THURSDAY EVENING, MAY 20. CITY AND VICINITY.

PROBS - Cloudy to partly cloudy warm weather, with showers and thunder storms, followed to-morrow by cooler north westerly to northerly winds and fine weather.

WIMBLEDON TEAM, -Capt. Strachan and Sergt. Baillie, of the 47th Battalion, have been selected as members of the Wimbledon team, which sails for England on the 19th proximo.

EVANGELISTIC, -The evangelistic meet ings will be resumed in the Y. M. C. rooms this evening at 8 o'clock, when ad dresses will be given by Messrs. Lockett, Williams, and others.

CALLED .- At a late meeting of the Presbyterian congregation of Newboro. Westport, Delta and Morton, the Rev James G. Stuart, of Trenton, received a call to become their minister.

CHEAP EXCURSION. -The weather is so warm that the expursion season is already near ripe. On Saturday the 'Maud' will 500 Door Mats, offer the first of the season—over to the Cape. > POLICE COURT. - Margaret Oakley has returned to the city. Yesterday, fired by excessive liquor drinking, she went about the city (according to custom) crying for her child. She was arrested and this morning given a cheque for three months' board at the county gaol. Moses Doyle, sailor, deposited $1 for his carouse.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin." -On Friday evening May 28th "Uncle Tom's Cabin' will be played in the Opera House by the Hyers Sisters' Combination, one of the finest companies travelling. Although the drama has been performed here on several occasions it will draw again, especially when it is produced by a company of such acknowledged talent.

KIND REMEMBRANCE. - The late Capt Barrow, formerly residing in Kingston has left by his will £250 sterling (lear duty) to the Dean and Chancellor of the Golden Lion Grocery Diocese, the interest to be applied by chem, as trustees to the deserving poor at tending St. George's Cathedral. He also directs the first year's interest to be given to St. George's Society, of which ne was late President.

his prowess as an oarsman. THE PARK QUESTION .- The Chairman of the Park Committee informs us that Mr. Nash, P.L.S., has been engaged for work in this city. some days in taking levels and opening drains at the best points in the public park. Some of the drains are still open and others have been staked out, and it is felt that if the public are admitted to honor conferred on a learned Kingstonian the ground before the work is completed the effect of some of it will be destroyed. The drainage system will be pushed along so as not to interfere but as little as possible with the public. The large drains are being made by contract.

CITY HALL - We draw special attention to the programme of the concert of morrow evening. The object of it, the extension of the Queen Street church, is a commendable one, while the programme itself is rich and varied. Miss Barr, of Hamilton, is an established favourite in Kingston, and those who have heard her with pleasure on former occasions will be sure to avail themselves | terday. of this opportunity to hear her again. Miss Bustin, of Uxbridge, comes highly recommended as a vocalist, and no small interest will be excited by her first appearance before a Kingston andience. strong staff of local musicians, vocal and instrumental, headed by the Tandy Brothers, will form the "support" for the ladies from a distance. ### Late John Henderson.

There is deep regret anent the death of Mr. John Henderson, for about twenty years a bookseller and stationer of this For many months he had been in declining health, and hence the closing scene in his life, which took place this morning, was an event which had been sadly contemplated by his friends and relatives. He was a Scotchman, born at Perth. He grew to manhood and served as a stationer's clerk in his native place, but when quite young he removed hither and embarked in the business which was so successfully conducted by him until ill-health forced a partial release and finally a complete 'retirement from the cares of trade. No man was more con scientious and unostentatious. He was much devoted to business, perhaps too much so, and all who had such relations with him testify to his anxiety to do what was fair and just between man and man. He was guided by good moral principles. Industrious, methodical and enterprising. and it was only reasonable to expect that he should prosper. In private life he was most exemplary, and his family have reason to lament his early demise. At the end of the wooden building a cow, valued at $25, was locked in She could not be got out and also perished. A pig was severely scorched, so much so that it had to be killed. Mrs. Hogan had no insurance upon her pronear Hierdman's bridge, in Gloucester perty, and her loss will be heavy. A one time it was thought the gas works were in danger, but the work of the fremen and a fire wall prevented the flame from spreading.

Mr. P. Carroll's barn, which adjoined one end of the shed, was considerably damaged.

The origin of the fire is uuknown. It is supposed that a tranp had been sleeping in the shed, and by the careless use of matches ignited the place. There was nothing in the shed where the fire commenced, the family of the late Mr Rees having vacated the premises about a week ago. On Monday last a family named Auburn moved into the hotel to take care of the building, which is in the possession of the Ontario Building and Savings Society.

Warmington's Absence.

To the Editor of the British Whig. SIR, -My attention yesterday was called to an article in your issue of the 15th inst., relative to Gr. Warmington, in which it was stated that he had been absent without leave for three days, having gone to visit a sick sister in Toronto. At my investigation of the case Gr. Warmington informed me that he had been on a drunken spree in this city during his absence, and when questioned by me yester lay, relative to the paragraph in the newspaper, he then informed me that his original statement to me was correct and that be had not left Kingston Gunner Warmington also expressed his willingness to call upon you and request your correction. Tete du Pont Barracks, May 19, 1880. * Gunner Warmington did not call upon us, and, therefore, this is the first ntimation we have received of a change base as to his recent escapade. One reason, probably, why he did not call to correct our statement is that it was partially upon his authority that it was made. Fortunately we preserved a part of his manuscript, and as it was not confidential we are free to use it, especially when double-dealing is in vogue in the matter. Not only did his letter mention his visit to Toronto, but sneered at the millers of the Battery who searched at the G. T. R. station, and at the Toronto police, for not having captured him. We did not chronicle the apparent desertion when it occurred, and a week later ventared, upon the information of several military gentleman, to give a report.
