TUESDAY EVENING, JAN. 6.

REMINDERS.

TUESDAY. MEE 186 of the City Council. St. George's forier: meet at 8 c'olock

To-morrow the Ontario Legislature wil meet for the despatch of business, the first important transaction of which wil be the election of Speaker. For local reasons, as well as of our knowledge of his Stness for the position, we could wish Mr. H. M. Deroche, the member for Lennox, to prove to be the choice of the House. He has been tavourably mentioned for the position, but so also has Dr. Clarks, M. P. P. for Wellington. It has not yet transpired who the opposition candidate will be, or whether the Tories of the House with their usual magnanimity will graciously permit the election of the Government nominee acclamation! Of the prospective Legislative Bill of Fare it will be time enough to speak when we get a copy of it, but the "speech from the throne" will not be submitted until Thursday owing to a day's delay which the election of the new Speaker will occasion. All in good time; we shall have plenty of politics ere

The "whited sepulchra" lie of ou contemporary certainly had its influence upon the Mayoralty election yesterday, but it was in directly the opposite direction to that intended by its fabricator. The attempt to distort a simple summone from Mr. Carson's Secretary to his Committee into a political rallying cry most miserably failed to influence the electors against that gentleman's candidature, but it did stir them up to resent and repudiate the organ's insane a tempt . to mix in prolitics with munipal matters. Much cleverer men than the writer of the paragraph in question have overreached themselves, and c-rtainly he could expect no better result from the clumsy falsehood with which he insulted the common sense of his own readers an the eve of the election. Of course it was fondly hoped the falsshood could not be be nailed before its mischief mission was accomplished, but the inditor of the double-leaded "whited sepulchre" must have realized ere this that his little trick has been thoroughly folled, and that he is now being roundly rediculed by every body for his footish pains.

It is a hopeful sign that the electors themselves are taking a much more intelligent interest than in former times in their municipal affairs. Even if they should make a mistaken choice occasionally it is after all much better that they should select as well as elect their municipal representatives than that they should leave their civic affairs in the hands of a few wirepuliers and ward politicians. There were a couple of instances in yesterday's elections, which and to show that the electors have a mine to take their own matters into their own hands. We refer to the candidature of Mr. Doran in Victoria Ward and Mr. Newlands in Frontenac. In each these cases the candidates were nominated either without their knowledge or against their wishes, but in each case the of the News' equivocal support. No electors would persist in supporting them. In Mr. Doran's case it was quite success- savory recollection would raise our con ful, he being elected as third man. the case of Mr. Newlands, election would have been even more certain had he not insisted-from honorable motives have no doubt-upon declining candida ture. Had be only consented to become a candidate he could have been easily elected, as many would have gladly supported him had they not supposed that he had definitely refused to stand, and that, therefore, there really was no alder manic contest in the ward. To tie for third place under such circumstances is positive proof that Mr. Newlands is the real choice of the people of the ward, and that had the fact even of his reluctan consent been known he would have be returned by a substantial majority.

THE NEW COUNCIL.

As a consolatory offset to the r utte rout in the Mayoralty fight the party of extravagance has already begun to "blow" that they will obtain the centrol of the new Council. In regard to this matter we have to say that several gentlemen who are now members-elect of the Council, and who are claimed by the party of extravagance, owe their success at the polls yesterday directly to the votes of citizens who are in favour of a cor tinuation of last year's policy, and it will in similar walks may excuse their sneers be more than the seats of these gentle- at more successful persons. The chief ambition in life of the political editor has men at the Council Board are worth if they dare to disappoint the just expectations of the electors by going back upon that record. A new era of municipal reform has been fairly inaugurated by last year's Council, and it would be a step fatal to themselves for the incoming Board of Aldermen to endanger its continuance. Several Aldermen were returged yesterday by narrow majorities, and owe their election to a great variety of circumstances; but the great lesson of yesterday's vote is contained in the result of the Mayoralty election, in which the men pitted against each other represented respectively economy_and extravagance. That the former triumphed so conspicuously is proof of the fact that the citizens have declared most unequivocally for municipal reform, especially in the local finances. Let the new Council lay this lesson, which the people in their vote for Mayor by a majority of two to one have endorsed, to heart; and let the reckless relies of the old extravagant regime pause well before they re-inaugurated the "devil-may-care recklessness o of former times." The people are plainly bent upon municipal reform, and those members of the new Council who oppose it may expect next year to share the fate | Edward worked for above twenty years | daily practice and with unbounded sucof the defeated candidate in the Mayor- ever suspect that she was a woman .-London Truth. alty election of yesterday.
