CHRISTMAS! Call and Examine our Stock of CHRISTMAS PRESENTS. A MAGNIFICENT COLLECTION AT THE CENTRAL DISPENSARY. W. D. GORDON & CO., 124 Princess Street, nearly opposite the City Hotel. A Night Bell. Dec. 9th, 1879. WM. DAVIS, THE CELEBRATED PLANET READER.

WIND WAITS, FROM VARIOUS SOURCES AND ON VARIOUS THEMES. Remove the scales from the building and avoid accident. Rev. Mr. Muller could not fill his Belleville engagement in consequence of illness. A team of spirited horses on Princess street created quite a commotion by their antics. The sale of flowers in the City Hall yesterday was successful. Blumen Tische was a paying card. The snow has come down very evenly. Good sleighing is to be had. We may expect a couple of large Christmas markets if it continues. The country roads are now very good. As a result the wood came to the city in large quantities to-day. Complaint has been made against a sausage making establishment on Princess Street. The police have inspected it, and pronounced it filthy kept. We sympathize with the man who was put down for a song at a rural entertainment, but was excused "owing to a sliver which got into his eye," as a correspondent writes. A schooner was observed going up the Bay of Quinte from Kingston on Sunday. It is not probable that she succeeded in getting beyond Picton, if she even reached that port. A writ of attachment was issued to-day against the Lovell Printing and Publishing Company for $267, at the instance of the Canada Paper Company, P. S. Ross, assignee. Dedicated to the myriads of wretches who live in boarding houses. And always thus since I have roved: 'O'er earth, my heart's home has enlarged: If e'er a waiver I loved, She was the first to be discharged. Rev. Mr. Muller's remarks in regard to the purpose of the resurrection of the wicked has caused quite a commotion in Toronto and elsewhere. One writes: "To hear 'Our Father,' the 'God of Love' talked of in this cruel heathenish way is too much for one who loves the Lord and believes in Him."

THE "PINFARON" ROW.—Dr. Potts, of the Metropolitan Church, is bitter in his opposition to the singing of the "Pinfaron," going so far as to say that "if the day should ever come when the choir of a Methodist church should perform such a play as that, I know that day that choir shall cease to be a choir connected with the Methodist Church of Canada." "As a matter of fact the project was suggested by a member of the Metropolitan choir, the first practice of it was conducted at the residence of a prominent member of the choir, and many of the leading members of the choir belong to the company proposing to produce the opera." And what if they did! Members of the church choir in Kingston were practicing it, and they cannot be found fault with. Perhaps Dr. Potts never heard "Pinfaron" sung, and hence does not know how interesting and inoffensive it is. TEA MEETING.—The annual tea meeting in connection with the Village Sunday School was held last night. There was a large attendance, the room being crowded. Mr. Geo. Robertson, the Superintendent, occupied the chair. Addresses were given by Rev. R. McKay, Messrs. J. Cumberland and D. MacLachlan, of Queen's College, and Mr. Maxwell. Messrs. Perry gave interesting readings, and dialogue and recitations were given in a happy style by some of the children. The singing, conducted by Mrs. Maxwell and Mr. Thomas Savage, was very hearty. The Superintendent, and Mrs. Maxwell (the organist) were presented with addresses accompanied by suitable books from the scholars, in appreciation of the interest taken in them. The meeting closed in the usual way. THE COMING SCIENCE.—The advance announcement of the January "Scribner Magazine" shows increasingly the desire to get hold of valuable and unobscured material, trying within the range of popular interest. Among the subjects to be treated are American Arms and Ammunition, The United States Life-Saving Service, Young Artists' Life in New York, Practical Strawberry Culture, The Burnside Campaign before Fredericksburg, The Academics of Louisiana, British and American Farming, A Revolutionary Congressman on Horseback, The Letters of Charles Dickens, Fiat Money, The Prospects for a Young Man in New York, Two Kinds of Household Decoration, General Principles of Cookery, New Inventions and Processes, Spelling Reform, Recent Literature, &c.

