SOFT SIDE OF JURIES.

REMARKABLE INSTANCE OF HOW THEIR FEELINGS ARE OVERCOME BY THE HONEYED WORDS OF COUNSEL.

'Bob' Ingersoll is said to be exceedingly effective before a jury, and many stories are told of his triumphs as a special pleader when he was a criminal lawyer in Illinois. On one occasion, years ago, he was engaged in that State as a counsel for a farmer who had quarrelled with a neighbor and shot him dead. The evidence was plain and direct on that point, though there was nothing to show that the prisoner had not believed that he was acting in self-defence. When Ingersoll was addressing the jury, he drew a pathetic picture of the prisoner's wife and children—he had declined to allow them to be present at the trial, as a less sagacious advocate might have done—waiting in eager expectation for his return, confident that he would be acquitted of a crime which he could not and could not have committed except to save his own life, so dear to his family, so necessary to their protection and support. 'I see the wife now,' continued the shrewd barrister, 'standing at the door of her home, the sunlight on her hair, straining her eyes after the figure of the man dearer than all the world to her. I see his little boys swinging on the gate, with smiles about their lips, gazing down the road, watching for their beloved, innocent father, and sure that he is coming. They are all ready, the dear little fellows, to jump down, run after him, leap into his arms and kiss away his sadness—the shadow of his unfortunate deed—while the cry, 'Dear, dear father, we knew you would come!' And, gentlemen of the jury, you who are yourselves husbands and fathers, won't you let him go home?' The members of the jury were listening with wet eyes, and leaning toward the eloquent advocate. The foreman, a big, brawny, simple-hearted farmer, the tears on his sunburned cheeks, was so carried away that, thinking the question addressed personally to him and demanding answer, exclaimed in a choking voice, 'Yes, Bob, we'll let him go home.' Ingersoll had not half completed his argument, but he knew that that was the supreme moment, and sat down. The prosecuting attorney made a long speech in reply, but it was, of course, entirely vain. The jury, after being out five minutes, returned a unanimous verdict for acquittal.

Wonderful Discovery.

For the speedy cure of Consumption and all diseases that lead to it, such as stubborn Coughs, neglected Colds, Bronchitis, Hay Fever, Asthma, pain in the side and chest, dry hacking cough, tickling in the throat, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, and all chronic or lingering diseases of the throat and lungs, Dr. King's New Discovery has no equal and has established for itself a world-wide reputation. Many leading physicians recommend and use it in their practice. The formula from which is prepared is highly recommended by all medical journals. The clergy and the press have complimented it in the most glowing terms. Go to your druggist and get a trial bottle free of cost, or a regular size for $1 00. For sale by J. G. King, Successor to E. H. Parker, Market Square Kingston.

THE DUTCH.—Holland, the home of the Dutch, is surrounded with dikes, to prevent the overflow of the land by the waters of the sea. Every Dutchman whose land borders on the sea, makes it his business to walk every morning along the edges of the dikes, and watch whether, during the night, any water has found its way by any chance through them. If there be even the smallest trickling of water perceptible, he drops everything else and repairs the difficulty. Left until to-morrow, the little hole may be widened, until a rude tide forces its way through the embankments, and endangers his homestead and family. This prudence is natural, and one would suppose that equal precautions should be taken to prevent the access of diseases to the human system. But every man thinks "every other one is mortal but himself," and so neglects the plainest rules for self preservation. A box of DR. HERRICK'S SUGAR COATED PILLS kept in the house, and their application upon the first appearance of sickness, will prevent the inroads of disease. They cleanse the system from malaria of disease, stop the gaps, as does the Dutchman in his dikes, and renders all safe again.

THE LARGEST FARM IN THE WORLD.—The largest farm in the world is 170 miles square, and is situated in Ellis county, Kansas. Its proprietor is a wealthy Englishman named George Grant, who named his estate Victoria, in honor of his Sovereign. Vast herds of cattle, and a cavalry brigade of mounted stockmen roam over the face of this great farm, on which the only remedy employed for bruises, inflammation and the like, is Giles' Liniment Iodide Ammonia. Giles' Pills cure Constipation. Sold by all druggists. Send for pamphlet. Dr. Giles, 120 West Broadway, N Y. Trial size 25 cents For sale by J. G. King, druggist, Kingston.

Amos Woolly, M. D., of Kosciusco County, Indiana, says: "For three years past I have used Allen's Lung Balsam extensively in my practice; and I am satisfied that there is no better medicine for lung diseases in use.

A few drops of SPALDING'S GLUE, on a brush, properly applied, holds like a vice.

The Great Shoshonees Remedy and Pills.

The success that these medicines have met with since their introduction to the public some years ago, proves plainly to the most skeptical that they are medicine that performs what they are advertised to do. The virtues of these medicines have been well tested, and have withstood their trial in a most satisfactory manner. For diseases of the Blood, Liver, Lungs, &c., they are unsurpassed. We have testimonials of miraculous cures of these diseases, and of many others. If any one is afflicted, let him try a bottle of the one in afflicted, and a box of Pills. No injurious effects will follow their use to the most delicate person, as they are purely vegetable, there being no mineral matter in them. The cost is small, while the advantages derived from their use will doubly repay you for your expense and trouble.

Try these above remedies and be convinced that they are no humbug. No one who has tried the Shoshonees Pills has ever pronounced an unfavorable opinion of them; no family where they have been used will be without them. Full information may be had on all points relating to the use, and the experience of those who have used them, by securing one of the Circulars from your druggist for Free. Price of the remedy in pint bottles, $; Pills 25 cents a box. Sold by all medicine dealers.

MANY who have been relieved of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and various other pains in the Kidneys, Breast or Side, believe it is solely done by the electrical qualities which MITCHELL'S POROUS PLASTERS contain, and which is imparted to the system, thus restoring them to a healthy condition. They are very soft and pliable, still very adhesive; and a sure cure for Weak Backs, Pains in the Side and Breast; and are invaluable to those who have a Cold of long standing, and often prevent Consumption. Some even tell us they believe they were entirely cured by the use of them of a long seated consumption. Prepared by GEORGE E. MITCHELL, Lowell, Mass., and sold by all Druggists. NORTHROP & LYMAN, Toronto, General Agents.

PETIT'S EYE SALVE.—An Infallible Remedy for all diseases of the Eye (acute or chronic), granulation of the lids, ulceration of the lachrymal glands, film and weakness of the vision from any cause. It is the most simple, safe and effectual remedy ever discovered. The materials of which it is made are pure, perfect and costly, compounded with elaborate care and exactness, safe as to its application, being used externally and, of course, avoiding with pain and danger which necessarily attends the introduction of caustic minerals and eye washes. Sold by all druggists. Northrop & Lyman Agents for Canada.

Caution.

A WORD TO THOSE WHO USE POROUS PLASTERS. It is a universally acknowledged fact that

BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTERS ARE SUPERIOR TO ALL OTHERS.

The great demand for them has caused a number of unscrupulous parties to make and sell worthless imitations under the name of Capsicum or Capsicin. As the market is flooded with inferior plasters selling at any price it is important for the consumer to know which is the best. It is well known that some of the cheap plasters have been examined and found to contain injurious ingredients which make them dangerous to use, causing paralysis and other diseases. All genuine BENSON'S CAPCINE PLASTERS have the word CAPCINE cut in them.
