Daily British Whig

MONDAY EVENING, MARCH 1. "SEVENTY BOWS TO HEATH."

AN EPISODE OF THE LATE VISIT OF HIS BEHELD TO THIS CITY.

U daughter of the drama, who has had so many men to follow, never to leave. Those jewels which bedeck thy daily dress, those pearls which grace thy bosom, and that yet your daily charms you now direct 'Tis true, 'tis true, a man you will know is scarce, and to have had such a one, a holy priest to you must be a boon. O see him come with nervous, faltering step, Not now as matter, but as slave in kept. By the false smile upon thy rosy lip, And then to see thee bow thy head, Until his very forehead sweeps the floor. And then to see thee bow thy head, Until his very forehead sweeps the floor. O noble bow, almighty bow, in your door! O noble bow, almighty bow, in your door! O noble bow, almighty bow, in your door!