THE BOYS' ENTERTAINMENT.—We hope the friends of education will bear in mind and patronize the entertainment to be given by the pupils of the Christian Brothers School in the Opera House tomorrow (Thursday) evening. Those who were present at a similar entertainment last spring can bear witness to the superior talent possessed by the juvenile performers. It is said by many to be one of the most charming exhibitions ever given in this city, the scenic and tableau effects being particularly fine. Let the public by all means encourage the educational and historic efforts of our Kingston boys, of whom we have reason to be proud. TEMPERANCE MEETING.—Last evening the regular meeting of the St. Paul's Temperance Association took place; Rev. Mr. Casey in the chair. An excellent address was given by Rev. Mr. Kirkpatrick; songs by Mrs. Rudston, Messrs. Livingston, Burns and Johnston; readings by Messrs. J. S. Wood, R. M. Horsey, Rudston, Burns, and Masters Lee, Richards and Wolf. The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, the 30th inst.

REQUIEM MASS.—At St. Mary's Cathedral this morning a requiem Mass was sung by Rev. Father McDonough, of Naples, for the repose of the soul of the late A. P. Bernard, Esq., who died on the 26th of November last at Lacey-cour, France, aged 71 years. The deceased was the father of Mr. A. H. Bernard of this city. Much sympathy is expressed for him by his friends here in his loss. HARTY'S STORE was too small for the crowd last night. Hutchison sells with a hot reeve.

THE TRIAL OF FERRIS.—The trial of this case was resumed yesterday. One witness was on the rack nearly all day. He admitted he spent a great part of money and to have treated half a hundred people. He may not have meant to influence the election as he says, by this wholesale purchase and consumption of liquor, but we have our suspicions. POLICE COURT.—The docket this morning was well filled. Thos. Ward, drunk, was fined $1 and costs or 10 days. W. James, assault, 1st and 2nd or 5 days. Mr. James' assault was partly justified as the boy he struck had been contumaciously assaulting him. But the law was on the boy's side and Mr. James was punished. A husband swore out a peace warrant against his wife and son. The case was adjourned until Friday.

FOUND.—The benefit of advertising in the Whig was demonstrated yesterday. Mr. S. R. Tomkins lost a young heifer and it was found (through information) supplied in response to the advertisement quietly chewing its " cud " about half a mile beyond Rockwood Asylum. The gold pencil lost in the snow storm of Sunday was also returned to the office yesterday. The owner was a happy man when he received it.

THE DISAFFECTION. A STATEMENT FROM A DISCHARGED BANDSMAN. We thought that the spirit of disaffection pervading the Garrison Battery was not confined to the officers, but that it had taken place, the discontent of the men has been commonly talked of, not only in military circles but about the city generally. For our part we could not doubt it, as many members of the Battery frequently stated their grievances, and that we might make them public on their behalf. Indeed, not a few of them predicted this winter's trouble many months ago. And yet we are seriously told by an oracle that the men have recently deserted through such simple and natural causes as lovelessness and debt, though we are left to speculate upon the strange fatality which can bring such a sudden crop of these soldiers' weaknesses into a small battery hitherto free from them. Between desertions and discharges the personnel of the corps has recently been greatly changed. If the service were as popular as a few persons allege it to be, this great change would not occur. However, we have taken the advice of an officer of the School of Gunnery, and upon the first opportunity presenting itself, have made an enquiry into the state of affairs, the result of which we give below.

