Temperance Meeting in Battersca The second of the series of temperance meetings now being held in this interesting village came off on Tuesday evening in the Wes leyan Methodist Church. A marked improve ment was noticeable in the attendance-a very good sign-the spacious edifice being well filled with eager listeners. Mr J. Hughes was called to the chair. The chairman, though unexpectedly called to that position, made some very seasonable remarks, and then called upon the Rev. Mr Chambers, of Sunbury, to Nevada left Port Colborne; but came by open the meeting, which was done by singing. reading portions of Scripture and prayer. The chairman then called upon Mr Christopher Vanluven, who began by relating one of his was next called to address the meeting, but as the Rev. T. S.
