THE LOCAL HOUSE.

The poerds objection is raised again to last evening's issue of our contemporary against the time chosen by Hon. Mr. Mowat for the opening of the Outerio Legislature. The month of November is submitted as a time when - in spite of its being the busy searon of fall trade and work for nearly everybody-as being a more bligible season. But the real reason or this opinion crops out in the wish that the season may "be brought to an early termination, so that it will not be long in session after the opening of the Dominion Perliament." It avails very little after all, it would seem to the on the opinion is volunteered that an-

Tory Haman, that his party is in power at Ottawa, so long as any political Mordecai is permitted to hold the place of honor in the Ontario capital. Further nual sessions of the Ontario House 'might be dispensed with.' No doubt. Had the election of lass June returned a Tory majority to the House it would have been a most serviceable, indeed an indispensible institution, but as the Tories elected but a corporal's guard the usefulhess of the Legislature is gone. So long as the Liberal ascendancy is maintained and that is likely to be for many a long year to come-the Tory wish in regard to the Local Legislature is not only that its annual sessions, but that the House itself, should be "dispensed with" if that swallow, especially after their temporary N.P. suppess, but that ascendancy is now to accept the situation. Sir John Macdonald and most of his followers would this can never be so long as Ontario proves to be the impregnable citadel of the Federal system.

AN O. CAN AND ITS INF. UENCE.

Under a clumsy caption, to which had evidently hunted up and tacked the dictionary definition, the Acces of last night makes a still clumsier attempt to retort upon ourselves the sting of a para graph under the smart of which it is evidently wincing. We pointed out as a curious incident of the recent municipal el ctious that Mesers.
