From thence he intended advancing on Ujiji, but found terrible difficulties in the way. Minambo, King of Ujowa, declared that no caravan should pass Ujiji except over his body. The Arabs declared war and Johnston, of Ballykilbeg, on board. anticapated victory. I gave assistance the first day in concert with the Arabs, attacked two villages, and expirred, killed and drove away the inhabitants. On the second day I caught the fever. On the third day the Arabs were ambushed and scouted with terrificslaughter. On the fourth day there was a general desertion of the arabs, and my own were death was certain and frightened my followers. Shaw deserted, but I nevertheless pushed forward over the untrodden desert for four hundred miles and reached the suburbs of Ujiji, which I entered, firing guns and carrying the American flag at the head of the procession. The astonished natives flocked out in great crowds with deafening shouts. I noticed in the centre of the group of Araba, strongly contrasting of calmness before the Arabs. I enquired law granting $20,000 to it. of Dr. Livingstone, I presume the smiling, yes he informed me that he started in March 1866, with twelve sepoys, nine joanna men, and seven liberated slaves He travelled up the bank of the Rovuma. His men got frightened, deserted, and reported Livingstone dead as an excuse for desertion. He crossed the Chambezi, and twenty-six hundred miles. It has not supplied the Fanjanquika.