GETTING INFORMATION. In connection with Battery 'A' this process is most difficult. For a member of the corps to be seen entering the Whig office is but a preliminary to an interview with one of the officers, a deal of cross-questioning and future suspicion and ill-favor. Still not a few come in to thank us warmly for the disagreeable stand we have taken in their behalf. Their evidence, however, cannot be used, as they dread the penalty of being spotted men of the Battery. We did not seek for the statements of Mr. Eades or other well-known members of the Battery, who have recently left, not thinking that any in Kingston doubted the true state of affairs. The officers may confidently challenge enquiry so long as they keep the men under a state of petty espionage so that they must have strong moral courage in order to speak their opinions. It will be seen below what one man got for doing it.

LAST EVENING L. J. FERRIS called at the Whig office and stated that he was an ex-bandman of the Battery, and had been that day discharged in a regular way. He was perfectly willing to make a statement, and remembering the advice we had received we accepted it. He was formerly engaged with Mr. R. H. Elmer, of Princess Street, and, needing more out door exercise, entered the School of Gunnery in September, 1878. He served for a short course and took out one of the best certificates that his squad obtained. He was then enlisted with two others of his squad for a year. Being a young man, with a young man's weaknesses, he was brought once in a while to the orderly room on petty complaint, but his character was not so bad but that he was willingly accepted on Monday last for another year and sworn in with others at the Police Court. That evening he was engaged in cutting Sergeant King's hair, and entered freely into conversation with him. One of his remarks was that his room mates (the bandmen) did not intend to drink the officers' healths at Christmas, considering the way they had been treated. This must have been a dreadful act of mutiny in King's sight, or he may have had a vision of the sugar plumb which was in store for him.

THE SEAMEN'S CONVENTION. The branches at Port Hope, Toronto and Kingston have been admitted to a full membership of the Seamen's Union, and hereafter Canadian sailors will not ship by the round trip or month, but by the passage, and the same rate of wages will prevail among all branches of the Union. It is estimated that the newly added branches add fully 1,000 members to the general union, making the total membership about 7,000 men, and it is stated that the union has a permanent fund of nearly $50,000. There is a proposition to allow union men, who are too old to do duty on sailing vessels, to ship on barges that are towed.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT. Mr. William Cashman yesterday afternoon suffered a serious accident. He came to the city with a load of hay which he held to Mr. M. James, of the Odessa House. While driving through the archedway leading to Mr. James' yard, he did not stoop low enough, and his head struck the brick work, inflicting a deep wound and knocking Mr. Cashman senseless. He was taken into the hotel and Dr. Sullivan hastily summoned. He stopped the bleeding, stitched up the wound, and had Mr. Cashman removed to the Hotel Dixie.

UNCOLLECTED TAXES.—Yesterday at 11 o'clock was the time fixed for Mr. A. Chadwick to return the Collector's Rolls for 1874, '75, '76 and '77. He handed in the books at 10:40 o'clock, twenty minutes ahead of time. The taxes uncollectible average $100 on real estate for each year. Mr. Chadwick returned on an average $150 more per year than was estimated he could get. He performed his duties very satisfactorily.

WATER-TOWN'S MAYOR.—Yesterday Mr. R. B. Taggart, paper manufacturer, was elected Mayor of Watertown, defeating Mr. D. O'Brien, barrister, and retiring Chief Magistrate. Mr. Taggart was adopted by the Republicans, and he owes his success to the fact that he ran on that ticket. M. E. CRUICK.—All who attend the tea-meeting to-morrow evening may confidently anticipate a very pleasant time. Addresses, readings by S. Woods, M. A., and Mr. Perry, music by the choir and the Misses Burton.

THE CASE RECALLED.—Some parties blame Bishop Lewis for attending the Tory banquet at Ottawa. If Bishop Lewis is a Tory, and has nothing to condemn in the Pacific sea, and admires Sir John in all his characters and all his associates, there is no reason why he should not have attended this banquet, as he chose to do so. He has as much right to express his political opinions in that way as any other man.—St. John Freeman.

By the use of Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites the blood is speedily vitrified and purified, and so made capable of producing a sound mind and a sound body.

