I ou a office corner of & mg and William ROBBIST SHAW,

Money to Loan on Real Estate.

SMITTER & DICKSON.

HOROSOPATHY.

H. J. SAUNDERS, M.D. LEUBER OF THE ROYAL COLLEGE.

REsidence-Weilington Street, half way Det ween William and Earl Streets.
OFFICE-At Dr. Yates Surgery. J. H. CLARK, M.D., D.D.S., L.D.S.

Graduate of New York College of Dentistry. Office-Wellington Street, between Princess and Brock Streets. Particular attention Paid to the preservation of the teeth. Kingston, Feb 5th, 1879.

FORD & SONS Taninery KINGSTON, ONTARIO.

JAMES REID. Oabinet Maker, Upholsterer and Undertaker, Street Princess

KINGSTON kinds of COFFINS, CASKETS, SHKOUDS A NEW HEARSE, the best in the city,

ONTARIO

OFFICE-WELLINGTON STREET

Subscribed Capital, $250,000 Savings Bank open daily from 10 a.m. to 3 m. Interest allowed on deposits.

Lean Department-Money advanced on the security of Farm or City Property. For further information apply to JAS. MeaRTHUR, May 8th, 1879.

ESTABLISHED 1862. 60 PRINCESS ST.

Steam Dyer. June 23; 7 79 LADIES

New Styles for

LAMPS,

LAMPS

THE LARGEST ASSORTMENT OF BRONZE and GLASS LAMPS

in the City at ROBERTSON BROS.

New Creekery Store, next door to Messrs, sert and Dinner Sets.

PRESBYTERIAN).

RE-OFENS

For which apply to

Ottown, Unly 25tn

No. 262

DIRECT from LONDON

Latest Shapes. Lowest Prices.

cotch Knitted Caps in great variety.

Carefully filled. Now is the time to attend to

Ladies' S.S. or Persian Lamb CLARK WRIGHT,

Wellington Street.

REAL ESTATE ACENCY.

HE undersigned has opened an office at No. 134. Princess Street, for the sale and ng Leases of the same, Buying and celling Mortgages, and scenring loans on Real Esing Farms, Lets, Houses, &co., to sell or let, and list of which will be made and kept on JOHN FRASER

FOR SALE.

LARGE HOUSE in one of the best le calities in the city with Lawn, Garden.

FOR SALE OR TO LET.

A STONE HOUSE on Johnston Street: the property of 2 rof. Mowat. Both Houses are Severa. Farms in the County for sale.

Ringscon, Oct. 10th, 1879.

HOT

HEATING SPECIALTY

For comfort and economy in heating your dwelling use Hot Water or Steam, and em-

Practical Steam Fitters, to do it. Perfect an .

MCKELVEY & BIRCH, Brock Street,

SASH

Steam Dye Works. Everything in the line of Wooden Building

LUMBER YARD, LARD and SOFT EELT HATS Renovated KINGSTON.

traves, Brackets, Mouldings, Newels, Balus-Battens (dressed and rough) Furring, Lath

J. B. BENSON.

Shingles, Feace Posts, Mill Wood, Pickets,

NOW OFFERS.

Which he is prepared to make up in the most taining five Rooms and a Kitchen each; good Yard and Cellars.

Sept. 18th, 1879,

A Stone Dwelling on the North side of Princes. 230 and 262 on Harrie, near Earl Street, con-A Stone Dwelling on the North side of Prin-Lot 66 x 120; 6 Rooms -Kitchen, Cellar, Well

Rough Cast Cottage, North side Pine street; Let 50 x 260; 5 Rooms—Kitchen Good Gar-Two Storey Stone House on O'Kill street, facing the General Hospital; 10 Reo ms - Fard Shed, Coach House, Stable. Lot on Stuart street, near the Park, 45 x

Tenement House and Brick Cottage; Lot 84 x S. C. McGILL, Oct. 11th 1879,

WALNUTS,

BRAZIL NUTS. FILBERTS, New Layer Raisins,

Oct. 31st, 1879,

WAREHOUSE.

purchasing their winter supply,

AT FORMER PRICES, In 5 lb. and 10 lb Catties.

OAT MEAL. SUGAR CURED HAMS AT PARKHILLS

Victoria Warehouses Princess Street

FOR WINTER CULTURE,

GRAVITY,

Selected with the greatest care; are sound and good and are certain to flewer freely. HYACINTHS, various shades, double and single. CROCUS, choice varieties. double and single.

SNOWDROP, double and single JUST RECEIVED.

