deputy for signing Marriage licenses in the said Province. side of the neck, cutting the coat collar, vest to be his deputy, for signing marriage

Messer. William H. Lee, Etienne Parent. serious nature. The excitement at this event and William A. Himsworth of Ottawa, to was intense, and the prisoner to escape lynch. be his deputies for signing money warrants Mr. George Matson, of the City of Halifax. to be a Proventive Officer in Her. Majesty's Lieutenant-Colonel Henry C. Fletcher, afterwards persuaded to come ashore in Scots Fusilier Guards, to be Secretary of Lieutenant-Colonel Henry C. Fletcher.

Mr Jacob L. Pattison to be Private Sec-

Father Point, July 1.—The steamship Niger arrived at 2:15 p.m.

Quebec, July 1 .- The steamship Nestorian arrived at 10 a.m. with 35 cabin, 42 intermediate, and 360 steerage passengers. There is a rumour in London that Miss Nellie Grant is engaged to be married to a

It is rumoured that Mr Gladstone has determined to appoint Mr Thomas M'Clure, M.P., Vice-Lieutenant of the county Down, in the absence of Lord Dufferin as Governor

MARRIED. At Cape Vincent, N.Y., on the morning of Simmons, of Watertown, N.Y., to Miss Tean

Wishart, of Portsmouth, Ontario, Canada.