Only the solemn trembling Of the organ stirred the air

Without, the sweet, still sunshine, Within, the holy calm, Where priest and people waited For the swelling of the pealm.

Shy glances downward thrown, And small hands clasped before her, Stood in the siste alone. Stood half abashed, half frightened, Unknowing where to go, While like a wind rocked flower, The form awayed to and fro; And the changing color fluttered In the little troubled face,

As from side to side she wavered

With a mute, imploring grace.

It was but for a moment, What wonder that we smiled, By such a strange, sweet picture From holy thoughs beguiled? When up rose some one suftly, And many an eye grew dim. And through the tender silence He bore the child with him.

And I - I wondered (losing Thesermon and the prayer) If when sometime I enter The 'many mansions' fair.

And stand abselbed and drooping In the portais' golden glow Our God will send an angel To show me where to go!

At the request of the Warden the matter was laid over for a short time, the members not being all present.

THE EX-TREASURER'S PERCENTAGE. Mr. 'McConnell moved the following resolution: "That, whereas it appears by the report of the County Auditors on the accounts of the late Treasurer, John Irvine, for 1879, that he has credited himself with the sum of $740.17 as percentage on moneys received and expended by him, during his holding office, in connection with the Kingston and Napone road, the said Library seems and had never seen such conduct before. He entreated the Council to preserve decorum. Mr. Calavin succeeded in saying that by the report anee road, the said John Irvine believing himself entitled thereto under the terms of by law No. 15 of the united SHOP counties of Frontenac, Lennox and Addington; and, whereas, the Council of the corporation of the County are of the opinion that the said John Irvine was not so entitled to said sum of $740 17. to the office of Treasurer of such county; and, whereas, in the year 1877 the said John Irvine at the instance of the said Council, but under protest, paid into the pay the men's wages and board. If they County Treasurer the sum of $359.17, as, loss. While Bedford, Storrington, Hinchinbrooke, and other townships, have been largely reduced, the figures for the front townships had only been slightly changed, so that they would thus be compelled to pay the heaviest part of the taxes. If the report were adopted he assured the Council that there would be an appeal.

for figures prepared without any consideration. Many members of the Council went it blind last year in this matter, and lost their elections thereby. Mr. Dawson remarked that the rear townships were reduced to the amount of $275,000, but that his township was sent up $30,000. Was that fair? He assured

Mr. Calvin arose to make a few remarks when a very disorderly scene ocourred, during the course of which the Warden stated that he had been in the Conneil twenty years and had never seen presented by Mr. Atcheson, Garden Island had been raised $10,000. He could prove before the Council that the Island was not worth the amount at which it was equalized. When he and his partner (Mr. I. A.
