Arrangements are being made for a grand ball to be given by the Governor-General and Lady Dufferin in the Chamber of the Legislative Assembly some day this week. The Toronto Mail asks whether the Local Administration cannot also avail themselves of their Excellencies' presence at the seat of Government to do them an honour, that our prosperous people would be the last to grudge them. No previous Governor-General has of his own means courted the good epinions of the people of Ontario with the open-hand liberality that distinguishes the new regime, and we hope our people will be allowed to make the partial return that it is within the function of their Government to organize on their behalf.