KINGSTON PENITENTIARY. THE CONVICTS REMOVED TO THE KINGSTON PENITENTIARY. Thirty convicts from the Halifax Penitentiary have been assigned to the Kingston Penitentiary, being removed owing to the over-crowded state of the local institution. Nine Prince Edward Island convicts accompanied them, in charge of Chief Keeper McCartney, and Inspector Moyle. The following are their names, ages, crimes, and sentences: Daniel Heiler, 23, robbery, five years from November 18th, 1870. Hughes made a desperate attempt to escape in the spring of 1878, for which another year was added to his term. Frederick Martin, 21, June 16th, 1876, to 14 years for rape. Samuel Clarke, 21, sentenced June 3rd, 1875, to 14 years for rape. Alex. Buyers, 18, Thomas Brackett, 17, Wm. Siro, 17, and Frank Shiers, each sentenced to four years December 2nd, 1878, for highway robbery. Captain George Greening, 59, sentenced May 15th, 1878, to 12 years for shooting his wife with intent to kill. Wm. Robinson, 31, sentenced June 18th, 1875, to 10 years for rape. Robinson objected to going to Kingston, and on Wednesday made a desperate but unsuccessful attempt to escape, when he narrowly escaped being killed by a shot from one of the keepers. Aubrey Spencer, 19, sentenced June 6th, 1879, to four and a half years for larceny. Peter MacNeal, 29, sentenced to five years for manslaughter. MacNeal stabbed his cousin and caused his death in a drunken brawl on the 14th of August, 1879. Reuben Mure, 22, sentenced July 4th, 1879, to 14 years for attempting to burn the town of Yarmouth. Duncan Macdonald, 19, sentenced July 12th, 1879, to ten years for burglary. Daniel Carter, 19, sentenced to the same term for the same crime. Joseph Hurtle, 51, imprisonment for life for the murder at Lahrre of a constable named Farrell, who was endeavoring to collect a bill for $3. John Dangy, 40, sentenced October 3rd, 1879, to ten years for attempting to murder his wife near Lockport with a hatchet. John Macnamara, 27, formerly of the 97th regiment, who attempted to burn down the goal while awaiting trial, sentenced to eight years for burglary and arson. William Anderson, 21, six years for forgery. William Farquhar, alias Macguire, 16, sentenced to three years for burglary. George Miller, 15, sentenced May 10th, 1879, to four years for stealing $80. George Forrester, 24, sentenced October 1878, to ten years for larceny and receiving stolen goods. James S. Loughborough, 32, sentenced to ten years for rape. Samuel Winkler, 22, and James Lewis, 21, the former belonging to Prince Edward Island, the latter to Halifax, both sentenced to seven years October 1878, for breaking into and afterwards setting fire to a lot owned by Wm. Scott at Wallacebridge. Joseph Brennan, 22, sentenced October 1879, to three years for burglary. Wallace Thibodeau, 26, for stealing a horse and wagon, sentenced to three years from October, 1879.

THE EQUALIZATION BILL. The hearing of the appeal against the present equalization of the county will consume much time, as many witnesses have been, and are being, summoned to give evidence. Yesterday afternoon testimony respecting the valuation of land in the Township of Bedford was given by Mr. Cook, Clerk of the Municipality, and formerly an Assessor, and Mr. Barr, formerly Reeve and an old inhabitant. It was stated that several hundreds of acres of land had, by the fire, been rendered absolutely worthless. Mr. Nash and Mr. A. P. Perry, surveyors, gave evidence as to the valuation, generally, of the county. This morning Mr. J. R. Dawson gave evidence respecting the value of land in the Township of Palmerton, of which he is Reeve. He stated that there had been a great exodus from the Township and that much land was a drug in the market. The Clerk of the County Council, by direction of the Wardens, having written to the Attorney-General, received a reply from Hon. Mr. Mowat yesterday to the effect that he supported the decision of Judge Price as to the constitutionality of the Equalization Court.