-- AT--PHARMACY. HEATH & GUNN'S,

185 P. mcess Street. Oct. 18th, 1879.

Call and see the Crown Jewel Revertible Flue HALL AND PARLOR HEATING STOVE. the most successful Stove sold. Every Stove guaranteed. Also the Crowning Glory Wood Cook

With large portable planished copper Reservoir; combines more important features than any other Reservoir Cooking Stove, and is the only low portable Reservoir Cooking Stove in the world with warming oven under the fire.

WM. DUNIN. PRINCESS STREET.

Isaac David.

BROKER.

NEW and Second Hand Goods of all de seriptions bought and sold AT CHEAP JACK'S. The Cooper Business is still going on AT CHEAP JACK'S. For Sale-A good Cider Mill and a lot

AT ISAAC DAVID'S. One Spring Waggon, one Spring Truck, AT CHEAP JACK'S. Cooper Work made and Repaired. Saws

ISAAC DAVID, General Broker, opposite Parkhill's, Princess Street, Kingston. Kns n August 22nd 1879.

FUR TRIMMINGS

AT MILLS BROS.

Ladies' Caps, Muffs and Setts in Sacques in Astrachan, Baltic Seal. &c., on hand and made to order.

Corner Princess and Bagot Streets.

HARDWARE

Agents for

WERS AND REAPERS

GRAIN DRILLS Princess St.

GOOD accommodation for a number of nearders at Mrs. Thomas Conley's, Mon real Street, between Princess and Queen.

RECOGNIZED IN ALL MARKETS AS THE.

EXCELLENCE

ABSOLUTE PURITY, and

POLYANTHUS NARCISSUS, GUARANTEE OF

-WITH FULL-

THE BEST IS THE CHEAPEST.

Ask for "SILVER STAR" and take no other: See that our name is on each package. We are the only Manufacturers of the PATENT TIN CANS,

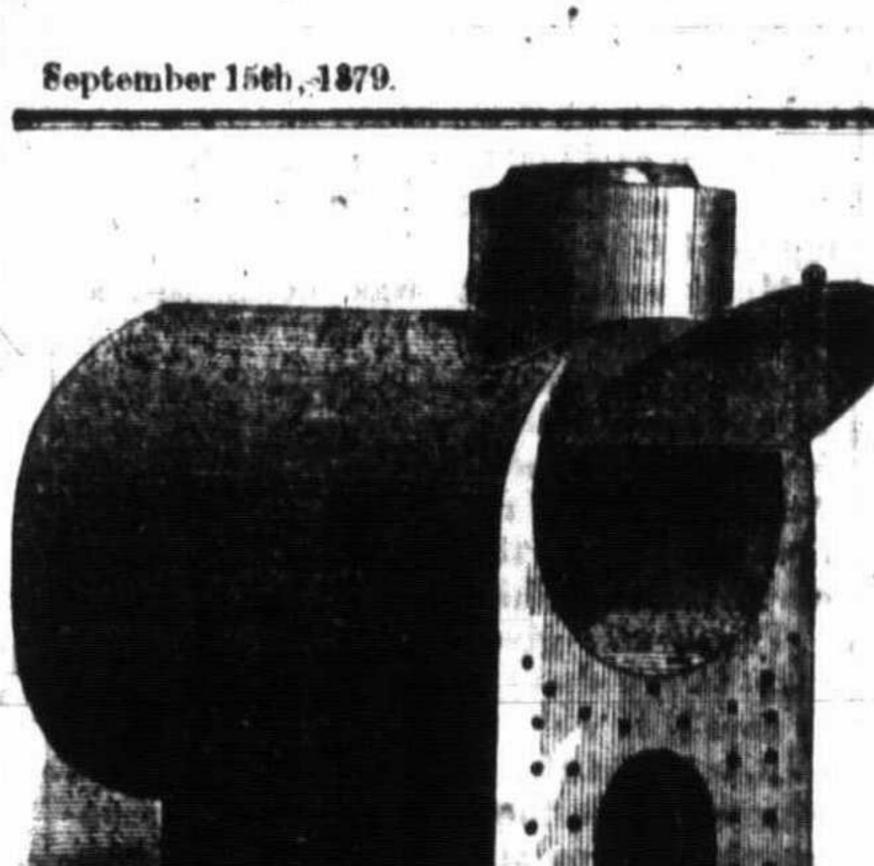

And are prepared to supply the Trade with our brands of STOVES, STOVES, Illuminating and Lubricating OILS.

