A Good OFFER .- Mr. John McFadden, of Pitteburg, has been offered $150 for a "Frontenac" five year old colt. He refused it. The colt is from an imported blood mare.

THE COUNTY DEBENTURES. - It is etaled that the recent arrangement entered into by the County Council Committee for the issue of debentures, cannot be catried out. A by-law is the barrier. RETURNED HOME. - Mr. Joseph Wad dingham, senior member of the firm of Waddingham & Son, who met such a disastrous loss by their planing mill and sash factory, on Ontario street, being destroyed by fire on Saturday, returned to day from New York.

DRENNAN'S SALE .- The aweeping sale of furniture at Drennan's wholesale house will commence to morrow. Such a sale, and by auction, is rare; and that it will be a success we have no doubt a large attendance.

SALE OF TOLLS. - The sale of the tolls. Bath Road, took place this afternoon at Fallon's inn. The first gate sold for $445 to Mrs. Ault, and the second for $270 to John Fletcher. Together they brought $85 more than last year. J. E. Hutche- | for a house. son was the auctioneer.

GENEROUS. - Several of the kind hearted ladies of this city, learning the destitution of the mother of the young man Hutcheson, who died under peculiar circumstances on Sunday last, made up a handsome purse and sent it to her to assist her in her present extremity.

HO FOR THE WEST ! - To-day another scursion party left here for Manitoba and the Western States. Upwards of departing agriculturists go to Daokota, Nebrasks and Illinois. Several of the emigrants were from Wolfe Island and along the line of the K & P. RR.

A PLEASANT EVENING. - We know o no way in which an evening may be more pleasantly spent than in attending the lecture of Mr. Bengough, the humorous lecturer. The comic sketches produce much laughter, the more especially as many of the drawings will be of a local character. Let the audience be large as the lecture will be exceedingly good.

PERSONAL. - Mr. J. D. Thompson has left for Montreal, where he will again act as the agent at that port for the Kings ton and Montreal Forwarding Company. Mr. Thompson's friends (and they are numerous) will miss him in Kingston. He is as popular in Montreal as here, and is well fitted for the important position to which he has been assigned.

ALARMING RUMOUR. - The report that the North West Monnted Police had had a skirmish with the Indiana and that twenty-five of the former had been killed created a slight sensation in the city. Scribner's for May.

Scribner for the coming month is fu of interesting materials on subjects of general or timely intrest. History is a tractively represented by Schuyler's "Peter the Great," which is being studi sixty tickets were sold here. Many of the ounly read all over the country. The published portraits of Pos-and their names is legion -- have generally failed to give due weight to one or the other of his pre-eminent characteristics : his intellectual genius and his moody cynicism. He has either been represented as a sentimental dandy or as a bestial necromarcer. Scribner's, however, has presented a portrait that "accounts" for what is best authenticated of Poe. This portrait was made from a danguerreotype taken by Masury, of Providence, probably in 1848 (Poe died in 1849), and represents him as, first of all, a poet. The broad, domed forehead, and the deep, inward look cannot fail to impress one with his imaginative power, while the lines under the eyes, and, most of all, the settled cur of the lip, show as plainly as the phrenologists could ask, the evidence of those extravagances which sadden Poe's life and the lives of those about him.

Obituary.

On Saturday evening the 17th inst., in the 81st year of his age, Mr. Hiram Lathrop, of Wolfe Island, quietly passed from this scene of action to that bourne whence no traveller returns. DASH FOR LIBERTY-THE HIDING PLACES OF THE . BUNAWAYS. The escape of two prisoners, reported two quarters of the city. As soon as the alarm had been sound ed the Governor of the Gaol mounted his ch irger and in hot haste rode to the po lie; station and informed the police, who promptly responded to the call and startou on the trail. The two turnkeys of the gaol also turned out. As we men--The members of the St. George's tioned yesterday, Fanning made for the Regiopolis College grounds. After mancouvring for some time he succeeded in getting into a barn it the rear of Chas. Livingston's premises on Brock street, and hiding himself in the hay. P. C. Snodden was on his track and learned that he was somewhere in the alley that runs in the rear of the M. E. Church. The policeman made a minute search of the neighborhood looking suspiciously upon the barn made a charge with a pitchfork on the hay loft. Almost the first thrust grazed the skin off his forehead and the second struck him in the hand.

Fanning felt that this was getting too near for comfort, and as Snodden was out to plunge the fork in again he (the and convict) shouted out "hold and gave himself up. He was taken to the gaol after but three-quarters of an hour's liberty. Meanwhile P. C. Nesbitt and one of the turnkeys were on the trail of O'Brien, who had gone down West street. After taking a run along the lower part of the city he found refuge in a vacant house in rear of Mr. P. Henderson's, on Earl street. He climbed upon a hen house near, and breaking the window, got in. getting wind of his escape, followed in few moments with a change of clothes Speedily O'Brien discarded his priso garb. He was conversing with his wife when Nesbitt came along and was given scent by seeing the broken window. H climbed up also and found the two earnest conversation.
