"Meanwhile let the WHIG wait the announcement of his appointment before it raises a new cry."-Daily News.

*. This is the new postmaster on Monday, January 5ih. On New Year's Day he told almost everybody he met that he held Sir John's letter, announcing his appointment, in his pocket, as a nice New Year's gift. If Mr. Shannon is not good authority on such matters of fact then we agree with the News that perhaps it would be better to await more reliable sources of information. Evidently Mr. Shannon did not fully believe Sir John's words himself, or he would not have worked on a political insue all day in Victoria Ward.