> IN BARRELS OR IN PATENT TIN CANS. correspondence Solicited. All orders shall receive our best attention J. L. ENGLEHART & CO.,

> Producers, Refiners and Shippers, Petrolia, Ontario, Canada.

> > Queen Street.

FITZGIBBON'S

The undersigned are the sole agents in the Dominion for the manufacture and sale of the above mentioned Boiler.

O. MCEWEN & SON1 Machine, Engine and Boiler Makere! Sept. 17th, 1879.

ROCEVELL BROS'.

Remember that we are saving a great sale of New Goods, which are going at prices t BROS Opposite Albion Hotel, Princess Street, Kingston.

> ROSS ROOMS.

Is also replete with New and Elegantly Ornamented Jackets. Call and inspect these Goods Ladies, if you want satisfaction for your money.

for Manufacturers, Mechanics will find one on the late "Garrett Property King Street West. These Lots have the great where there is a good depth of water for reed en Gordon and Stuart Streets are a number of desirable BUILDING LOTS, which will be sold at a bargain to Mechanica

Still at the old prices. A large Stock of Garden and Field Tools just to hand. Special insucements in Builders' Hardware. Sole for printed instructions.

WASHING

HENRY GRIST.

MRS. WILLIAMS.

(38 and 39 Vic., Ch. 63.) COLMAN'S

GENUINE MUSTARD

Brand of really Genuine Mustard I have yet Reeping Properties to the mixed condiments thickness.

ASK FOR COLMAN'S, IN SQUARE Customers. November 1st, 1879.

SIMMONDS, Princess St.

AND FOCAL MUSIC

J. SMITO,

CTORIA PETROLEUMI CATARRE THE EYE, EAR and THROAT SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE

INVALUABLE.

VOLTAIC PLASTER

ALWAYS CURES.

Enlarged Spleen. J. W. SELLS. PICKERING, Mo., June 28, 1877.

Severe Pain. WINONA, MINN., June 19, 1877. Weaknesses.

BRYANT, ILL., June 16, 1877. Price, 25 Cents. The careful to obtain Collins' Voltate Plas-The, a combination of Electric and Voltate Plates, with a highly Medicated Plaster, as seen in the above cut. Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Drug-

sists throughout the United States and Canadas, and by WEERS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, A Model is now on view at their office LAND

TO LET. A three storey Stone D welling on the West side of Barrie street, between Johnson and Brock streets. A Brick Dwelling on Bagot street. The premies on Clarence street, oppos t the Custom House, lately occupied as auctirooms and billiard parlor. Will be learer either together or separately. A Stone Dwelling on South side of Orduance street, above Sydenham street; twelve roo. cluding Kitchen on main floor in real.go Cellar, Well and Fruit Garden. A two storey Dwelling on Sydenham street. A new Frame Dwelling on West side of Victoria street, south of Princess street; besides Kitchen; rental $4.50 per East corner of Wellington and Queen stree: s A two storey Brick Dwelling on Wellington street, between Wilham and Earl streets. J. P. GILDERSLEEVE 42 Clarence Street, Kingston.

A three storey Brick Shop and Dwelling on Note. Paper and Envelvopes, Plain and Fancy; all kinds of Students' Note Books in limp and stiff covers.

Hand painted Christmas Cards Bristol Board all styles and New Books as issued from time to time. All goods sold at lowest rates and special discounts for to Students. S. WOODS.

ARRIVING AT THE BAZAAR Large Barrels.

REES BROS.

ife has a burden for every man's shoulder. iss it in youth, and 'swill come when we'r

And fit us as close as the garments we wear Lovers grow cold and friendships are slighted Yet somehow or other we worry along.

Everyday toil is everyday blessing. Though poverty's cottage and crust we may Weak is the back on which burdens are press. by prayer.

Hope in the heart makes the burden seem And, somebow or other, we get to the end, ONE SUMMER'S HARVEST.

by their jetty lashes, eager and expect. white an unacknowledged resolve cante ant, the red lips curling in a glad happy into his heart that it should not yet be smile as her ear catches the far off echo | too late. of a well known step; and one reads Never, never was Ethel Mayne as ravagain the old, old story which seems shingly, as dangerously lovely, as when

