MURDER AT ST. THOMAS. On Saturday night about ten o'clock, Henry Fitzsiummons and Henry Lipsey, two Southwold roughs, made a murderous assault on Henry Neinham, the well-known old Indian Doctor of Oneida town, from the effects of which he died yesterday afternoon. It appears that Dr Neinham had been on a professional visit to some members of his tribe camping in Dorchester and was returning home

the County of Lennox and Addington.

somewhat late in the day, he spent a few hours around town, and about 9 o'clock went engine exploded, causing the death of two the habit of staying, when overtaken with lots persons and the demolition of the station night. Mrs Mitchell noticed him walking street. The lots are the most eligible in backward and forward under the verandah of town. the house, and shortly afterwards saw Fitz immons and Lipsey trying to get into Luxon's Hotel, on the opposite side of the street. Both appeared to be drunk and on being refused admittance, they started across to the dian and roughly ordered him away. He left, but had only gone a few feet when they called on him to come back. This he refused to do, picked up a bag containing a new axe which a neighbour had left there a short time before, and both started in pursuit. The old doctor was overtaken within three rods of the house, and felled to the ground with a blow of the axe. He was then kicked and pounded in a frightful manner, and before kelp could come Fitzsimmons and Lipsey had fled to their waggons and driven off. Dr Van Buskirk was sent for and dressed the wounds. There were three bad scalp wounds near the top of the head, and another over the right car, from which the blood was flowing a heavy stream. The ground for several feet around was drenched with blood. After being dressed Neinham was removed to Mitchell's house, where he remained in a state of coma till death.
