The Office Boy.

He was a bran-new office boy, young, pretty-faced, with golden ringlets and blue eyes. Just such a boy as one would imagine would be taken out of his fittle and transported beyond the stars. The first day he glanced -over the library in the editorial room, became acquainted with everybody, knew all the printers and went home in the evening as happy and as cheery as a sunbeam. The next day he appeared, leaned out of the back window, tied the cat up by the tail in the hallway, had four fights with another boy, borrowed two dollars from an occupant of the building, saying his mother was dead, collected his two days' pay from the cashier, hit the janitor with a broomstick, pawned a cost belonging to a member of the editorial staff, wrenched the knobs off the doors, upset the ice-cooler, pied three galleys of type and smashed his fineer in the small press. On the "Mi Mother do not want I to work in auch a du'l place. She says I would make a good preacher, so do I, my finger is better; gone fishin'.

Mistaken Identity.

An amusing case of mistaken identity occurred lately in London. Jeames would call "two scions of a noble house" are so like each other that few people know them apart. The elder was invited to dinner by a mother well known for her assiduity in hunting the heir Knowing the trick he sent his younger brother, who was received with honor, turn it wes to try for a husband, and Mixed ...... 8,30 p.m. .... 6,00 am. made strong running with her. Mamma was delighted, and he was invited again and again, in due time proposing and interview with the trium, hant mother, whose horror and indignation on discovering her mietake, in which her daughter shared, may be imagined.

Deadly Combat.

Stephen Allen was so ill at Jacksonport, Miss., that he could hardly stir in bed when he was told that Henry Melville was on his way there to kill him. Melville was desperate and vindictive. Allen told his young son to stand at the door and endevor to dissaude Melville from his purpose. The boy begged the sessein not to murder a defenceless invalid, but he forced his way in, drew a knife, seized the sick man by the shroat, and raised his weapon to strike. Just then Allen feebly protruded a pistol from under the bedclothes and shot his assailant dead.

Feel's Young Again.

My mother was afflicted a long time with Neuralgia and a dull, heavy inactive condition of the whole system; headache, peryous prostration and was almost helpless. No physicians or medicines did her any good. Three months ago she began to use Hop Bitters, with such good effect that she seems and feels young again, although over 70 years old. We think there is no other medicine fit to use in the family .- A lady, in Providence, R.1

Poverty and Suffering.

I was dragged down with debt, poverty and suffering for years, caused by a sick family and large bills for doctoring which did them no good. I was completely discouraged, until one year ago, by the advice of my pastor, I procured Hop Bitters and commenced their use, and in one month we were all well, and none of us has see a sick day since, and I want to say to all poor men, you can keep your families well a year with Hop Bitters for less than one doctor's visit will cost, I know it. A Workingman.

WHOLESALE EPIDEMIC. - The town of Adams, Massachusetts, has the distinct on not only of bearing the 'name of the tirst man, but of being sick as a corporation. A few years ago the municipality of Cincinnati, in consequence of a whiskey ustillery tumbling into the river, indulged in an involuntary spree of several days but it is not often that a community of six thousand people is attacked with the cholera morbus simultaneously and set writhing by wards, and voniting with a unanimity which we will venture to say they never displayed in paying their taxes. The attack began at the tap of the ten o'clock bell, and ended in three or four hours. The cause thereof is as mysterious as the attack. It was at first assigned to the water in the reservoir, but large numbers of those who did not drink the water were as sick as the others. and so it had been charged to the sir.

A CARD

To those who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE.