Yet Ethel Mayne warnot one to wear | Was this, indeed, the girl, he asked her heart upon her sleeve; but neither himself, from whom he had parted scarce Ernest Melwood lived his thirty six months ago; who, with an air of quiet ears in vain. A month before, fortified self possession, almost haughtmess, touchy a letter of introduction to the squire, ed and dropped his outstretched nand, as one of his father a college friends, who, she sank into a finieur, with all her old buried hin self in this country life, he l'ints is almost an unexpected pleasure, had con among them to regain strength. Mr. Melwood, as I hardly hoped the or recover from a severe fever whose pressure of your engagements would pervictim he had well-nigh become. mit a personal answer to my summons. He best been a good by Mr. Mayne In fact, I scarcely know why I sent for with cour sous bespitality, and when his you, save that I was alone this evening

festion far from the city's din, all thoughts of ennui and congtry duliness potent than nother's command. In-So the days went on, scarce noted by pressing, you would still have seen me he man of the world, watching this new | here. yet old development of a girl's heart ; to her, passing with the swiftness of broken! Isit not so? It one suffers the sweetnes of his smiles. Ah, the old story again ! ittle violet, which had shed its rich per- | thing now-a-days.' fume at his feet, as well as the priceless exotic which, when the leaves had turned | ties, but, to those who have lived in the to brown, he was to call for his own? So a subtle sweetness crept into his a summer's night, I hardly think artione his eyes grew strangely soft, as ficial mea is would be the same." drawing near he clasped the tiny hand laid so confidingly in his own, and looked with taith untarnished in a future. But

'Were you waiting for me, Ethel !'

'Ah, Ernest, the days are long with- ing its surface, leaving you suddenly in utter darkness. By-the-way, Mr. Mel-'What will you do when I have gone? 'Gone !' And the color died out of her cheek and lips, leaving an ash paleness as she said, with a faint smile, 'You | trembled as he asked the question. are playing with me, Ernest. You would wherever I go. But you are coming back! You are late him upon his gain, even though it not going for long ! 'I trust not.

that day from his betrothed. heiress whose hand he considered essen-

born different fruit. Ethel Mayne to be his wife; but in her has proved the one drop of water to young trusting inn scence, when from her quench my burning thirst. In the purlips, he had snatched their first sweetness, gatory my life has been since those golden while her ears caught his vows of love, summer nights. Sometimes in my dreams, in the singular fascination of his presence I have seen the lovelight in your eye, and the keen subtlety of his words, she or felt the fouch of your hand fall like had no other thought, and she now | velvet on my arm, have heard your voice looked in his face with a wondering filling my room with music, have even besitancy, while a hand of iron seemed touched your pure red lips with my unclutching at her heart.

he tone new to the man's ear-new to | death in this life ! herself but born of her suffering. you going back to forget me! If so I can stood in his eyes as he lifted them to her 'Forget you, darling! Forget the lit tle violet whose witching sweetness has lent my summer all its charm? . No, no! your rehearsal of any part with herself as

You will write to me?' world to which you return; but why have pitied me. Base, unworthy as should I fear, and you so brave, so true? | am, I speak the truth now. Why-why me, whatever comes, there is naught on | spurn me thus | Ethel, it is not yet too earth I have ever loved so well.

And for once in his false life the man poke the truth. to Ethel Mayne had seemed years. The a love that thought darkness light when promised letters had been strangely cold, you shared it; love ou as now I loathe turn till expectancy died away, and perjured lips, back to the girl who has when with a strange prescience of future | won so rare a prize in life's lottery, and reply there came one more tender, more a country sojourn-no less a plaything pressing, "he detected the false ring in than a woman's heart-tell her your hand its pages, and was silent.

loveliness had taken society by storm. of perishable flowers; but had you trusted To no wish had her doting father said no. | them I would have made them of presand in the beautiful home he had pro- cious stones. Forgive you? For what accessories of toilet he had given her with | and worldly lust ? For showing me the Old prices and usual discounts avish hand, she shone forth peerless.

ference to all things. Yet coldness gives | Philip Vaugh's side and took upon her-daughter of L. D. Anstay, Eeq., is shortly to be led to the altar by Mr. Ernest the city, but she had invariably refused

A rumor of this half reached her - a rumor now confirmed -by which had told her that the engagement that existed even in haleyon days he had caused her heart's This was all, and what to her had his eyes but painted tints, to be washed Should she ever weep again !

war is? Was he worth its falling! No, " thousand times, no! And a scornful smile played round the beautiful mouth, as drawing her escritoire towards her, she put into execution a sudden determination, and penned the fol-

'My Dear Mr. Melwood -I was very sorry to have been so engaged when you last called that I was obliged to deny my self the pleasure of meeting you. evening I shall be at home and alone and if you have no other engagement. I shall hope to see you.

·ETHEL MAYNE. The look of astonishment which overspread Exrnest Melwood's handsome face grew into a triumphant smile as he refold at the dainty note; with the crest he had nstantiprecognized upon the seal, placing it carefully within an inner pocket. rand registered the determination to break all other engagements and renew his sum-

The woman he was to marry had never found her way into those depths that Ethel Mayne's blue eyes had penetrated, for as he could love he had loved her. He little thought that in her young beauty and loving woman's nature, she could have offered him a far richer dower than that for which he bartered his manhood and his noble better self. Her heiress-ship had been all unknown to him until lately rumors of her father's wealth had reached him-rumers which their lumurious lavish style of living prov-A sinking sun-a girl stantling at the ed truth-and as he ascended the steps 'u l suse gate, bathed in the sun's dy- of their elegant mansion at the appoint-; the deep blue eyes, fringed ed time he bit his lips in inward rage, so new, to every heart that learns its she entered her father's arawing rooms that night to greet her recreant lever.

daughter was formally presented, when and having somewhat a dread of ennin. first his eyes dwelt upon the wonderful thought, perhaps, you would break its beauty which helefoung into such per potent spell. Your request, Miss Mayne, was more deed, had my engagements been far more

'Ab, engagements are made but to be thought, in listening to the melody of other goes unscathed, and I do not much one voice, and drinking in the dangerous | believe in suffering as the world is to-day. If we cry even for the moon, somebody will be good enough to get us an artificial Why should he not plack his one, which uoes just as well as the real 'Perhaps if one must deal in generalilight and sweetne son wyoung moon on 'Perhaps not, if one is young oneself. into the azure-tinted eyes upraised to after all, I prefer gaslight, for though possessing less romance, it is not troubled at inauspicious times with dark clouds cross-wood, may I congratulate you ! 'Upon what, Miss Mayne ! But the man's face paled and his voice 'Upon what ! Certainly a congratula tion to a man a few weeks previous to his Business compels it, darling but I marriage may pass unchallenged. And shall carry your sweet beauty with me when society is to lose so shining a light as Mr. Melwood it surely may congratu-proves its loss! Bitterly-sweet, icily-cutting, was every And for a moment the girl's peerless word as it fell from the girl's lips; and beauty made the man waver in his alle | they stung the man before her, even giance to the haughty mummons received through the coat of mail in which he wrapped himself-stung and drove him Had he known this girl beside him was to madness, while her wonderful beauty the owner of as many thousands as the awakened in him the old passion in ir resistable force. 'Hush, Ethel! For Heaven's sake, schemes the summer harvest would have hush! Not from your lips can I hear these title words. Oh, darling, if you In no measured words had he asked have forgotten I have not, and memory worthy ones, until on waking to my desolation, I have wished that I were dead. 'You trust not! What do you mean, Ernest!' and there was a haughty ring in | Better the grave in its loneliness than

There was no acting here, and hot tears face, but a great scorn was in her voice

'Miss Anstay would probably prefer

Trust me, little one. I will of course an audience. 'Ethet in those days gone by you loved cheek again. Do not make my going me. Do not deny it. Your lips had not harder by this sad face on our last even- f then learned to hide the impulses of your heart, your eyes could not lie; and I-Yes; your letters are all I have to oh, my darling, in thought of the chains live upon-all the promise I shall know that bound me even then - have struggled of the future. Ernest, I fear that gay in such impotence that the angels might 'Fear nothing, darling, and, believe did I ever meet you, only to have you late. Forgive the past and be my wife

Your wife-yours! Sooner would I lay down my life. Yes, I loved once-Three months sped by-months which | why should I deny it ?-loved you with breathing nothing of that promise to re- | you. Go, in your calsehood, with your she in her woman's pride sent no tell her of the amusement you found in converted innocence into knowledge, joy But her country life seemed, dull and into wretchedness, light into darkness, similers, and the squire noting the pale girl into a woman. Then bid her lay wan cheek, gladly consented to break her head upon your breast, press upo through the retirement of so many years, her lips the "ses you can yield so well, and once again seek the gay world he and ask her it site is not proud of such a prize. Let her bind you closer in her A month later and Ethel Mayne's chains of gold. You thought mine only vided for her, with all the wonderful For opening my eyes to man's treachery incarnate baseness which can be veiled Save to her father, for whom she wears | in the glory of the image of his maker her old radiant smile, the girl is an Yes, I forgive you even as I scorn you.

again the faith and trust without which upon the rose bordered path her feet so This was all, yet enough. He had cal- | gladly trod. So as they turned from the led several times since she had come to sacred place, and the organ breathed